FUTURE SAN FRANCISCO SCHEDULES

The NFL expanded to 32 teams in 2002 with the addition of the Houston Texans. In addition, the NFL realigned for the first time since 1970—into eight divisions of four teams each—and the scheduling formula that was introduced guarantees for the first time that all teams play each other on a regular, rotating basis. Although the number of teams has increased to 32, the number of playoff teams remains the same at 12.

Under the NFL scheduling formula, every team within a division plays 16 games as follows:

- Home and away against its three division opponents (6 games).
- The four teams from another division within its conference on a rotating three-year cycle (4 games).
- The four teams from a division in the other conference on a rotating four-year cycle (4 games).
- Two intraconference games based on the prior year's standings (2 games). These games will match a first-place team against the first-place teams in the two same-conference divisions the team is not scheduled to play that season. The second-place, third-place, and fourth-place teams in a conference will be matched in the same way each year.

DENISE DEBARTOLO YORK AND JOHN YORK OWNERS

Denise and John York bring long and distinguished careers in sports and business to their roles as owners of the San Francisco 49ers, creating an organization that adheres to their core family values of success and community leadership.

The York family is committed to being a winning team on and off the field. From their passion for building a championship team to their deep involvement in community partnerships and the local business community, they are proud to be the leaders of the 49ers Faithful.

"The first goal of the 49ers is to win football games, and there's nothing I love more than a victory," John York said about his vision as owner. "But there's more to our team than just leading on the field. My family and I are passionate about the 49ers leading Bay Area sports franchises in our service to our community and to being great partners in our business relations."

FOOTBALL – A YORK PASSION

For both Denise and John, football is in their blood. Since her father, Edward DeBartolo Sr., purchased the 49ers in 1977, Denise has been an integral part of three decades of 49ers football, including 30 playoff contests and five Super Bowl victories. John had been a member of the 49ers Faithful since growing up in Little Rock, Arkansas and watching greats like John Brodie and R.C. Owens lighting up his living room TV.

Denise and John have taken the opportunity to act on their passion for the team they always loved by taking significant steps on and off the field to forge a top NFL team and Bay Area community partner.

Denise and John have committed to assembling leaders with the kind of exemplary talent it takes to uphold the 49ers celebrated history and compete for championships. They have hired the best coaches, players and front office personnel, and they are pushing ahead with plans to build a new, state-of-the-art NFL stadium in the Bay Area.

Their passion for football is an outgrowth of devoting much of their careers to professional sports. John, a successful entrepreneur, spent years as Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations for the DeBartolo Corporation instituting programs designed to increase fan participation and enhance the overall value of the racing portfolio. Denise, an accomplished business leader, also served for several seasons as president of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team, one of only a few female executives in the NHL. She was instrumental in revitalizing a dormant franchise into a championship team, drafting future superstars Mario Lemieux and Jaromir Jagr, and becoming the first woman to have her name engraved on Lord Stanley's Cup.

Denise and John's dedication to the game of football extends to the top levels of the NFL, where John is the Chairman of the NFL's International Committee and also sits on the League's Audit and Business Ventures Committees, while Denise is an active member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee.

PUTTING TOGETHER A WINNING FORMULA

The most important outcome of the York's total commitment to winning was the installation of Head Coach Mike Nolan in 2005. A born teacher of the game, Nolan has brought a sense of confidence, structure and most importantly, a much-needed identity, to the 49ers team. With his coaching staff, Nolan is delivering on the team's determination to build a solid, winning franchise based on great coaching, solid player development, and savvy additions of key veterans and draft choices.

The Yorks felt it was important that there be an exemplary group supporting Nolan in his efforts. Nolan has brought on board lauded coaches, including Hall of Fame linebacker and now Assistant Head Coach Mike Singletary and former NFL linebacker and now astute Defensive Coordinator Greg Manusky.

"Since I accepted this position, Denise and John have not wavered in their commitment to provide the 49ers with the best coaching staff and support staff that I could assemble," Nolan said. "John has listened to me and our staff to help acquire the players who we need to compete for a championship."

Denise and John have cultivated an environment where veteran players such as Derek Smith and Bryant Young re-signed rather than test the free agent market, and new players such as Pro Bowl cornerback Nate Clements, Pro Bowl safety Michael Lewis and two-time Super Bowl Champion linebacker Tully Banta-Cain signed with the team.

Edward DeBartolo Sr., Denise DeBartolo York and John York with the Pittsburgh Penguins Stanley Cup Trophy.

They have also made significant additions to the front office staff with the hiring of football-savvy personnel scout Scot McCloughan in 2005, who serves as the 49ers Vice President of Player Personnel. Spearheading three NFL Drafts in San Francisco, McCloughan has unearthed a wealth of young talent, and in the process, has been able to recruit athletic free agents to keep the team's roster fresh in the wake of injuries. In the spring of 2006, Denise and John named Lal Heneghan as Executive Vice President of Football Operations, adding another voice of expertise in the football-making decisions within the organization.

"Winning the Stanley Cup with the Penguins and being able to share the excitement with the city of Pittsburgh was such a significant moment in my life," Denise said. "Our goal is to bring the same feeling to the Bay Area with the 49ers. Under Mike Nolan's leadership, we are on the right track."

IN TOUCH WITH FANS

John York's first, deepest connection with the 49ers is as a lifelong fan.

"My best memories of growing up are lying on my living room floor in Little Rock and watching the 49ers on TV," York said. "Little Rock didn't have an NFL team, so I got to choose who 'my' team was, and I kind of fell in love with the 49ers, with John Brodie throwing passes to R.C. Owens. I share those memories of the great history of this franchise with the rest of the 49ers Faithful."

As owner of the 49ers, John enjoys sharing those memories with fans, many of whom (like John) trace their love for the team back to the early days at old Kezar Stadium. In their visits throughout the Bay Area, and on game days both home and away, Denise and John are also enthusiastic about meeting a younger generation of the 49ers Faithful.

"When we're on the road, I'm able to go around the field and visit with many 49ers fans who have come a long way to cheer on their team," John said. "They come early and want to say hello, get autographs and watch the team warm up. I've gotten into the habit of always bringing something with me to share. If there are kids involved, I always invite some of them to join me on the field for the pre-game – what I would have wished for as a kid back in Little Rock."

In their efforts to extend the interaction between the 49ers Faithful, players and coaches, Denise and John in the summer of 2005 began their practice of opening a portion of the team's training camp at its Santa Clara training facility. That year and again in 2006, the team opened 10 practices, enabling nearly 60,000 49ers fans the opportunity to preview and meet the team before the first snap was taken during the season.

In 2007, they supported the effort again with open training camp dates slated for public participation.

"This is a wonderful way to let our fans get in touch with both the players and coaches," John explained. "Denise and I love being able to share our excitement about the team and the upcoming season with so many of our fellow fans. It's a special part of the year for us."

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE BAY AREA

Besides providing the team with the tools for success on game day, Denise and John are also providing thousands of people in their community the tools to succeed in life. Under their leadership, the team's community program and 49ers Foundation has grown tremendously. In 2006, 49ers players, coaches, staff and alumni participated in 134 community events and donated more than 2,500 hours of volunteer time, while the 49ers Foundation has grown from $200,000 to a record $1.2 million raised and donated in 2006 to Bay Area non-profit organizations and causes.

Closest to their hearts is the 49ers Foundation, founded in

John York and Denise DeBartolo York with NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell.

1991 and one of the oldest of its kind. Both John and Denise personally head many of the Foundation's activities, making frequent visits at the 49ers Academy, a classroom program serving 6th, 7th and 8th grade at-risk students in East Palo Alto. The two periodically drop in to work with students in the Academy's small, nurturing and personalized environment.

Under the couple's direction, the Foundation also took a significant step in 2006, spearheading the "Respect Campaign," which works with youth to impart the value of respect in three important areas of their lives: families, schools and communities. Denise and John were instrumental in the Campaign's major fundraising program in 2006 with the sale of the 49ers Respect Rim baseball cap. All the proceeds from the sale of the Respect Rim went to the 49ers Foundation in support of the San Francisco Domestic Violence Consortium and Partners Ending Domestic Abuse. In the Respect Rim's inaugural season, $40,000 was raised to support the cause.

The couple has also continued to emphasize the importance of the Foundation's involvement in the Bayview/Hunters Point YMCA and the Hunters Point Boys & Girls Club.

Along with the team's owners, 49ers players, alumni, coaches and staff frequently visit the Bayview/Hunters Point YMCA, donate tickets to the youth and financially support the YMCA's programs. Most recently, the 49ers Foundation pledged $250,000 over a five-year period to renovate the new facility. John was on hand to help Bayview community leaders cut the ceremonial red ribbon in November, 2005 in honor of the grand opening of the gymnasium.

Denise and John also have continued to support the efforts of the Hunters Point Boys & Girls Club, one of the Foundation's yearly beneficiaries. Their partnership with the City and San Francisco Giants has helped to expand recreational opportunities for youth in one of the most underserved neighborhoods in the Bay Area.

In March of 2005, Denise and John were honored with the Outstanding Corporate Philanthropy Award at the Catholic Charities/Catholic Youth Organization's Loaves & Fishes Dinner for their remarkable contributions to the San Francisco community.

When the 49ers traveled to New Orleans to play the Saints in December of 2006, Denise, John and Jed York, 49ers Foundation board members, 49ers staff and team partners extended a helping hand outside of the Bay Area. The group spent that Saturday painting the school cafeteria at Bunche Accelerated Academy in the New Orleans suburb of Jefferson Parish. The Academy was severely damaged in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. The school's library lost its roof and the book supply was reduced from 15,000 books to a mere 300. Denise and John presented the school, similar in model to the 49ers Academy in East Palo Alto, a surprise $20,000 check on behalf of the 49ers Foundation. The donation will be used for new library books, computers, desks, chairs, whiteboards and other much needed items that will help the students succeed in their classrooms.

In May of 2007, Denise and John were inducted into the Curbstone Coaches Hall of Fame in Boardman, OH for generously giving their time and resources to the Mahoning Valley area. The two have made a tremendous impact on the community, providing more than $250 million to various Mahoning Valley organizations.

ABOUT DENISE DeBARTOLO YORK

With more than 28 years in the fields of sports management and real estate development and operations, Denise DeBartolo York is one of the most successful business women in the United States. She serves as chairman of The DeBartolo Corporation and oversees the Corporation's portfolio, which includes the 49ers.

Denise has been nominated consecutive times since 2002 to San Francisco Business Times "Most Influential Women in Business" for heading one of the largest women-owned businesses in the Bay Area. Denise has also been nominated to Business on Leadership since 2000. For her numerous achievements, she was inducted into the National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame in 2003.

Before becoming chair of The DeBartolo Corporation, Denise held the position of Executive Vice President of Personnel and Corporate Marketing/Communications for The Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation (EJDC). Based on her accomplishments, she was elevated to the position of Vice Chairman in April 1994. Denise was named Chairman after the death of her father, Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. in December 1994.

When she's not making decisions in the boardroom, Denise spends much of her time giving back in both the Bay Area and the communities near her childhood home of Boardman, Ohio, a suburb of Youngstown.

In November, 2006, Denise took part in San Francisco's Mission High School's third annual Denise DeBartolo Award to recognize someone who has made a difference for the students at Mission High School. Denise first got involved with the school in 2002 when she received word of the condition of the athletic program and immediately provided uniforms and funding for several of the teams. Her efforts in the Mission District school continue.

She has been instrumental in the erection of athletic fields throughout the Bay Area including a new football field and facility in Crocker-Amazon Park located in South San Francisco in 2002; the installation of a synthetic sports playing surface at Burton High School in San Francisco in 2004; and most recently in 2005, a newly renovated surface at the 49ers Academy – Ronald McNair Field.

Continuing her father's strong belief in education, Denise has also awarded more than $350,000 in scholarships to high school seniors in the Mahoning Valley (OH) through the Edward J. DeBartolo Memorial Scholarship Foundation, which was established upon his death in 1994. Additionally, she is the campaign chairman and major donor for the Youngstown Diocese Catholic Education scholarship league, and chairman of "Operation Education," a fundraising effort by Youngstown's Catholic High Schools.

As a member of Ursuline Sisters Financial Advisory Board, Denise assisted in developing and implementing a massive fundraising drive in 1991 for the construction of a new preschool, kindergarten and adult education center. In 2001, Denise took the lead in a second fundraising effort for the assembly of an additional school building for inner-city children by providing leadership and several million dollars of financial assistance.

Denise graduated from Notre Dame's sister college, St. Mary's College.

ABOUT JOHN YORK

John York has proven to be a successful business leader responsible for developing and building companies. In addition to his duties with the 49ers, John serves as President of The DeBartolo Corporation, where he oversees the operation of the corporation's portfolio. A member of the Board of Directors, he is essential in directing the company's many businesses while maintaining interests in several other ventures, including an investment firm based in Youngstown, OH, and a software systems organization in Nashville, TN.

Born in Muskogee, OK, John grew up in Little Rock and from there became a successful entrepreneur with a multi-faceted business background, he has a proven record for developing turnkey operations. In 1982, John founded DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, OH. From three employees, he molded the company into a 500-person operation with facilities in three states and annual revenues between $25 and $30 million.

As Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations starting in December 1994, John successfully enhanced the overall value of the racing portfolio. He developed the inaugural DeBartolo Racing Challenge in 1997, tying together the Derbies at Thistledown in Cleveland, OH, Remington Park in Oklahoma City, OK and Louisiana Downs in Bossier City, LA.

John is also noted for his generous support of youth activities and education beyond the Bay Area. In 2002, he made a $500,000 contribution in Denise's name to the Youngstown State University women's athletic program. He serves on the Science Advisory Council at the University of Notre Dame and was also selected to be a member of Youngstown State University's Search Committee for a new athletic director.

For his 19 years of service to the Boardman Community Baseball Association, an area baseball league for children ages five through 18, John was awarded an Honorary Lifetime Member title in June of 2006.

And in May of 2005, John was presented with the Distinguished American Award from the Northeastern Ohio Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, Inc. in Cleveland, OH.

John graduated magna cum laude from the University of Notre Dame in 1971. After receiving his doctorate from Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University in 1975, he underwent seven years of post-doctorate training at such prominent universities as Loyola of Chicago and Vanderbilt. An accomplished writer and lecturer, John has numerous publications to his credit.

Still an active alumnus of the University of Notre Dame and his high school alma mater, Little Rock Catholic High School, John continues to donate time and financial support to better educational facilities and curriculum at both of his former schools.

THE YORK FAMILY

Though Denise and John have an extensive involvement in their vast portfolio of business and community ventures, they define themselves as husband, wife, and parents first.

The York Family

Denise and John both came from modest families whose principal values stem from a strong entrepreneurial work ethic that stresses opportunity and dedication to others. From their humble beginnings into their adult successes, Denise and John have practiced and taught their own children the importance of giving back. The couple has four children: Jed, Tony and twins Jenna and Mara.

The family enjoys visiting the variety of San Francisco's ethnic restaurants, traveling and of course, game day.

JED YORK
DIRECTOR OF STRATEGIC PLANNING

As Director of Strategic Planning for the San Francisco 49ers, Jed York serves as a business analyst for the team, and is responsible for the integration of brand strategies and projects related to the long-term operational and financial development of the organization. He is a key member of the project team working towards the construction of a new stadium for the 49ers in the Bay Area. In June of 2007, York was elected to the Board of Directors for the Bayview Hunter's Point YMCA, which has been a major beneficiary of the 49ers Foundation.

York joined the organization in 2005, where he held the position of special projects manager. In that capacity, he aided the restructuring of the coaching and player personnel departments, including the hiring of Head Coach Mike Nolan and Vice President of Player Personnel Scot McCloughan. York also spent time learning how each department works together to achieve the team's goals both on the field and in the community.

York began his career as a financial analyst at Guggenheim Partners, a diversified financial services firm, prior to his work with the 49ers. He worked in the firm's New York office in several areas, including private wealth management, hedge funds risk analysis, and collateralized debt obligations.

York's roots with the 49ers run deep. He is the oldest child of John and Denise York, the owners of the team. York's uncle and godfather, Eddie DeBartolo Jr., was the former owner of the 49ers. A 49ers fan since birth, Jed attended his first Niners game in 1984. His goal has always been to carry on his family's tradition of success and excellence.

Born and raised in Youngstown, OH, York was a student athlete at Cardinal Mooney High School, where he was captain of the baseball team and student body president. After high school, York decided to carry on a family tradition by attending the University of Notre Dame, where he earned a degree in both finance and history. York was a member of Phi Alpha Theta, the National History Honors Society and also had the opportunity to study abroad in London in 2002.

York credits his parents, his uncle Eddie DeBartolo Jr., and his grandfather Edward DeBartolo Sr., a prolific real estate developer, as being positive role models. He credits them for instilling character values such as integrity, a strong work ethic, respect for others and a good business sense coupled with a strong commitment to community service. Besides his tremendous passion for the 49ers, York enjoys traveling, fishing, and playing cards, which he learned from his grandfather.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS LIMITED PARTNERS

FRANKLIN MIEULI

Mieuli's longtime interest and love for sports sparked his future involvement in the professional sports teams that have brought him five Super Bowl championship rings as a limited partner with the 49ers and one NBA World Championship as the former owner of the Golden State Warriors.

In 1949, he accepted a position in the advertising department of the San Francisco Brewing Company, makers of Burgermeister beer. "Burgie" sponsored broadcasts of 49ers football games and in 1954, Mieuli produced the team's first telecasts. Through his business relationship and friendship with Tony and Vic Morabito, the original owners of the 49ers, Franklin was offered the opportunity to purchase a share of the club, and today still holds stake in the 49ers franchise.

When the New York Giants moved west in 1958, Horace Stoneham offered Mieuli stock in the San Francisco Giants. In 1962, Franklin and a group of his friends also purchased the Philadelphia Warriors and the San Francisco Warriors were born. He became the only sportsman to have ownerships in three major league sports teams in the same area.

In the 25 years after he acquired majority ownership, the San Francisco and now Golden State Warriors were in the playoffs ten times, won four division titles and a World Championship in 1974-75. Mieuli is the first professional sports team owner to have named an African American as his head coach, Alvin Attles, a member of the team that moved west from Philadelphia. His longtime friend has served with the Warriors as a player, head coach, administrator, vice president and assistant general manager and in his 47th year with the club, is now a Warriors' ambassador.

Simultaneously, as president of Franklin Mieuli and Associates Radio and TV Production Co., he acquired radio and TV production rights to the Giants, 49ers and Warriors' games and engineered games for the A's and Raiders' broadcasts. He produced and handled the radio coverage for the 1960 Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley with Lon Simmons, Russ Hodges, Gordy Soltau and Marty Martin as his broadcasting crew. Today, his company, managed by long-time employee Shirley Figgins Mortensen, continues to provide the radio engineering for 25 sports teams, including baseball, football, hockey and basketball, throughout the U.S. and Canada. He also owned radio stations, KPUP, (KHIP and KMPX) in San Francisco and was an owner of KTMX in Colusa, CA.

Mieuli received a degree in advertising from the University of Oregon and served a stint in the U.S. Navy during World War II.

Mieuli and his former wife, Hilles Parish Cribari, are the parents of three children, seven grandchildren and five great-children. Ms. Blake Green, Mieuli's loving companion for the past 30 years, was formerly a feature writer for the San Francisco Chronicle and Newsday in New York.

MIKE NOLAN

HEAD COACH
21st NFL Season, 3rd with 49ers

When Mike Nolan took over San Francisco's head coaching reins in 2005, he knew the expectations laid out in front of him were immense. Walking into an organization that had no history of success was one thing, but joining one of professional football's most storied franchises put a great responsibility on his shoulders.

Nolan set lofty goals to get the club back into the League's upper echelon while carrying on the winning tradition set by many celebrated players and coaches from the past, including his father, Dick, former 49ers head coach from 1968-75.

"There is an expectation level of performance and we have a responsibility to past players," Nolan confirmed. "That is the responsibility of the players, coaches and the entire organization to get back on track."

Nolan welcomed the task and challenged his team to capture the NFC West title each of his first two seasons, a goal that he says will not change.

"When you go forward, there is no choice in the leadership role," Nolan boldly stated. "You have one choice, and that's to lead and you don't lead from a loser's perspective. You lead from a winner's perspective."

Nolan's burning desire to win was the exact ingredient Owners Denise and John York were looking to add to the 49ers organization when hiring the franchise's 15th head coach on January 19, 2005. It marked the same exact date his father, Dick, was hired by the 49ers 37 years earlier. Growing up under the wing of his father, who captured three straight NFC West Division Championships (1970-72) in San Francisco, gave him an early desire to lead a life dedicated to football and family.

"When I was named the head coach of the San Francisco 49ers, it fulfilled a lifelong dream to follow in my father's footsteps," Nolan said. "I have always considered myself one of the 49ers Faithful. And having grown up in the Bay Area, I can say that I was once a fan as well."

Mike and Dick Nolan became the fourth NFL family along with Don and David Shula, Jim Sr. and Jim Mora Jr., and Wade and Bum Phillips to have a father and son handle head coaching roles. Some of Mike Nolan's most vivid childhood memories were watching from his father's shadow on the practice field and in the locker room and building relationships with talents who were some of the greatest to ever play the game.

"Mike was nine years old when I played here when his dad was hired," 49ers Hall of Fame LB Dave Wilcox said. "He used to hang around the locker room. The way he coaches sounds exactly like his dad. Very thorough, knew what he wanted to do, knew he was going to get there. So I'm convinced that he'll do that."

THE ROOT OF ALL VALUES

Nolan has playing experience and more than 26 years of coaching notched on his belt. Over that span, he's learned that character and heart can be more significant than mere talent alone. Personally filling the roles of both student and mentor also instituted Nolan's intense desire to see every individual player coached as though they were part of the starting lineup.

After playing football at Woodside (CA) High School, he walked-on to the football team at the University of Oregon. One day at practice Oregon's quarterback ran the option and was tackled by the team's safety. Both suffered injuries and the back-up quarterback, who was the team's second-string safety, stepped in as the new leader in the pocket. Just two days later, Oregon's third-string safety flunked out of school. In the unexpected twist of fate, Nolan went from a fourth-string walk-on to a starting safety in one of the nation's toughest football conferences, the Pacific-8 (Now the Pac-10). He grabbed his chance, took advantage of his coaches' principles, and started three years on scholarship for the Ducks.

Since then he believes one of a coach's most significant responsibilities is to make sure every man on his roster is ready to compete.

During his first season in 2005, the 49ers lost a league-high 101 games by starters, including three of San Francisco's four starters in the secondary. Yet players that were signed to the roster after training camp, and many rookies, were prepared to step into starting roles.

"Our coaching mandate is that if you are in a 49ers uniform, you will be coached, prepared and ready to play whether you are a first-round pick or a backup player," Nolan said. "Our coaches are dedicated teachers that are skilled in getting everybody on this team ready to play."

With the proper mentoring program, all 10 of the 49ers 2005 drafted players who earned a roster spot saw action during the season while six made starts.

In 2006, that same class played a key role in the team's improved performance. QB Alex Smith became the franchise's first passer to take every snap during the regular season, RB Frank Gore set a franchise rushing record with his 1,695 yards on the ground, third-best in the NFL, and offensive linemen Adam Snyder and David Baas stepped in to give support in the trenches and help bolster the 49ers run game to a sixth NFL ranking.

The 2006 rookie class also proved that its coaching instruction was extremely influential. First round pick TE Vernon Davis stepped immediately into action and added an unparalleled combination of size and strength to stretch the field. On defense, LB Manny Lawson's high-speed motor yielded two sacks and one interception, while sixth-round steal, DE Melvin Oliver, hurtled into the starting lineup and became the first 49ers rookie defensive lineman to ever score a touchdown.

Under Nolan's direction, many of the 49ers talented veterans have also been able to find their niche and excel. In the 2006 off-season, the team was able to gain the talent of veteran free agent CB Walt Harris, whose eight-interception performance earned him a trip to the Pro Bowl, the first of his career. All-Pro G Larry Allen was also recruited to add a legendary presence on the offensive line and in the locker room. Allen joined Harris and Gore in Hawaii to notch his 11th Pro Bowl appearance. And FB Moran Norris, who catapulted into the starting lineup after being signed as another valuable off-season free agent, led the way in opening lanes for Gore's career year.

After just two seasons in San Francisco, Nolan has revived the 49ers' roster with high-intensity, passionate, character players. The team united to win some monumental games in 2006, including a series sweep over NFC West opponent, Seattle, where Gore set a franchise single-game rushing record in the first meeting with 212 rushing yards, and Nolan was named the NFL's Coach of the Week after defeating the Seahawks 20-14. In the second bout, Smith showed his mettle and growing leadership as he helped the team score 21 fourth-quarter points to overcome Seattle 24-14 in a Thursday Night nationally televised game. Two weeks later, Nolan helped orchestrate a huge upset on the road when the 49ers knocked Denver out of the playoffs and closed out the season with a resounding win.

BUILDING AN IMPRESSIVE RÉSUMÉ

Much of Nolan's success as a leader and acute defensive mind was showcased in his previous position as the defensive coordinator with the Baltimore Ravens. During his impressive stint in Baltimore, Nolan's defense yielded nine Pro Bowl starters in 2003-04. Over that span, his stingy defensive units also produced two NFL Defensive Players of the Year in S Ed Reed (2004) and LB Ray Lewis (2003).

In 2004, Nolan's defense finished tied for second in the NFL in average rush per carry (3.6 yards). The Ravens defense allowed only 16.8 points per game, good for fourth in the AFC. Nolan's unit had 34 total takeaways, including 13 interceptions. Reed was named the Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year after earning 20 votes from a national panel of writers and broadcasters who cover pro football to make him the first safety to win the award in 20 years. He led the NFL with nine interceptions and set an NFL mark with 358 return yards on those picks. Reed joined LB Ray Lewis, CB Cris McAlister and LB Terrell Suggs as players selected to start in the 2004 Pro Bowl.

In 2003, Nolan's defense was among the NFL's best, finishing third overall. Baltimore ranked first in the AFC with 17 fumble recoveries, led the NFL in sacks (47) and tied for first in the AFC and second in the NFL with 41 takeaways. The Ravens defense allowed just 281 points and grabbed 24 interceptions. Nolan was named to USA Today's All-Joe Team following the 2003 season and NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by the Football Digest. During the 2003 season, Baltimore allowed the fewest yards per play (4.2) and fourth fewest passing yards (175.3 per game) in the NFL. Lewis was named the AP's NFL Defensive Player of the Year and was the leading vote-getter on AP's All-Pro team (49 of 50 votes). Reed, one of eight Ravens to make the Pro Bowl, tied a Ravens' record with seven interceptions and Suggs was named the AP's NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year while setting a Ravens' rookie record with 12 sacks.

Nolan was promoted to Baltimore's defensive coordinator in 2002 after originally joining the Ravens in 2001 on the other side of the ball as the team's wide receivers coach. Brian Billick had envisioned Nolan as a defensive coordinator, and he moved into that position with the departure of Marvin Lewis.

The 2002 season was especially challenging for him due to the fact that the Ravens newcomers outnumbered the starting veterans on defense. Eight rookies comprised the defensive roster by season's end, while Lewis was lost to a shoulder injury in October. Although the team faced adversity, Baltimore finished first in the AFC with a team-record 25 interceptions, second in the NFL in fewest yards per rush (3.7), third in the NFL in fewest yards allowed on first down (4.87 yards—best in the AFC) and third in the AFC with 31 takeaways. Linebacker Peter Boulware was double and triple-teamed with Lewis and defensive end Michael McCrary (knee) out; however, Boulware still logged a career and team-high 59 sacks including seven during the 2002 season.

Prior to tutoring the Ravens wide receivers, Nolan had a one-year stay as the New York Jets defensive coordinator in 2000, a position he also held with the Washington Redskins (1997-99) and the New York Giants (1993-96). Under Nolan's tutelage, the Jets defense rebounded to tenth overall (tied with Philadelphia) in the league—11 positions better than the previous year.

"When I was the GM of the Jets we had a good relationship," former Jets Head Coach and General Manager Bill Parcells remembered about Mike Nolan. "I knew his dad and I liked his dad. I just kind of took to Mike myself. I think he's a good, young coach and I like him very much personally. I think he's a football guy. He grew up with it. It's very important to him and I think that he has a lot of passion for it."

From 1997-99 Nolan was the defensive coordinator in Washington. In 1997, the Redskins allowed the eighth-fewest points in the NFL and finished third overall in pass defense. Though his three-year spell with the Redskins had plenty of highs and lows, Nolan credits his experiences there as the catalyst he used to build his present foundation.

"I didn't learn as much football at Washington, but I learned more than I could have any place else as far as personnel, structure and chemistry," he remembered. "That was one of the best experiences of my coaching career, looking back on it."

Prior to serving on the Redskins staff, he spent four seasons as defensive coordinator under then-head coach Dan Reeves for the New York Giants (1993-96). In Nolan's first season as the League's youngest defensive coordinator at the time (32 years old), the Giants defense allowed the fewest points in the NFL (205). Nolan cut his professional coaching teeth under Reeves, serving on his staff in Denver from 1987-92 as the Broncos linebackers coach and special teams coach/defensive assistant. During that span, Nolan reached the Super Bowl twice with the Broncos.

"Mike has a good personality and he relates well to players because he has been around them," Reeves said. "Mike played in high school and college and almost made it with us in Denver. He has coached special teams, offense and defense, so he's had a lot of experience coaching all three phases. I think that will pay dividends for him."

Nolan launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Oregon in 1981 after participating in the 1981 Broncos' training camp as a defensive back under Reeves. Within five years, he held positions as a linebackers or defensive backs coach at Stanford, Rice and LSU.

FOOTBALL ALL IN THE FAMILY

Football and family have always been one in the same for the Nolan's. The family's ties to his profession have only deepened since Nolan became a head coach.

Because coaching hours run deep into the night and begin at the break of dawn, Nolan and his wife, Kathy, found a way to increase time spent together. Kathy drives him to work in the morning and picks him up at the end of the day. The commute enables the couple to spend some extra time together.

"One thing I learned from my father growing up was how he treated my mother," he explained. "My father loved my mother more than you could ever imagine, and I always saw that.

"That's helped me in my own life. We've moved nine times in the last 23 years. It is important that we keep the family together."

Nolan's family members have also been his biggest supporters, cheering him along every step of the way. His naming as the head coach in San Francisco in 2005 marked the most special stop for the Nolan family yet. The night before Mike's first game, his oldest brother, Rook, met him at the team hotel with a gift, their father Dick's 1956 NFL championship ring that he earned as a defensive back with the New York Giants. Rook received the ring when he moved out of the family house. Rook, who took his name after being born during his father's rookie season in 1954, thought his younger brother should wear the ring during his first regular season game as a head coach. Mike wore the ring with the face down close to his palm and went on to lead the 49ers to an opening day 28-25 win against division rival St. Louis on September 11, 2005.

The Nolan family appreciates the process that lies ahead for Mike in winning another 49ers championship. But they have no doubt in his leadership and drive to get the job done.

"He understands players and can help them with any problems that they have on or off the field," Mike's father, and biggest supporter, Dick said. "He knows his stuff and is very organized. I never dreamed he would be the head football coach of a team I coached. I never thought it would be that way. It is great to see that happen."

Mike and Kathy Nolan have four children: sons, Michael and Christopher, and daughters, Laura and Jennifer. The family resides in Saratoga, CA.

"When my father was head coach of the 49ers, I was fortunate enough to spend time with 49ers greats like John Brodie, Gene Washington, Dave Wilcox and Jimmy Johnson. The reason I bring up those names is because I am often asked why I am a coach. A lot of coaches say that it's because they love the game, but seldom do they actually reflect on why they love the game. I realized and recognized that it was those players' passion and intensity that struck me as a child and made me want to be part of the game of football."

LAL HENEGHAN

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

A proven football administrator with a wealth of experience at the NFL, NFLPA and club level, Lal Heneghan enters his second season as the 49ers Executive Vice President of Football Operations. When Denise and John York and Mike Nolan agreed on the creation of the new position in 2006, they began an extensive search to find a person whose knowledge and organizational skills would benefit the organization in a vast array of areas. In his role, Heneghan oversees all aspects of the day-to-day football operations.

Heneghan most recently served in the NFL with the Cleveland Browns as Vice President, Football Operations and General Counsel from November of 1998 until May of 2004. Heneghan also has provided consulting services to professional sports and non-profit organizations and said his diverse levels of experience have served him well in his career.

"I've had the opportunity to see how different elements of the NFL operate," Heneghan said. "When issues or questions arise, I've usually had experience in knowing what people's points of view are. That's helped me facilitate solutions to problems that come up and it in turn, gets everyone to work together."

With the Browns, Heneghan was responsible for departmental, salary cap and player contract coordination as well as general legal matters. He also oversaw the club's pro personnel department as well as the medical, equipment, video and player development departments.

Prior to joining Cleveland, Heneghan spent seven years with the National Football League Management Council as director of labor relations. In that capacity, he supervised the daily operation and interpretation of the NFL salary cap, the Collective Bargaining Agreement and advised clubs on all aspects of their daily labor operations.

After joining the NFL in 1991, Heneghan initially served as labor relations counsel where he represented clubs in grievance arbitrations and counseled clubs on a variety of labor issues. In 1993, he participated in negotiations with the NFLPA, which resulted in the 1993 Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Heneghan's contributions to the NFL are reflective of his involvement in a broad range of areas, including serving on the NFL Management Council's Working Club Executive Committee while with the Browns. He remains one of three NFL-appointed executives to serve as a Trustee of the NFL Player Insurance Trust.

Previously, Heneghan was a labor attorney at Akin Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld in Washington, D.C. He received his B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania and is a graduate of the Georgetown University Law Center. During law school, he worked with the NFLPA in Washington, D.C. Heneghan said a career that combined his two passions—sports and law—gave him the best of both worlds.

"When I entered law school I had an interest in combining my interest in law with a career in sports," Heneghan said. "I had been able to participate in sports in college and wanted to combine sports into my professional pursuits. I was fortunate that I attended law school with a man who had played in the NFL and was the assistant executive director of the NFLPA (Mark Murphy, an eight-year veteran safety with the Washington Redskins from 1977-84). He introduced me to the people at the union on the legal side and that's how I got my start."

An accomplished college athlete, Heneghan was a tight end and co-captain for the 1984 University of Pennsylvania Ivy League Champion football team. Heneghan said he still applies the same ideals of teamwork and leadership to his professional career today.

"Sports in college were helpful because we were part of a new program when I went there. We worked together as a team, and we really felt we were a team that tried to re-establish a winning tradition," Heneghan said. "I think that is what goes on at the club level as well. A group that has that commitment can win with each other."

Heneghan's greatest sports achievement was being a part of Pennsylvania's football team that captured the Ivy League Championship. What he cherishes most was the journey he and his teammates made together to achieve such great success.

"I think winning the championship as a group was the best feeling I had as a player," Heneghan said. "Just the camaraderie we had was great and we had a lot more fun around each other because we won. It wasn't any particular game, but being part of the team was the greatest thing to me."

Born in Rockville, MD, family has always been a big part of his life, stretching even to the origin of his first name. Lal, an Irish family name, is short for Lally which was his father's name before he emigrated from Ireland to the United States.

Heneghan's wife, Amy, is a pediatrician. The couple has an 11-year-old son, Jack, and a nine-year-old daughter, Lucy.

"To me family is my most important job," Heneghan said. "I grew up in a large family and it's always been a privilege to be a part of something."

SCOT MCCLOUGHAN

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

In early 2005, the San Francisco 49ers took significant strides and rounded the corner with an innovative vision to restore the club's winning ways of the past. To succeed in rebuilding the 49ers franchise, owners Denise and John York knew they would have to make every decision count, especially when it came to acquiring talented and quality players.

It didn't take long for the 49ers search committee to pinpoint the keen eye of Scot McCloughan, who was hired on February 2, 2005 to reform San Francisco's roster.

In his current role as Vice President of Player Personnel, not only is McCloughan overseeing new talent that comes through the Santa Clara practice facility door, but he's also helping to manage the team's salary cap and player contracts, while working hand-in-hand with Head Coach Mike Nolan in devising a personnel plan to build a young team into a powerhouse.

Upon his arrival in San Francisco from his former post as the director of college scouting for the Seattle Seahawks, McCloughan had just over two months to devise a plan for 2005 free agency and the NFL Draft.

He was in a challenging position, but possessed the track record and football pedigree to get the job done.

Heading the 49ers personnel department enabled him to return to the Bay Area, where his football roots began. The year McCloughan was born in San Leandro, CA was his father Kent's final year playing in the NFL. Kent was a standout cornerback for the Oakland Raiders from 1965-70, and was part of the 1967 Super Bowl II squad. Immediately after his final season, Kent began scouting for the Raiders, discovering talented collegiate players around the country from the family's new home in Loveland, CO.

Respected NFL executive Ron Wolf was a member of the scouting department in Oakland at the time and brought Kent on board to bolster the department. Young Scot joined his father for film sessions at the house and even traveled as his dad's sidekick on trips around the area. He watched, learned and took notes.

Football was life in the McCloughan household, and the environment quickly ceded Scot into a standout on the football team as a running back, safety and return man. He was also a star baseball player, earning a scholarship on the Wichita State team where he contributed in two collegiate World Series as a designated hitter and third-baseman.

McCloughan went on to play minor league baseball for three more years for the Toronto Blue Jays organization before football beckoned him again. It was then that Wolf re-entered the picture, this time, recruiting Kent's son to join his scouting staff in Green Bay in 1994.

McCloughan went on to comb the Midlands region for college talent for three years before he took over a slot in the Southeast territory. During that span, he was part of two Packers' Super Bowl teams, including the 1996 championship squad who defeated New England in Super Bowl XXXI. In just five short years, he made an impressive name for himself and Seattle hired him as their director of college scouting.

"He's very good at what he does and has a tremendous desire to improve," Wolf said. "He has an exceptional eye for talent."

Some of his early picks, like St. Louis G Adam Timmerman, Green Bay's seventh-round selection out of South Dakota State in 1995, turned out to be hidden gems. Timmerman has since become a Pro Bowler.

In Seattle, McCloughan's efforts came to fruition when the Seahawks won the NFC Championship in 2005 and made a trip to Super Bowl XL in Detroit to play the Pittsburgh Steelers. On that roster, 25 of the 28 draft picks on McCloughan's draft scroll were still on the team when he left his post to join the 49ers in 2005.

"I think Scot is one of the bright young talents in this League. I fought like crazy to keep him here," Seattle Head Coach Mike Holmgren said.

Along with his tireless routine of preparation, McCloughan possesses an acute memory. It served him well heading his first draft in San Francisco, where he had to put together a draft board based on the needs of a team he barely knew.

"Ten of the 11 draft picks from 2005 remained on the team that season and the one we did cut and wanted to put on the practice squad was claimed," McCloughan recapped. "Two, three years into this, I think it's going to be a heck of a draft."

The 2005 Draft Class has already proven him right.

Third-round draft pick RB Frank Gore set a franchise record in his sophomore season with 1,695 rushing yards, the third-highest total in the NFL. Gore's performance earned Pro Bowl accolades. First overall pick QB Alex Smith took every snap in his second NFL season and showed much promise as the 49ers offensive leader of the future.

In 2006 McCloughan also led a strong draft campaign, making a trade with Denver to acquire a second pick in the first round. It enabled the 49ers to tag both TE Vernon Davis with the sixth overall pick and LB Manny Lawson with the 22nd overall selection. Davis and Lawson were both steady contributors in the 2006 starting lineup and were also joined by sixth-round pick DE Melvin Oliver, who proved to be a valuable late-round steal.

Over the past three years, McCloughan has also held the roster together with a myriad of free agent acquisitions.

"That gave me a lot of confidence in Scot McCloughan and our personnel department," Nolan said about the free agents effectively filling holes throughout the 2005 and 2006 seasons.

McCloughan has recruited talents of seasoned veterans through free agency such as All-Pro G Larry Allen, 2006 Pro Bowl CB Walt Harris, FB Moran Norris, LT Jonas Jennings and 2005 49ers co-MVP K Joe Nedney.

The McCloughan scouting pedigree likewise matriculated to his older brother, David, who shares Scot's innate ability to unearth football talent. He also came to San Francisco in 2005 and serves as the 49ers director of college scouting.

McCloughan and his wife, Kelli, have a son, Caden, and twin girls, Adison and Avery. The family resides in Los Gatos, CA.

MIKE SINGLETARY

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/DEFENSE
5th NFL Season, 3rd with 49ers

Mike Singletary enters his third year with the 49ers and second as the assistant head coach/defense. Singletary was elevated to the post after serving one season as the assistant head coach/linebackers, the position he was named to on January 21, 2005.

A proven teacher who values work ethic and discipline, the 49ers linebackers played well this past season under Singletary's direction. LB Brandon Moore paced the unit with 114 tackles and 6.5 sacks. Veteran LB Derek Smith continued as an important contributor, tallying 93 stops while rookie LB Manny Lawson developed into a starter during his first NFL season under Singletary's supervision.

Singletary teamed with 49ers Head Coach Mike Nolan as the Baltimore Ravens inside linebackers coach for two seasons. Players have flourished under his tutelage, including Ray Lewis, who earned 2003 NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors. Under Singletary, the inside linebackers at Baltimore finished first and second in tackles in each of his seasons coaching the position. He was also part of a coaching staff that directed the Ravens defense to a third overall finish in 2003 and sixth overall in 2004.

After coaching under Nolan's defensive staff for just two seasons, Singletary's wisdom and commanding respect sent impressionable waves throughout the organization and team. When Nolan took his first head coaching position in San Francisco, Singletary's character was a key cog in forming his coaching staff.

"Mike is one of the best leaders and teachers that I have ever been associated with," Nolan said. "Mike teaches with great passion and great energy; two things that are very important, I think, to being a successful teacher. There are not too many people that command the respect that Mike does the minute he walks into a room.

"In Baltimore, Mike coached possibly the best linebacking corps in the NFL in Ray Lewis, Eddie Hartwell, Terrell Suggs and Peter Boulware. As a player, there are probably way too many things to list on Mike, but two things that stand out to me are his very successful 12-year NFL career and in 1998, his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame."

In 2001, Singletary won the Walter Camp's "Man of the Year Award," based on his reputation for integrity and leadership within his profession and contributions benefiting his community, country and fellow man. He also co-founded Leadership Zone, a company that provides leadership training.

Singletary was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1998 after a stellar career with the Chicago Bears from 1981-92. He boasted 1,488 career tackles (885 solo), finishing as the Bears' first or second leading tackler each of his last 11 seasons. Singletary was named to the NFL Team of the 80's after being selected to play in a team-record 10 consecutive Pro Bowls. The former Bears defensive captain was also named All-Pro eight times (1983-89; 1991), and an All-NFC selection nine consecutive times (1983-91). He also started a defensive team record 172 games for the Bears, trailing only running back Walter Payton's 184 career starts for the all-time team lead.

Singletary was drafted in second round of the 1981 NFL Draft from Baylor University.

In addition to his coaching duties for the 49ers, Singletary is a motivational speaker and has authored three books: Singletary One on One, Calling the Shots and Daddy's Home at Last.

Singletary and his wife, Kim, have seven children.

JIM HOSTLER (HOSS-ler)

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
8th NFL Season, 3rd with 49ers

After spending the last two seasons as the 49ers quarterbacks coach, Jim Hostler was promoted to offensive coordinator on February 28, 2007. Hostler was originally named the 49ers quarterbacks coach on February 1, 2005, where he served as the primary tutor to 2005 first overall pick QB Alex Smith.

Hostler said his familiarity with the current coaching staff and players will help make the transition seamless as he leads the offense in 2007.

"I can't say enough about the 49ers coaching staff," Hostler said. "I've had a chance to watch two offensive coordinators work with the staff in the past, utilize the staff tremendously in game planning, and understand all of their strengths, so I have a good foundation of how to use the guys and we have a great working relationship together. I'm very confident in that aspect of it as we move forward."

A first time coordinator, Hostler impressed Head Coach Mike Nolan throughout his interview process.

"Jim had the most comprehensive view of the offense as the quarterbacks coach. That was big to me," Nolan said. "He's also built a solid relationship with Alex Smith over the past two years."

During the interview process, Nolan saw many of his own traits in Hostler as he presented. As a younger coach, Nolan put together his own defensive game plans when he tutored the Denver Broncos linebackers under Dan Reeves in the early 1990's. So when he became the Giants' defensive coordinator in 1993, he was already a step ahead in terms of preparation.

"As I interviewed Jim, I was very impressed that he had been creating his own game plans each week the last few years," Nolan said. "He brought out the game plans that he had been putting together for every game. I never saw them, because all I wanted to see the last two years was our actual coordinator's game plan, but Jim brought his to me."

Though Hostler is excited about the opportunity to coordinate the 49ers offense, he's also quick to give credit to the coaches that shaped him into the person he is today.

"The opportunity given to me is a credit to the great offensive coaching staff here," Hostler explained. "That had a lot to do with my success and where I'm at today. I've also had a tremendous network of coaches in my past who have helped me get to the spot I'm in right now. There have been many great coaches that have influenced me over the years such as Jimmy Raye, Paul Hackett, Mike McCarthy and Frank Cignetti (Sr.), who I worked under for ten years at IUP. Those coaches, along with Norv Turner, have had a lot to do with where I'm at, how I look at the game and how I coach the game. Those guys have done a tremendous job in training me and preparing me for this next step. I'm confident that what I've learned from them will be carried over in the future."

Hostler joined San Francisco after spending two seasons with the New York Jets as the team's wide receivers coach (2004) and quarterbacks coach (2003). He joined the Jets after serving as an offensive assistant/quality control coach and assistant wide receivers coach (2001-02) for the New Orleans Saints. Hostler began his NFL coaching career with the Kansas City Chiefs as an offensive assistant/quality control coach (2000).

Over his eight-year NFL run, Hostler has helped tutor a lineage of talents including QB Chad Pennington, QB Vinny Testaverde, WR Santana Moss, WR Wayne Chrebet and WR Justin McCareins with the Jets. He also coached 2002 first round draft selection WR Donte Stallworth as a member of the Saints coaching staff.

Hostler cut his coaching teeth at his alma mater, Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP). He spent nine seasons at IUP and helped the Indians qualify for the NCAA Division II playoffs five times, including one trip to the National Championship game (1990). As a member of the IUP coaching staff, Hostler served in a number of capacities, including time as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (1999), linebackers coach (1997-98) and running backs coach (1990-92, 1994-96). Hostler also spent the 1993 campaign as the offensive coordinator at Juniata (Pa.) College.

A four-year standout at IUP (1986-89), Hostler was a four-year letter winner and two-time all conference selection at cornerback. He also helped the Indians capture two Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference titles and make three trips to the Division II playoffs while compiling a 38-9 record. Hostler played alongside 49ers quarterbacks coach, Frank Cignetti Jr., when Cignetti was a safety for the Indians. The two were later on the same coaching staffs at their alma mater and with the New Orleans Saints.

Hostler and his wife, Jen, have two sons, Clint and Grant, and a daughter Attie.

GREG MANUSKY (Ma-nuh-ski)

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
7th NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Once a tough, hard-nosed NFL linebacker, Greg Manusky has since translated those qualities into a successful seven-year professional coaching career. Manusky brings that mentality to the 49ers defense as he enters his first season as defensive coordinator in San Francisco.

Manusky joined the 49ers after serving as the linebackers coach for the San Diego Chargers from 2002-06 and in the same capacity for the Washington Redskins in 2001. During his 12-year stay as a linebacker with Washington (1988-90), Minnesota (1991-93) and Kansas City (1994-99), Manusky was known as a tenacious workhorse. He said his passion for the game, and mental will to do anything necessary to make an impact on the team, carried him throughout his playing career.

"I told Mike (Nolan) during the interview process that I've never really had an interview," Manusky said. "Coming out of college, my goal was to go to the pros. My only interview was, 'Can you run as fast as you can, hit the wedge square on and make a play?' My attitude and experience playing special teams was mostly my forte. I had a heck of a year in 1991 with the Vikings. I used to play a lot of practical jokes on guys. I think that's how I made the team."

Head Coach Mike Nolan echoed Manusky's sentiments.

"I found Greg to be a very good teacher, not only through our meeting, but also through talking with Dallas Cowboys Head Coach Wade Phillips and other league representatives about him," Nolan said. "He's got great energy. His organizational skills were very impressive to me. I was very impressed with his ability to organize a staff and delegate the responsibilities, especially since he's not yet been a coordinator. Although it's all on paper and just in discussion, he has a very good plan and a very good thought process in putting those things together."

Manusky played in 113 consecutive games during his career. Following the 1991 season, he was selected to the All-Madden Team put together by Hall of Fame broadcaster and former coach, John Madden. Manusky said the encouragement he received from his coaches during his playing days instilled in him the confidence to enter the coaching profession.

"During my sixth year in the league, I played under Tony Dungy and Monty Kiffin in Minnesota. They were the first ones to say, 'Hey, you'd be a pretty good coach,'" Manusky recalled. "That's the road I've traveled since. During the number of years that I spent in Kansas City and even in my past few years as a coach, I've continued to try and push myself and adopt the mindset of an offensive or defensive coordinator. I've been fortunate to have the opportunity to do that here in San Francisco."

After retiring from the NFL in 1999, Manusky spent the 2000 season as a volunteer at the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' training camp where he worked with the linebackers and special teams. One year later, he accepted the job as linebackers coach with the Redskins.

A well-regarded teacher and communicator, Manusky developed the Chargers linebacking corps into one of the NFL's stingiest units. They were part of a defense that finished the 2006 season ranked seventh against the rush and third in turnover margin with a plus-13 balance. The unit alone accounted for 43.5 of the defense's 61 total regular season sacks.

In six years as a pro coach, Manusky has sent four players to the Pro Bowl, including San Diego's Shawne Merriman in 2006, Donnie Edwards and Junior Seau with San Diego in 2002 and LaVar Arrington with Washington in 2001. Merriman, Arrington and Edwards all went to their first career Pro Bowls under Manusky's tutelage.

Manusky was born in Wilkes-Barre, PA where he prepped at Dallas (PA) High School. He went on to attend Colgate University where he was a four-year letterman and an All-Colonial league selection. He was named the league's Defensive Player of the Year as a senior and graduated with degrees in education and geology.

Manusky and his and wife, Laurie, have two sons, Colton and Jake, and two daughters, Logan and Chandler.

AL EVEREST

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
11th NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

When San Francisco named Al Everest to lead the 49ers special teams unit on January 14, 2007, the team gained an experienced, fiery mentor in the classroom and on the field.

Most recently, Everest served as the New Orleans special teams coach from 2000-05.

Everest brings 35 years of coaching experience with him to San Francisco, and in that span has also spent valuable time as an educator around the world. The combined experience of teaching and coaching was exactly what Head Coach Mike Nolan sought when filling the position this past off-season.

"Al brings a tremendous amount of experience to our coaching staff," Nolan said. "His special teams units were extremely successful while he was with New Orleans. The Saints were among the leaders in just about every category during that time. Al is excited to join the 49ers, and I am equally excited about having him on board."

Everest has achieved success as a college player and as a coach in the National Football League, European professional football, and collegiate football and baseball. In San Francisco, his classic approach to teaching and excelling in fundamentals will give the 49ers special teamers, including standout K Joe Nedney and efficient P Andy Lee, a fresh perspective.

"I'm not here to reinvent football, but I'm here to teach them how to be better football players," Everest said about his coaching philosophy. "Our job is to give them the tools to win battles. I take pride in thinking that when they leave, they say, 'I appreciate you making me a better football player.'"

Everest has done just that with many levels of talent – both polished and raw. Everest's last NFL stop was with the Saints, where he served in the same capacity from 2000-2005. Everest established a top-notch special teams effort in New Orleans, coaching three Pro Bowlers during that span while receiving the 2002 NFL Special Teams Coach of the Year award, one that was voted on by his coaching peers.

Most recently in 2005, punter Mitch Berger ranked fourth in the NFL with a 38.7 net punting average after hitting 71 punts for 3,066 yards.

In 2004, the Saints had five players win NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors, the most in franchise history for a single season. Included in that total was four straight over the final four games, which tied the NFL record for the most consecutive winners since the inception of the award in 1993. Return man Michael Lewis became the team's all-time punt return leader with 126 career returns (through 2005) for 1,371 yards. Lewis also had a 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown that season. In addition, fellow returner, Aaron Stecker, added a 98-yard kick return for a touchdown. Berger again was tops in the NFL with a 39.5 net punting average, good enough to earn him a Pro Bowl visit.

Also under Everest's instruction in 2003, K John Carney established a team record 22-straight contests with a field goal, Berger led the NFL in net punting average and the Saints notched three-straight games with a blocked field goal, the longest such streak in the NFL since 2000. In 2002, the New Orleans special teams units had three touchdown returns, blocked five kicks and forced an interception for a touchdown while rushing a punt. Carney set a club scoring record with 130 points and Lewis set an NFL record with 2,432 combined kickoff and punt return yards. Everest was named NFL Special Teams Coach of the Year and The Dallas Morning News listed his unit as having the League's No.1 special teams in the publication's annual ranking.

During his time in New Orleans, Everest coached three players to Pro-Bowl caliber seasons – Berger, Lewis and RB Fred McAfee. Berger and McAfee took Everest to Hawaii to show their appreciation of his guidance.

"There's nothing more rewarding than seeing your players, or students, become successful because it's a form of parenthood," Everest said about steering his pupils on a successful path. "You're part of the process of their development. It's very humbling because you know you played a part in their success."

Prior to elevating the Saints special teams units to paramount levels, Everest was the special teams coach for the Arizona Cardinals from 1996-99. In his final season, the Cardinals ranked third in the NFL in defensive punt coverage, fifth in opponent's net punting average and second in field goal defense. In 1998, Arizona had four game-winning field goals on the final play.

Prior to his second spell in the NFL, Everest worked on both sides of the ball around the globe. From 1976-80, Everest served as athletic director and football coach at American School Foundation in Mexico City.

In 1981, he made the decision to return stateside and joined U.S. International University from 1981-87 where he earned a doctorate degree with hopes of someday becoming a school superintendent. At the same time, he doubled as the school's baseball coach.

Everest then crossed the pond to combine his love of teaching and traveling while serving as a coach in the NFL Italy for both the Legnano Frogs and Pesaro Angels from 1988-91.

"When you get to do what you love to do, and you get to travel while doing it, that's the best of both worlds," Everest said, referring to his multiple coaching stints abroad.

In 1991, he also spent the season as a scout for the Pro Spring Football League and returned to the U.S. to coach secondary for the Arkansas Miners (1992) within the same League.

That's when his California and 49ers connection rekindled itself.

Everest spent a large part of his young life living in Palo Alto, CA, the home of Stanford University. His family moved to the area after his father, Andy, took a coaching position at Stanford under Jack Curtis (1958-62) and later assisted 49ers Hall of Fame Head Coach Bill Walsh with the Cardinal freshman team.

The family later moved to Santa Barbara where Andy was Santa Barbara's offensive coordinator and organizer of the 49ers summer training camp when Dick Nolan was the 49ers head coach. At that time, Al was a safety at Southern Methodist and went home during the summers to help his father by running the reception room for the 49ers during their stay.

That's where his relationship with the Nolan family originated.

In 1992, Dick Nolan hired Everest as his offensive coordinator when he was the head coach of the AFL's San Antonio Force. Everest spent one season under the elder Nolan before going back to Italy for one more season as the defensive coordinator of Legnano in 1993.

Now Everest has been reunited with the younger generation of Nolan head coaches.

"Joining the 49ers means coming back to an area where I grew up for a large part of my life, but the thing that really impacted me was this staff," Everest said. "They are all outstanding in wanting to be a part of the special teams coaching, and Mike Nolan really believes in special teams and it's important to him.

"He wanted people who aspire to teach and essentially parent, which is the ultimate form of teaching and what I take pride doing."

Everest was a two-year starting safety at SMU from 1970-71 where his teammates coined him "Dirty Al," for his ability to lay big hits. He cut his coaching teeth as a graduate assistant at SMU in 1972 where he worked under Head Coach Hayden Fry and alongside defensive coordinator and later NFL Head Coach Bum Phillips. He then continued as a graduate assistant at North Texas under Fry for another two seasons.

Everest and his wife, Mischelle, reside in Almaden Valley, CA. Everest's daughter, Michelle, is a freshman at Arizona State. The couple also has a daughter Kaycee Fae.

JERRY SULLIVAN

WIDE RECEIVERS/SENIOR ASSISTANT
16th NFL Season, 3rd with 49ers

Jerry Sullivan enters his third season with the 49ers after being named wide receivers coach/senior assistant on January 25, 2005.

Under Sullivan's direction in 2006, WR Arnaz Battle emerged as a multi-purpose threat, topping his previous career highs with 59 catches for 686 yards and three touchdowns while opening running lanes with his physical style of blocking. Battle's critical downfield blocking helped pave the way for RB Frank Gore to lead the NFL with 16 rushes for 20 or more yards.

Sullivan, a 16-year veteran of the NFL coaching ranks, joined the 49ers after spending the 2004 season as wide receivers coach for the Miami Dolphins. Sullivan was a member of the Arizona Cardinals' coaching staff for three seasons (2001-03). In his first two years with the club, Sullivan mentored the team's wide receivers, where he worked with a group that included WR David Boston. Under Sullivan's guidance, Boston led the NFL with 1,598 receiving yards on 98 receptions in 2001 and was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his career. In 2003, Sullivan was promoted to offensive coordinator where he worked with rookie wide receiver WR Anquan Boldin, a second-round draft choice that finished third in the league in receptions (101) and receiving yards (1,377) on his way to being named the NFL's Rookie of the Year as well as a starter on the NFC's Pro Bowl squad.

Sullivan has coached a multitude of Pro Bowl receivers, including San Diego Chargers WR Anthony Miller (1992-93) and WR Tony Martin (1996), Detroit Lions WR Herman Moore (1997-98) and WR Germaine Crowell (1999) and Arizona Cardinals WR David Boston (2001) and WR Anquan Boldin (2003).

Sullivan's NFL coaching career began in 1992 with the San Diego Chargers. Following his five-year term in San Diego, Sullivan coached wide receivers in Detroit from 1997-2000. Prior to his tenure in the Motor City, he coached on the collegiate level from 1971-91, including stints with Texas Tech, South Carolina, Indiana University, Louisiana State University and Ohio State.

Sullivan and his wife, Connie, reside in San Jose, CA. The couple has one son, Jon-Eric, who serves as a college scout in the Midwest region as the Green Bay Packers representative for the National Football Scouting Combine. Connie has a daughter, Allison, who resides in Orlando, FL, and a son, Matthew, who works for a wine distribution company in New Orleans, LA.

DUANE CARLISLE

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH
8th NFL Season, 3rd with 49ers

Duane Carlisle enters his third season with San Francisco after being named the team's assistant strength and conditioning coach on March 10, 2005.

Carlisle is responsible for directing all of the speed, agility and conditioning programs for every position on the team. Carlisle also assists Head Strength and Conditioning Coach Johnny Parker with the implementation of the 49ers' lifting programs throughout the season. Additionally, Carlisle partners with Team Nutritionist Dr. Suzanne Nelson to implement the team's comprehensive sports nutrition program. He also assists the 49ers' athletic trainers with reconditioning injured players as they prepare to return to the playing field.

During the 2006 and 2007 off-seasons, Carlisle and Parker received an overwhelming response to their spring/summer conditioning program – with nearly 100 percent player participation. The 14-week progression of exercises is designed to build muscle size, strength and stamina while keying on position-specific speed and proper nutrition.

Carlisle, the president and founder of Lightning Fast Training Systems, is one of the leaders in the area of athletic performance training. He has spent the last 14 years pushing athletes to perform to their maximum potential.

Carlisle recently served as the speed development consultant for the Philadelphia Eagles (2000-04). He was also the head speed, strength and conditioning coach for the Philadelphia Charge of the Women's United Soccer Association and the speed, strength and conditioning consultant for Major League Lacrosse's New Jersey Pride (2001-2003). Additionally, Carlisle was the speed development coordinator with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays (1997-98) and the sprint and jump coach at Penn State University. Carlisle got his start in the NFL in 1995 when he was the Philadelphia Eagles strength and conditioning intern, and later a seasonal assistant in the same capacity from 1996-97.

He has prepared numerous players for the NFL Combine including Pro Bowlers such as Philadelphia RB Brian Westbrook, Kansas City Chiefs RB Priest Holmes, Seattle Seahawks QB Matt Hasselbeck and former Chicago Bears CB Jerry Azumah. Carlisle has also served as the director of strength and conditioning at the prestigious Lawrenceville Boarding School in Lawrenceville, NJ (2000-04).

Carlisle is a native of Haverhill, MA and was a track and field athlete at the University of Maryland. He graduated in 1989.

FRANK CIGNETTI

QUARTERBACKS
4th NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Frank Cignetti enters his first season with the 49ers after being named the team's quarterbacks coach on March 1, 2007.

In both his professional and collegiate stops, Cignetti has been no stranger to coaching successful football programs or quarterbacks.

He's been a part of a division championship with the New Orleans Saints, participated in five college bowl games and won four, and helped Indiana University of Pennsylvania reach the Division II national championship game twice and semifinals four times. Cignetti has also been a member of the coaching staff in the Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine all-star games.

He joins the 49ers from the University of North Carolina where he was the Tar Heels offensive coordinator in 2006.

Prior to his season at UNC, Cignetti served four years as Fresno State's offensive coordinator where he helped the Bulldogs' offense average 52.8 points over the final six games in 2004 and become just the sixth team in NCAA history to score 50 or more points in four consecutive contests. In both 2004 and 2005, Fresno State's offense finished among the nation's top ten in scoring and third down conversions.

Prior to his time at Fresno State, Cignetti was the New Orleans Saints quarterbacks coach from 2000-2001. During his two-year stay, the Saints offense ranked 10th in the NFL, consecutively. In 2000, he helped the Saints earn the NFC West title.

He joined the Saints after coaching one season as an offensive assistant and quality control coach with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1999.

From 1990-98, Cignetti was an assistant at his alma mater, IUP, where he coached receivers (1990-92), secondary (1993-94), quarterbacks (1995-98) and was elevated to the offensive coordinator post during his final two seasons.

Cignetti got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh for Mike Gottfried in 1989. The Panthers finished 9-3 and defeated Texas A&M in the Sun Bowl.

Cignetti was an all-conference safety at IUP when 49ers offensive coordinator Jim Hostler was a cornerback for the Indians. The two played together in the school's first ever appearance in a national playoff game against Central Florida in 1987. Cignetti and Hostler have been part of the same coaching staffs at IUP and New Orleans.

A native of Pittsburgh, PA, Cignetti's family has many football ties. His father, Frank, recently retired after 24 seasons as the head coach at IUP and West Virginia.

He and his wife, Ellen, have three daughters: Alyssa (7), Gabrielle (5) and Ella (2).

SHANE DAY

QUALITY CONTROL
1st NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Shane Day enters his first season in the NFL after being named the 49ers quality control coach on May 21, 2007.

Day joins the 49ers after two seasons at the University of Michigan. With the Wolverines, Day was in charge of quality control for the Michigan football program. He assisted members of the offensive coaching staff with film breakdown.

Prior to joining the Michigan staff, Day spent four seasons coaching at Auburn (WA) Riverside High School. He coached the wide receivers (2001) and quarterbacks (2002) during his first two years. Day continued as the quarterbacks mentor in his final two seasons and added the responsibility of offensive coordinator from 2003-04.

Day graduated from Kansas State University in 1999 with a degree in English. He lettered in football as a wide receiver at Rhodes College in Memphis, TN. In addition, Day played shortstop and outfield on Rhodes' baseball team.

BISHOP HARRIS

RUNNING BACKS
14th NFL Season, 3rd with 49ers

Bishop Harris enters his third season as the 49ers running backs coach and 14th season coaching in the NFL ranks. He was named to his position with the 49ers on February 21, 2005.

In 2005, his first season with the team, Harris' young running backs corps made tremendous strides in both the run game and as solid blockers. RB Frank Gore led all rookie rushers in the NFL in average yards per carry (4.8).

In 2006, the unit rose to the next level as Gore set a franchise rushing record with 1,695 rushing yards, the third-highest total in the NFL. Behind the sturdy blocking of FB Moran Norris, Gore was able to earn a Pro Bowl nod for his monumental performance, and rookie rusher Michael Robinson and veteran presence Maurice Hicks were also key cogs. Harris' unit finished with a sixth overall rushing rank in the league for their efforts.

Harris joined the 49ers after four successful seasons as the New York Jets running backs coach. In New York, Harris rallied RB Curtis Martin to his last four 1,000-yard seasons since his arrival in 2001, including Martin's personal record of 1,697 yards in 2004. Harris previously served as running backs coach from 1998-99 for the Buffalo Bills. At Buffalo, Harris helped FB Sam Gash make consecutive Pro Bowl appearances and helped guide RB Antowain Smith to his best season as a pro, picking up his first 1,000-yard season in 1998. He also tutored 2007 Hall of Fame Inductee, RB Thurman Thomas, during his final two seasons of a 12-year career with the Bills.

Harris served in the same capacity with the Oakland Raiders from 1995-97 and the Denver Broncos from 1993-94. In Oakland, Harris directed two rushers to 1,000-plus rushing seasons (RB Harvey Williams 1,114 yards in 2005 and RB Napoleon Kaufman 1,294 yards in 1997). With the Broncos, Harris worked with the versatile Rod Bernstine, helping him excel in both his running and receiving game.

Harris coached on the collegiate level at Duke (1972-75) and was an assistant at North Carolina State (1977-79) before serving on the staff at LSU (1980-83). He moved to Notre Dame (1984-85) and then was a member of the University of Minnesota's coaching staff (1986-90), serving first as the linebacker coach and then as running backs/assistant head coach for the following three seasons.

Harris was named the head coach at his alma mater, North Carolina Central, in 1991 and held that role through the 1992 season. He was an All-Conference defensive back at NCCU from 1960-63 and earned his master's degree in education from Duke.

PETE HOENER (HAY-ner)

TIGHT ENDS
9th NFL Season, 3rd with 49ers

Pete Hoener enters his third season with the 49ers after being named tight ends coach on February 16, 2005.

In 2006, Hoener played a key role in helping to develop the 49ers first round (sixth pick overall) draft selection, Vernon Davis, into a productive NFL tight end. Davis became an instant playmaking threat on offense with his speed, size and after-catch abilities. Davis scored a touchdown on his first ever NFL touch at Arizona and added two more for a total of three scores on the season and 265 receiving yards despite missing six games with a fractured fibula.

Former 49ers TE Eric Johnson and rookie TE Delanie Walker also chipped in as part of the 2006 offensive output as Johnson accumulated 292 yards and two touchdowns, while Walker proved that he has a tremendous and exciting upside as a young player.

Hoener joined San Francisco after spending the 2004 season as the offensive line coach of the Chicago Bears. Under Hoener, the Bears offensive line went through seven starting combinations in 2004, but featured Pro Bowl C Olin Kreutz. Hoener's offensive line paved the way for RB Thomas Jones to establish 948 rushing yards.

Prior to his stint with Chicago, Hoener spent three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals as both the offensive line coach (2003) and tight ends coach (2001-02). Hoener broke into the NFL coaching ranks with the St. Louis Cardinals (1985-86), tutoring the tight ends while working alongside Jim Hanifan.

In addition to his eight years of NFL experience, Hoener chalks up more than 25 years of college coaching knowledge, including 15 as an offensive coordinator. His coaching stops include Texas A&M (2000), Iowa State (1998-99), Texas Christian (1991-97), Purdue (1989-91), Illinois (1986-88), Indiana State (1978-84), Illinois State (1977) and Missouri (1975-76).

Hoener played football and earned a bachelor's degree from Bradley University (1974).

VANCE JOSEPH

SECONDARY
3rd NFL Season, 3rd with 49ers

Vance Joseph enters his third season in San Francisco and second as secondary coach with the 49ers after being named the secondary assistant on February 17, 2005. He shares the secondary duties with Johnnie Lynn.

In 2006, Joseph helped the secondary make significant improvements over the course of the season. Veteran leader CB Walt Harris was a new and vital addition while leading the team with eight interceptions to rank tops in the NFC and third in the NFL. Harris earned NFC Defensive Player of the Month honors for November and played in his first career Pro Bowl. On the left side, CB Shawntae Spencer led the secondary with 74 tackles, two sacks and one interception. At the safety position, Joseph was instrumental in positioning two new faces, SS Mark Roman and FS Keith Lewis, into the starting lineup as effective, hard-hitting defenders.

Joseph joined San Francisco after spending 2004 as the defensive backs coach at Bowling Green State University. He joined Bowling Green's staff after working in the same capacity at his alma mater, the University of Colorado, for two seasons (2002-03). Joseph also had a brief stint as the secondary coach at Wyoming (2002). He cut his coaching teeth as a graduate assistant for the Buffaloes (1999-01).

Joseph lettered three times during his five-year (1990-94) collegiate career at Colorado as a quarterback. Joseph was a true freshman who saw action on Colorado's 1990 National Championship team.

Joseph signed as an undrafted free agent with the New York Jets in 1995 where he made the transition from quarterback to defensive back. He played 17 NFL games with the Jets and Indianapolis Colts over the course of two seasons. Joseph finished his career with two interceptions.

Born and raised in Marrero, LA, Joseph received a bachelor's degree in marketing in 1994 from Colorado.

JOHNNIE LYNN

SECONDARY
14th NFL Season, 3rd with 49ers

Johnnie Lynn enters his 14th NFL campaign and third overall season in San Francisco (second consecutive) after being named the 49ers secondary coach on February 14, 2006. He shares the secondary duties with Vance Joseph.

It marks the second time in Lynn's coaching career that he has tutored the 49ers defensive backs unit, his first was in 1996.

In 2006, Lynn's defensive expertise helped the unit make significant strides in both experience and performance. Under Lynn's tutelage, veteran CB Walt Harris was able to have a career year as he intercepted an NFC-best eight passes and earned NFC Defensive Player of the Month honors in November as well as his first career Pro Bowl nod. CB Shawntae Spencer continued to show playmaking flair after leading the secondary with 74 tackles, two sacks and one interception, and two new regulars in the starting lineup, SS Mark Roman and FS Keith Lewis proved to add a hard-hitting, tenacious presence in the back lines of defense.

Lynn previously served as secondary coach of the Baltimore Ravens in 2004 and 2005. Lynn spent the 2004 season under Head Coach Mike Nolan when he served as the defensive coordinator for the Ravens. That season, the Ravens secondary unit accounted for six of the team's seven defensive touchdowns. Lynn also coached two Ravens defensive backs to earn starting Pro Bowl nods—SS Ed Reed and CB Chris McAlister.

Prior to joining the Ravens, Lynn spent seven seasons with the New York Giants, serving five seasons (1997-01) as secondary coach before being promoted to defensive coordinator for the 2002 and 2003 seasons. In his first season as defensive coordinator, the Giants stingy defense ranked third in the NFL in scoring defense, allowing only 17.4 points per game. The Giants also finished ninth in total yardage defense (309.3 ypg) and ninth in passing defense (194.9 ypg). While Lynn mentored the defensive backs, the team consistently had one of the NFL's best pass defenses. One came in the 2000 NFC Championship Game, when the Giants limited Cris Carter, Randy Moss and the Vikings to just five catches for 60 yards. Lynn was also instrumental in helping to develop a throng of talented defensive backs including Will Allen, William Peterson, Shaun Williams and Jason Sehorn to name a few.

Prior to coaching defensive backs for the 49ers in 1996, Lynn served as the secondary coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1994 and 1995. Before moving into the NFL coaching ranks, Lynn served in a number of coaching capacities at the University of Arizona from 1987-93. He started as the Wildcats graduate assistant in 1987, and was elevated to outside linebackers coach (1988-91) before taking over the defensive backs (1992-93).

Lynn enjoyed an eight-year NFL career (1979-86) with the New York Jets as a cornerback and safety. He originally joined the Jets as a fourth-round draft pick out of UCLA. He ended his career 10th on the Jets career interception list with 17 interceptions.

A four-year letterman at UCLA, Lynn played on four bowl teams and garnered All-Pacific 10 honors as a senior. He earned his bachelor's degree in history.

Lynn and his wife Laurie are the parents of three children: Ashley, Chazz and Cameron.

MARK NORI

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT/ OFFENSIVE LINE
1st NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Mark Nori enters his first season with the 49ers as the offensive assistant/offensive line coach after being named to the position on March 19, 2007.

A former NFL offensive lineman and collegiate coach, Nori makes his first coaching stop in the NFL ranks with the 49ers.

Nori joins the 49ers after spending the last three seasons as the tight ends/tackles coach for the University of Akron (2004-06). In 2005, Nori's young but talented group of tight ends featured Kris Kasparek, who caught 27 passes for 312 yards. Along the offensive line, Nori helped to develop true freshman Chris Kemme into a starting right tackle as part of a line that helped RB Brett Briggs reach 1,000 yards rushing and allowed just 1.62 sacks per game.

Prior to his time in Akron, Nori spent the 2003 season as Maine's offensive line coach where he helped lead the Black Bears to a 7-5 record – the third-straight winning season for the Division I-AA program. The line helped pave the way for RB Marcus Williams to post a 1,000-yard season and for QB Ron Whitcomb to throw for nearly 2,500 yards.

In 2002, Nori served as the offensive graduate assistant with the University of Pittsburgh under Head Coach Walt Harris. He began his coaching career in 2001, spending one season as an assistant at Mount Ida College in Newton, MA while doubling as a communications teacher at West Roxbury High School in Boston.

Nori was a first-team All-Big East offensive lineman in 1996 and second-team selection in 1995 at Boston College. He earned his master's degree in curriculum and instruction from the school in 2001.

After a successful college playing career, Nori spent parts of four seasons (1997-2000) playing in the NFL with Pittsburgh, Jacksonville and the New York Giants.

Nori prepped at Germantown Academy in Fort Washington, PA and was inducted into the school's athletic Hall of Fame in 1999.

He and his wife, Barbara, have two children: Courtney and Joey.

JOHNNY PARKER

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH
20th NFL Season, 3rd with 49ers

Johnny Parker enters his third season with the 49ers as the team's strength and conditioning coach after being named to his position on February 14, 2005. It marks Parker's second decade coaching in the NFL ranks.

The success of Parker's weight, cardio and nutrition programs play a crucial role in Head Coach Mike Nolan's overall philosophy about the importance of the team's physical ability and group unity. During the 2006 and 2007 off-seasons, Parker's 14-week program, that was designed to build strength, stamina and focus on position-specific speed and proper nutrition, yielded nearly 100 percent player participation.

Parker joined San Francisco after spending two seasons in the private sector following a year with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2002) in which the Buccaneers captured their first Super Bowl title. He began his NFL career in 1984 with the New York Giants (1984-92) and then went on to spend seven seasons with the New England Patriots (1993-99). First as a member of Bill Parcells' staff in New York, Parker helped guide the Giants to appearances in Super Bowls XXI and XXV and then later, the Patriots to an appearance in Super Bowl XXXI. Parker has participated in the Super Bowl on every professional team he has worked. He has been a part of three Super Bowl Championship teams and one runner-up.

Following the 1994 season in New England, the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society named Parker the recipient of their President's Award, presented annually to the top strength and conditioning coach in the NFL.

Parker began his coaching career at Indianola Academy as linebackers coach (1969-73) prior to entering the collegiate ranks at the University of South Carolina as the Gamecocks strength and conditioning coach (1974-76). Following his time at South Carolina, Parker spent time at Indiana University (1977-79), Louisiana State (1980) and his alma mater, the University of Mississippi (1981-83), prior to joining Parcells and the Giants in 1984.

Born in Greenville, South Carolina, Parker was raised in Shaw, Mississippi and received a bachelor's degree in 1968 from Ole Miss. Parker also received a master's degree from Delta State.

JEFF RODGERS

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS
5th NFL Season, 5th with 49ers

Jeff Rodgers enters his third season as the 49ers assistant special teams coach. Rodgers previously served two seasons as the special teams quality control coach in San Francisco. In 2007, Rodgers joins forces with newly appointed Special Teams Coordinator Al Everest.

Last season, the 49ers special teams unit was led by K Joe Nedney, who successfully converted three onsides tries and is now five-for-seven with the 49ers. Nedney also led the team in points with 116, the second-highest total of his career. In the return game, Maurice Hicks surpassed the franchise record for total kickoff returns (57) and kickoff return yards (1,428) and also led the unit in tackles with 20. In the punting game, P Andy Lee set career highs in punting average (44.8), net punting average (36.8) and punted for more than 3,500 yards for the third time in his NFL career.

In 2005, Nedney connected on 26-of-28 field goals and was NFC Special Teams Player of Week after his five field goal performance against Tampa Bay. The 49ers special teams performed well as a unit, finishing third in kickoff coverage in 2005.

Rodgers joined the 49ers staff from the University of Arizona, where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant on defense, working with the secondary in 2001 and the flex linebackers in 2002.

He played four seasons at linebacker for the University of North Texas. While at North Texas, Rodgers earned his degree in business, specializing in entrepreneurship and strategic management in 2000. Rodgers prepped at Westlake High School in Austin, TX but was born in St. Paul, MN.

Rodgers is single and resides in Santa Clara, CA.

JASON TARVER

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT/OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS
7th NFL Season, 7th with 49ers

Jason Tarver enters his seventh season with the 49ers and will continue to serve in his third season as the defensive assistant/outside linebackers coach. Tarver spent his first three seasons with the 49ers as an offensive quality control coach before becoming the assistant running backs/offensive assistant coach in 2004.

In 2006, outside linebacker Brandon Moore paced the defense with 114 tackles, 6.5 sacks and four forced fumbles. On the opposite side, Tarver helped to develop rookie first-round pick Manny Lawson as he made the switch from college defensive end to professional outside linebacker. Lawson finished his rookie year with 65 tackles, 2.5 sacks and an interception and will look to become a key cog on the 49ers defensive front in 2007.

Tarver joined the 49ers staff after spending three seasons as a graduate assistant coach with UCLA (1998-00). In his three seasons with the Bruins, Tarver worked primarily with the defensive backfield and also assisted with special teams. Three of the unit's starting defensive backs during that span went on to join the NFL ranks, including current New York Giants CB Jason Bell, Chicago Bears CB Ricky Manning and former NFL S Marques Anderson.

A Northern California native, Tarver played defensive back and wing back at Foothill High in Pleasanton. He attended Santa Clara University, but played football at West Valley College in 1994 and 1995 because the Santa Clara Broncos cut their program.

After a series of injuries cut his career short, Tarver spent the next two seasons (1996-97) as an assistant coach at West Valley College where he tutored linebackers, defensive backs and special teams.

Born in Stanford, CA, Tarver earned a bachelor's degree in chemistry from Santa Clara in 1997 and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He also earned his master's degree in biochemistry and molecular biology from UCLA and received the departmental prize for distinguished teaching in 1998 and 2000.

Tarver and his wife, Katie, reside in San Jose, CA.

JIM TOMSULA

DEFENSIVE LINE
1st NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Jim Tomsula enters his first season with the 49ers after being named the team's defensive line coach on January 16, 2007.

Tomsula joins the 49ers from the NFL Europa League, where he was one of the most successful coaches in recent NFLEL history. He spent the 2006 season as the head coach of the Rhein Fire where he coached two current 49ers – offensive linemen Harvey Dahl and Tony Wragge.

During his time as a coach in the NFLEL, Tomsula achieved success as a defensive line coach, defensive coordinator and head coach. Between NFL Europa seasons, he was also a member of Division II Catawba College's coaching staff and was part of numerous college all-star games in a coaching capacity.

Prior to being named the Fire's head coach in 2006, which made him the youngest coach in NFLEL history at age 38, Tomsula served as the Berlin Thunder's defensive coordinator for two seasons, winning World Bowl XII in 2004. During that season, Tomsula's defense ranked first in the NFLEL against the run.

He joined the NFLEL in 1998 as the defensive line coach of the England Monarchs. He then went on to serve in the same capacity for five seasons with the Scottish Claymores, where he established a reputation for producing some of the league's most dominant lines. He also played a leading role in mentoring and teaching young talent in the league's National Player Development program.

Tomsula was a defensive lineman at Catawba College in Salisbury, NC after transferring from Middle Tennessee State. In 1989, he started his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater. He was then the defensive line coach at Woodland Hills (PA) High School in 1991 and later was an assistant at Charleston Southern University, SC in 1992.

He and his wife, Julie, reside in San Jose with their daughters Britney and Brooke.

GEORGE WARHOP

OFFENSIVE LINE
12th NFL Season, 3rd with 49ers

George Warhop enters his third season as the 49ers offensive line coach. He was named to the position on January 31, 2005.

Warhop's 2006 offensive line plowed the way for RB Frank Gore's franchise record 1,695 rushing yards, tops in the NFC. The unit was able to help Gore churn out 100-yard games nine times over the course of the season while finishing with a sixth overall NFL ranking in the rushing game and second NFL finish in average yards per rush (5.0 avg.).

Led by future Hall of Fame G Larry Allen, who played under Warhop at Dallas from 2003-04, the line also enabled QB Alex Smith to show dramatic improvement and set career highs in every offensive category in his first full season as a starter. The line was also able to significantly decrease Smith's sack total from 48 sacks in 2005 to 36 in 2006. While Allen earned his 11th Pro Bowl honor, the third under Warhop's direction, C Eric Heitmann flourished as the team's vocal and physical anchor in the trenches, G Justin Smiley and T Kwame Harris started all 16 contests and second-year G/T Adam Snyder continued to progress and show his powerful upside in reserve and starting roles.

Warhop joined San Francisco after spending two seasons with the Dallas Cowboys. In his two years with the Cowboys, Warhop's offensive line helped account for 3,768 rushing yards, 25 rushing touchdowns and 216 first downs. Under Warhop's tutelage, T Flozell Adams earned his first Pro Bowl nod after the 2003 season, and was named by his NFL peers as first alternate in 2004. Allen, his teammate in the trenches, was also named to the Pro Bowl during Warhop's stretch in 2003 and 2004 for his outstanding performance at guard after missing the all-star game in Hawaii in 2002.

Prior to his stint with Dallas, he spent five seasons as the offensive line coach for the Arizona Cardinals. During his five years with the Cardinals offensive line, Warhop tutored a group who was able to steadily decline the quarterback sacks allowed from the 78 surrendered in 1997 before his arrival, to 50 (1998), 45 (1999), 35 (2000) to 29 (2001). The latter was the second-fewest in franchise history in a 16-game season, trailing only the 22-sack effort of the 1978 line. Largely because of Warhop and his troops' work, Arizona averaged 4.5 yards per carry on the ground, the tenth-best per carry average in the league and the team's highest average in 17 seasons.

In 1998, his first season with the Cardinals, Warhop's linemen allowed 50 sacks, a 28-sack improvement over the previous season. Warhop's first Cardinals' line also merited credit for Arizona's 18 rushing touchdowns, exceeding the combined totals of the previous two seasons (eight in 1996 and nine in 1997).

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Warhop spent the 1996-97 campaigns as an offensive line assistant with the St. Louis Rams, working with Jim Hanifan. Warhop was offensive line coach at Southern Methodist University in 1993 and then served in a similar capacity at Boston College from 1994-95. From 1991-92, he was the offensive coordinator for the London Monarchs of the World Football League, helping the team win the World Bowl in his first season.

He entered the coaching arena in 1983 at his alma mater, Cincinnati, and then served on the offensive staffs at Kansas (1984-86), Vanderbilt (1987-89) and New Mexico (1990-91).

Warhop and his wife, Lori, have a daughter, Olivia, and a son, Jacob.

PARAAG MARATHE (PA-Rahg, Ma-RAH-tay)

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Paraag Marathe enters his seventh season with the 49ers and third as director of football operations. Previously, he spent one season as assistant to the general manager and three seasons as special projects manager in the 49ers personnel and football operations departments.

In his current role, Marathe is the club's chief contract negotiator and coordinates its compliance with the NFL's collective bargaining agreement. He is also responsible for the management of the club's salary cap as well as multi-year forecasting at both the individual club and league level. Marathe serves as the liaison with the team's business office and CFO with regards to player compensation.

In his time with the 49ers, Marathe has developed new systems within football operations to better understand and predict market trends on player contracts and their salary cap ramifications. He has also developed new methods and systems for evaluating and acquiring players for the college draft and at the NFL professional level. He also manages the club's research and development efforts and assists with budgeting for various football administrative departments.

Marathe also frequently conducts special assignments within both the business and football sides of the organization for Owner John York and Head Coach Mike Nolan.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Marathe worked at management consulting firm Bain & Company from 1999-01 as a Senior Associate Consultant, where he advised clients in a variety of industries including private equity, leveraged buyout, software, retail, sports footwear and health clubs. Before that, Marathe worked in the corporate consulting group at the International Management Group (IMG) from 1997-99, where he concentrated primarily on stadium naming rights deals and corporate sponsorships.

Born in Sunnyvale, CA, Marathe received his bachelor's degree with high honors from the Haas School of Business at the University of California-Berkeley and received his master's in business administration (MBA) from Stanford University's Graduate School of Business.

Marathe and his wife, Naya, reside in Sunnyvale, CA.

TERRY TUMEY

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

With an extensive background in football and advanced experience in business, Terry Tumey enters his third season as the director of football administration. Prior to serving as the department's director, he was the assistant director of football administration for the previous two years.

Tumey is responsible for planning and managing the finances for the football administration department, including the scouting and coaching budgets, training room, video department, equipment room, strength and conditioning, travel and training camp. He also assists in contract negotiations and works with the management team with respect to the salary cap and compliance with the Collective Bargaining Agreement. He is also a key liaison with the groups that comprise the NFL Management Council.

Tumey is responsible for the coordination of the team's general football activities from inter-club communication to league-level issues such as the coordination of NFL Europa and non-player football contracts.

After spending two years as a personnel assistant (2001-02) with the 49ers evaluating talent and scouting opponents, Tumey was elevated to assistant director of football administration in March, 2003.

Tumey's experience in business is substantial, having worked as senior associate for Coopers & Lybrand (1993-94) where he analyzed and advised on corporate relocation strategies among many other duties. He served as a capital planning manager for Panda Management Company in Pasadena (1994-95), developing marketing plans and analyzing the viability of potential restaurant sites.

From 1988-90, Tumey gained experience in real estate as an assistant project manager for Griffin Homes in Calabasas (1988-89) and as project manager with Crescent Bay Company in Santa Monica (1989-90).

Prior to coming to San Francisco in 2001, Tumey spent two years as a defensive assistant coach (1999-00) for the Denver Broncos. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, UCLA, in 1992 and later joined the Bruins staff full-time in 1995, serving as the defensive line coach for four years (1995-98).

A three-time All-Pacific-10 first-team choice as a nose guard at UCLA (1985-87), Tumey helped the Bruins win four bowl games, compile a record of 36-10-2 and finish ranked in the top-10 three times during his four-year career.

Tumey earned his bachelor's degree in political science in 1988 and returned to UCLA's Andersen School of Business where he received a master's in business administration in 1993.

A native of Tulsa, OK, Tumey and his family reside in Piedmont, CA.

TOM GAMBLE

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

In his 20th NFL season, Tom Gamble enters his third year with the 49ers overseeing the club's pro personnel department. In his role, Gamble monitors every NFL roster with an emphasis on scouting talent of upcoming pro free agents. He is also responsible for maintaining continuous depth of personnel on the 49ers roster.

Prior to his arrival in San Francisco, Gamble served as an area scout for the Indianapolis Colts for seven seasons under Bill Polian.

He worked in 1997 as a part-time college scout for the Carolina Panthers while dueling as a pro scout with the Baltimore Ravens. Gamble entered the NFL as an assistant in the player personnel department of the Philadelphia Eagles in 1988. He stayed with the Eagles through 1994, serving as an area scout, handling contract negotiations, and later served as director of pro scouting. He served as a defensive assistant/quality control coach with the New York Jets from 1995-96.

Gamble earned his B.S. from High Point University in 1987 and an M.S. from Rowan University in 1988.

Gamble grew up in a football family where his father, Harry, served as the head coach at both the University of Pennsylvania and Lafayette College. He was also formerly the President of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Gamble and his wife, Juliette, have three sons, Tom, Gregory and Matthew.

DAVID MCCLOUGHAN

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

David McCloughan enters his third season with the 49ers overseeing the club's college scouting department. In 2004, Vice President of Player Personnel Scot McCloughan recruited David, his older brother, from across the Bay where he spent the previous nine years in the player personnel department of the Oakland Raiders.

David and Scot inherited their love of football and scouting from their father, Kent, who played as a defensive back for six years at Oakland before becoming a college scout for nearly three decades with the Raiders.

David joined his father in Oakland when his own professional football career as a defensive back ended. He then scouted college talent around the country for nearly a decade with the Raiders.

McCloughan was drafted out of the University of Colorado in 1991 with the Indianapolis Colts' 69th pick overall in the NFL Draft. He went on to play four seasons in the NFL with Indianapolis, Green Bay and Seattle.

He was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Colorado and led the nation in punt returns as a senior with a 16.4-yard average. The high school running back standout, who was converted to defensive back at Colorado, also earned first team All-Big Eight honors as a junior and a first team All-Academic accolades as a sophomore in his new position. He was also a member of the 1990 Colorado National Championship team.

A native of Loveland, CO, McCloughan graduated with a degree in marketing and attended Loveland (CO) High School where he lettered in football, basketball and track.

McCloughan and his wife, JoDee, have two sons.

TRENT BAALKE

AREA SCOUT

Trent Baalke enters his third season with the 49ers and 10th season in the NFL as he scouts the Southwest region for San Francisco.

Baalke joined San Francisco as an area scout after serving four years on the Washington Redskins scouting staff, his last (2004) as the club's college scouting coordinator. He joined the Redskins in 2001 and spent three seasons as Washington's national scout, traveling throughout the country in search of rising talent.

Before joining the Redskins, Baalke spent three seasons (1998-2000) as a scout with the New York Jets.

He previously held the position as the athletic director at Shanley (Fargo, ND) High School. Before his stint at Shanley, Baalke was the defensive line/strength and conditioning coach at South Dakota State (1990-95) where he helped promote current NFL kicker Adam Vinatieri's talent to NFL scouts.

He cut his coaching teeth as a graduate assistant and defensive line coach in 1989 for North Dakota State, helping the squad finish with a 14-0 record and Division II National Championship. He was instrumental in campaigning for one of his players to join the professional ranks—defensive lineman Phil Hansen—who went on to play 11 seasons for the Buffalo Bills.

A double major at Bemidji State (MN), Baalke received his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He went on to earn his master's degree in secondary education and sports administration while coaching at North Dakota State. Baalke played outside linebacker and was a two-time All-Northern Sun Conference and an All-Mid West Region honoree at Bemidji.

Trent and his wife, Beth, have two daughters, Katlynn and Cassie. The family resides in Loveland, CO.

ROYLIN BRADLEY

AREA SCOUT

Roylin Bradley enters his third season with the 49ers as the club's scout throughout the Western region.

Just prior to his arrival in San Francisco, Bradley worked for AltairStrickland in Texas City, TX. Bradley also served as a substitute teacher, mentoring at the middle school and high school level within his former institution, LaMarque (TX) High School.

Bradley spent the 2004 summer as an intern with the Seattle Seahawks scouting department under Scot McCloughan after returning from a one-season stint in 2003 with the Canadian Football League where he was a linebacker for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

After a successful span (1997-2001) at linebacker for Texas A&M, Bradley spent 2001 training camp with both the Philadelphia Eagles and Seattle Seahawks and also spent time in training camp in 2002 with the New Orleans Saints.

Bradley played defensive end and fullback for LaMarque (TX) High School where he received All-State and Player of the Year honors in the state of Texas in 1995 and 1996. He also ran the 400 meters for LaMarque's track team.

Bradley resides in LaMarque, TX where he was born and raised.

TODD BRUNNER

AREA SCOUT

Todd Brunner is in his eighth season with the 49ers as a regional scout.

Prior to coming to the 49ers, he spent two seasons with the Cleveland Browns as an area scout where he combed the Northeast region in 1999 for college talent. Brunner joined the Browns from the Philadelphia Eagles where he spent four seasons (1994-97) as an area scout covering the Northeast region. He joined the Eagles as a scouting intern in 1992 and worked as a scouting assistant in 1993.

Brunner went to Lehigh (PA) University where he lettered two years in football. As a junior, he led the team in special teams tackles and as a senior quarterback, tied or broke 14 school passing records. Following his football career at Lehigh, he spent one season as a graduate assistant at Temple in 1991 and earned his master's degree.

Brunner comes from a football family as his father John coached at Temple, Villanova, Princeton and in the NFL ranks with Detroit, Green Bay, Tampa Bay and Minnesota before scouting for the 49ers for 13 seasons. His brother, Scott, spent time in the NFL with the New York Giants.

Born in Middletown, NY, Brunner and his wife, Nancy, reside in Robbinsville, NJ with their daughter, Annie Elizabeth, and son, Chad Joseph.

JUSTIN CHABOT

AREA SCOUT

Justin Chabot is in his fourth season with the 49ers as a regional scout. Previously, Chabot spent five years as the director of football operations at Northwestern. As part of his role with the Wildcats, Chabot served as the pro liaison to visiting college talent scouts from the NFL. Chabot was extremely familiar with Northwestern's football program, having starred as an offensive lineman on the 1995 and 1996 Big Ten Championship teams.

Chabot tallied 41 career starts on the line for Northwestern, including starts on the 1996 Rose Bowl and the 1997 Citrus Bowl teams. A four-year letterwinner and captain of the 1996 squad, Chabot was named first-team All-Big Ten by the media and coaches his senior year. He was also named to the Academic All-Big Ten list in 1993.

Born in Washington, D.C., Chabot was raised in Oxford, OH. He graduated from Northwestern in 1996 with a degree in sociology and played professionally during the 1997 season with the Pittsburgh Steelers and the New York Giants.

Chabot resides in Baton Rouge, LA with his wife, Suzy, and twin sons, Walker and Brant.

QUENTUS CUMBY

PRO PERSONNEL SCOUT

Quentus Cumby enters his second season in the 49ers player personnel department as the team's pro personnel scout.

In his role, Cumby assists the pro scouting department in their evaluation of NFL talent. Cumby is responsible for maintaining current NFL roster boards, depth charts and coordinates player tryouts and visits to the 49ers facility. Cumby also serves as the 49ers weekly advance scout for the personnel and coaching staffs.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Cumby was a physical education teacher at Ben Franklin Intermediate in Daly City, CA during the 2005-06 term. He began his teaching career in the fall of 2005 after spending the summer as an intern with the Green Bay Packers player personnel department under Ted Thompson and Reggie McKenzie.

In 2003, Cumby was invited to participate in training camp by the Packers as a free agent safety. One year later, he spent the summer of 2004 playing the position in the Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Eskimos.

Cumby played football and ran track at Cleburne (TX) High School where he was an all-state free safety in 1999. He went on to earn a football scholarship at the University Kentucky where he was a two-year starter at free safety and cornerback from 1999-02. He graduated in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology.

Cumby resides in Sunnyvale, CA.

KENT KAHL

AREA SCOUT

Kent Kahl enters his first season with the 49ers as the club's scout throughout the Midlands region.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Kahl spent more than ten years as a contractor, building homes in the greater Iowa City area.

Kahl was a running back at the University of Colorado (1991-92) where he was part of the same Buffaloes 1991 National Championship team as 49ers Director of College Scouting David McCloughan. After two seasons at Colorado, Kahl transferred to Iowa for his final two collegiate campaigns (1993-94) where he made the switch to fullback and was voted as the team's MVP his senior year.

In 1995, Kahl spent time in training camp with the San Diego Chargers before returning to the state of Iowa.

Kahl is a native of Ft. Morgan, CO where he was a running back, forward and hurdler on Ft. Morgan High School's football, basketball and track teams. After his college playing career concluded, Kahl traveled back to his alma mater periodically to assist his father, Rick, who served as the Ft. Morgan football team's head coach for more than 20 years.

Kahl is single and resides in Iowa City, IA.

MATT MALASPINA

AREA SCOUT

Matt Malaspina enters his third season with the 49ers as an area scout in the Northwest region after spending five years as an area scout with the Seattle Seahawks. During that span, Malaspina was part of 49ers Vice President of Player Personnel Scot McCloughan's staff when he headed the Seahawks' college scouting department.

He landed in the Northwest after spending 1999 with the Carolina Panthers where he evaluated college players in the Northeast region. Prior to his time with the Panthers, he served one season with National Football Scouting.

Malaspina was also an assistant offensive coach at Jacksonville University from 1997-98. He entered college coaching in 1997 as an intern at his alma mater, the University of Central Florida. A 1993 graduate of Central Florida, Malaspina went on to have a brief playing career as a center for the Shreveport Pirates of the Canadian Football League, playing in 1994 and attending training camp in 1995.

Malaspina and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Chuluota, FL with their son, Carson and daughter, Grace.

ETHAN WAUGH

PLAYER PERSONNEL ASSISTANT/ COLLEGE SCOUTING ADMINISTRATOR

Ethan Waugh is in his fourth season as a player personnel assistant for the San Francisco 49ers. His duties include assisting the personnel department in a variety of areas including the evaluation and scouting of college and professional players. He also works extensively with the 49ers college scouting database.

Waugh joined the 49ers after spending the previous two seasons at Illinois Wesleyan where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He also served as the team's recruiting coordinator.

Prior to his time in Bloomington, Waugh was an assistant at Western Carolina from 1997-01 where he worked with linebackers, defensive ends, tight ends and special teams. He also worked with the running backs during the 2000-01 seasons.

Waugh grew up in Vernon Hills, IL and attended Lake Forest College, lettering two seasons as a defensive back before transferring to Lawrence University in Appleton, WI. A 1997 graduate of Lawrence with a bachelor's degree in history, he lettered as a quarterback and as a receiver. He earned a master's degree in American history from Western Carolina in 1999.

Waugh grew up in a football family—his father, Maury, was his head coach at Lake Forest and is currently coaching at the University of St. Francis in Fort Wayne, IN. Waugh's brother, Tucker, is the running backs coach at Army and his second brother, Adam, tutors safeties at Army.

He and his wife, Allison, reside in Santa Clara, CA with their son, Spencer.

MIKE WILLIAMS

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Mike Williams is in his eighth season with the 49ers and third as assistant director of pro personnel. He joined the 49ers in 1999 as a volunteer in the personnel department and became full-time as a personnel assistant in the spring of 2000.

In the summer of 2005, Williams was named to his current position, assistant director of pro personnel, where his responsibilities include advance scouting, evaluating free agents, setting up free agent workouts, tracking NFL rosters and depth charts and establishing and maintaining contact with player agents.

Williams' prior background as a personnel assistant with the 49ers also included scouting draft-eligible players.

Prior to the 49ers, Williams was the defensive coordinator at De Anza College in Cupertino, CA in 1998. He served one year as the linebackers coach at Southern Utah University in 1997. Before working at Southern Utah, he was the defensive coordinator at St. Lawrence (Santa Clara, CA) High School for three seasons. While volunteering for the 49ers in 1999, he also taught at St. Lawrence.

Williams earned a bachelor's degree in economics from Santa Clara in 1989 where he was a four-year starter at safety. He attended Mater Dei (Santa Ana, CA) High School where he participated in football, basketball and track.

He and his wife, Holly, have a daughter, Emily Angeline. The family resides in Menlo Park, CA.

JEFF FERGUSON

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeff Ferguson enters his second season as the head athletic trainer for the 49ers. Ferguson oversees the team's rehabilitation procedures, injury records, training room and daily athletic training duties.

Ferguson joined San Francisco after serving as the manager of athletic team development with BREG, an orthopedic company based out of Vista, CA. From June, 2005 until March, 2006 Ferguson specialized in sports medicine bracing for BREG.

Prior to his move to the West coast, Ferguson spent eight years in several capacities at Kansas State University, though he continued to serve as the athletic trainer for the Kansas State football team throughout his time in Manhattan. He began his career in Wildcat athletics in 1997 as an assistant athletic trainer for intercollegiate sports. In 2002, Ferguson was promoted to assistant athletic director for sports medicine where he stayed until 2005. In his role, Ferguson was responsible for the prevention, evaluation, treatment and rehabilitation of all athletic injuries in addition to supervising medical coverage for 14 collegiate athletic teams. His staff was voted best in the Big 12 for their medical efforts during 2003-04.

The previous two years (1995-97), Ferguson was an athletic trainer with an orthopedic surgeon and physical therapy company in Louisburg, N.C. While doing graduate work at the University of Texas at Arlington, he spent two years as a graduate assistant athletic trainer that included the task of head athletic trainer for the track and field teams.

Ferguson earned his bachelor's degree in 1993 at Clemson University and his master's degree in 1995 at Texas-Arlington. He got his start in college athletic training as a student athletic trainer at Clemson from 1989-93 and spent the 1992 summer as a preseason athletic trainer for the New England Patriots. He is also a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA).

A native of Clemson, S.C., Ferguson is married to the former Rebecca Hopper. The couple resides in Santa Clara, CA with their two daughters, Madelyn and Alexandra, and son, J.C.

JEFF TANAKA

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeff Tanaka is in his ninth season as an assistant athletic trainer with the 49ers. He spent the previous two seasons at the University of California, Berkeley in the same capacity.

In 2001, Tanaka and the rest of the 49ers athletic trainers were honored by their peers with the prestigious NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year Award.

Tanaka had four stints in the professional ranks before his tenure at Cal, beginning with a training camp internship with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994. He then spent two seasons as a graduate assistant with the 49ers (1995-96) before accepting a position as an assistant athletic trainer for the NFL Europe Amsterdam Admirals in 1997.

After his time in Amsterdam, Tanaka spent the next two seasons at Cal where he was head athletic trainer for men's basketball and the men's and women's swim teams.

Tanaka received a bachelor's degree in physical education from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo in 1994 and in 2001 earned a master's degree in kinesiology from San Jose State. As a student-trainer at Cal Poly, Tanaka gained experience with all 17 sports for the Mustangs, including football, basketball and women's volleyball. While serving his graduate assistantship through San Jose State, he became the first athletic trainer at Santa Teresa (CA) High School and implemented the school's training program and facility.

Born in San Jose, CA, Tanaka graduated from Branham High School. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and California Athletic Trainers Association (CATA).

Tanaka resides in San Jose, CA.

MANNY RIVERA

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Manny Rivera is in his fourth season as assistant athletic trainer with the 49ers.

Prior to working in San Francisco, Rivera worked with the United States Olympic Committee for one year. With the USOC, he provided coverage for USA Olympic and Paralympics Developmental teams, including track and field, archery, rowing, kayaking, cycling, soccer, volleyball, rugby and softball.

In 2002, Rivera served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Indiana University football team. At Indiana, he was directly responsible for the emergency medical supplies, training supplies and inventory, practice and game field set-ups, as well as organizing and packing for team travel. Rivera was also responsible for supervision, instruction and evaluation of undergraduate athletic training curriculum students.

Rivera was a member of the 49ers training staff as an athletic intern in 2001 and was a training student assistant at the University of Pacific. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Pacific in 2001 and a master's degree in kinesiology from Indiana University in 2003.

He and his wife, Patty, reside in Santa Clara, CA.

STEVE URBANIAK

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Steve Urbaniak enters his ninth season with the 49ers and fourth as the team's equipment manager. During his first four seasons in San Francisco, Urbaniak served as an assistant in the equipment department. This season marks Urbaniak's tenth year overall working in the NFL ranks.

He is responsible for the many details that go into filling an NFL team's daily needs. These needs include outfitting players and coaches in safe and advanced equipment, as well as ordering and maintaining all of the team's equipment and sideline apparel. Urbaniak and his staff also transport team equipment to and from all games, as well as assist coaches with daily practice needs.

Urbaniak came to San Francisco in 1999 after serving a one-year internship with the Miami Dolphins in 1998. While in Miami, he served as a member of the host team assigned to the Denver Broncos prior to Super Bowl XXXIII.

Urbaniak attended East Carolina University, where he helped the Pirates reach consecutive Liberty Bowls as a punter before spending two years as the team's student manager. He graduated with a degree in therapeutic recreation in 1998. A certified athletic equipment manager, Urbaniak is also a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association. He added acting to his resume in 1998, playing a small role in the feature film "Any Given Sunday."

Urbaniak was born in Lowville, NY. He and his wife, Lindsay, reside in Sunnyvale, CA with their dog Chavil.

DONOVAN "DOC" DRESSLER

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Donovan "Doc" Dressler is in his sixth season as the assistant equipment manager of the 49ers.

During his first stint in San Francisco, Doc served as a training camp and partial season intern with the 49ers equipment department in the summer of 2000 before taking on head equipment manager duties from 2000-2001 in the XFL for the Las Vegas Outlaws. Doc returned to San Francisco in 2001 as an intern and was brought on shortly after in a full-time capacity to assist with the team's apparel and on-field equipment needs.

Doc got his start in the NFL with the Miami Dolphins, where he interned at different times in the equipment department during 1998 and 2000. During that time, he also had a stint as the head equipment manager at Northwestern Louisiana State from 1999-2000

Doc was born and raised in Stillwater, OK where he attended Stillwater High School. He attended Oklahoma State University and served as the Cowboys' student equipment manager for six years.

Doc has been a member of the Athletic Equipment Manager's Association since 1995 and received his certification in 1999.

He and his wife, Terri, reside in San Jose, CA with their sons Jacob and Rocco.

KYLE GERGELY

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Kyle Gergely enters his second season with the 49ers as the team's assistant equipment manager.

Gergely joined San Francisco from West Lafayette, IN, where he served as the student equipment manager of the Purdue University football team for six years while earning his bachelor's degree in history. Gergely got his start in the NFL with the Indianapolis Colts, where he worked four training camps and two full seasons as a ball boy for the team from 1998-2001.

A three-sport athlete at Speedway High School in his hometown of Speedway, IN, Gergely played basketball, baseball and was a member of the golf team. It also marked the start of his background in equipment management as he was the high school football team's equipment manager.

Gergely is the youngest of four children, but only by a hair – his twin brother, John, was born seven minutes earlier. Kyle and John also have two older sisters.

Gergely and his wife, Sara, reside in Campbell, CA with their dog, Coach.

JEFFREY GILBERT

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Jeff Gilbert enters his third season with the 49ers as the team's assistant equipment manager.

Gilbert came to San Francisco after spending the 2003-04 seasons in the Seattle Seahawks equipment department. Gilbert also served as the Seahawks' training camp coordinator's assistant during the summers.

Prior to joining the Seahawks front office, Gilbert ran his family hardware and nursery business in Scotts Valley, CA while interning in the personnel department of the San Jose Sabercats of the Arena Football League intermittently from 2002-04.

Gilbert grew up in Felton, CA where he played football, basketball and baseball at San Lorenzo Valley High School. He played football and baseball at Cabrillo (Junior) College for two years and went on to Bethany Bible College in Scotts Valley, CA where he earned his bachelor's degree in business administration. Gilbert later attended the University of San Francisco where he finished a master's degree in sport management.

Gilbert and his wife of 14 years, Theresa, reside in Scotts Valley with their daughter, Kiana (6) and son, Carlton (3).

KEITH YANAGI

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO OPERATIONS

Keith Yanagi enters his third year as the 49ers video director, but 19th year working in the club's video department.

He spent his first six seasons with San Francisco in a part-time capacity, helping the 49ers video staff with day-to-day film responsibilities. Yanagi was then hired on full-time and spent 10 years as the assistant video director before his recent promotion to director.

Among other duties in his current role, Yanagi oversees all daily video operation responsibilities, including the production and editing of all practices and games for the team's operations personnel. In addition, he directs the production of self-scout and upcoming opponent cut-ups for the coaching staff and players and video tape and SAT FieldPak exchanges with other teams. His video staff also plays a key role in the NFL Draft as they provide the 49ers college scouting department with highlight tapes of selected draft-eligible players.

Yanagi is responsible for maintaining a four-year library of all NFL games and frequently compiles training tape DVD's for player's take-home study and evaluation.

Over his 19-year service with the 49ers, Yanagi has been a part of 25 playoff games, including three Super Bowls – Super Bowl XXIII, XXIV and XXIX.

His brother, Robert, serves as the director of video operations for the Detroit Lions.

Yanagi did his undergraduate work at the College of San Mateo and San Francisco City College in the fields of photography, film and art. A native of San Mateo, CA, he attended Serra (San Mateo, CA) High School and played on the football and baseball teams.

Keith and his fiancé, Rebecca, currently reside in San Jose. He has one son, Sean.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006: (With San Francisco)

- Played and started in 11 contests and was inactive for five with sprained MCL.
- Was voted to 11th career PRO BOWL after paving the way for RB Frank Gore's franchise record 1,695 rushing yards on the season.
- Started at left guard, but left the game due to a knee injury suffered in the first quarter at Arizona (9-10) and was replaced by Tony Wragge.
- Inactive vs. St. Louis (9-17), vs. Philadelphia (9-24), at Kansas City (10-1), vs. Oakland (10-8) and vs. San Diego (10-15) due to a sprained MCL suffered at Arizona.
- Returned to starting lineup at left guard at Chicago (10-29).
- Started at left guard at Detroit (11-12). The entire offensive line was awarded game balls by Head Coach Mike Nolan, in part for paving the way for 198 rushing yards.
- Started at left guard vs. Seattle (11-19) and played with an offensive line that blocked for Gore's franchise single-game record 212 yards rushing. The 49ers accumulated 262 total rushing yards in the game, the eighth most in team history. The last time they rushed for that many yards was vs. Detroit (12-14-98), when they ran for a franchise-best 328 yards. Gore, who was awarded a game ball by Nolan, in turn gave game balls to the entire offensive line.
- Started at left guard at Seattle (12-14) in one of the finest offensive line performances of the season. QB Alex Smith was not sacked and the 49ers ran for 228 yards, 144 to Gore's credit.
- Started at left guard vs. Arizona (12-24). Named as a reserve guard for the NFC in the PRO BOWL during game week to mark 11th Pro Bowl selection.
- Started at left guard at Denver (12-31) and opened holes for Gore to break the 49ers franchise season rushing record and franchise combined yardage record (2,180).

2005: (With Dallas)

- Named to his 10th PRO BOWL in 2005.
- Played every offensive snap for Dallas, starting all 16 contests at left guard.
- Marked 11th season as a full-time starter and started seventh consecutive season opener at left guard at San Diego (9-11). Helped Dallas offense rack up 28 points and 301 yards of total offense.
- Started vs. Philadelphia (10-9) and helped Dallas offense accumulate season-high 456 yards of total offense.
- Blocking helped QB Drew Bledsoe complete 26-of-37 passes for 312 yards vs. New York Giants (10-16).
- Helped running game amass 164 yards at a 4.2 yard-per-carry clip at Seattle (10-23).
- Helped lead way as RB Marion Barber rushed for 127 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries vs. Arizona (10-30).
- Part of offensive line that allowed Bledsoe time to throw for 332 yards and three touchdowns while the running game picked up 129 yards and a score on the ground vs. Kansas City (12-11). The 445 yards of total offense was the second-best of the season.
- Run blocking allowed RB Julius Jones to rush for 194 yards, the fourth-best performance in club history at Carolina (12-24). The Dallas offense racked up 22 first downs, 394 total yards—including a season-best 214 rushing—and 24 points in the come-from-behind win.

2004: (With Dallas)

- For the eighth time in 11 NFL seasons, Allen started all 16 games, and for the ninth time, he was an NFC PRO BOWL selection at guard.
- In the season opener at Minnesota (9-12), Allen's blocking helped the Dallas offense rack up 423 yards of total offense.
- In the home opening win vs. Cleveland (9-19), the Cowboys totaled a season-high 441 total yards, and QB Vinny Testaverde threw for 322 yards with only one sack in 36 passes. The Cowboys also ran for 126 yards against the Browns.
- Helped the Dallas running game collect 166 yards on the day vs. New York Giants (10-10).
- In the Thanksgiving Day win vs. Chicago (11-25), Allen was part of a line that paved the way for Jones to rush for 150 yards.
- In the Monday night win at Seattle (12-6), the Dallas line's blocking opened holes for Jones to run for 198 yards, the third-best rushing day in club history and the second-best ever by a Cowboys rookie.
- In the season ending loss at New York Giants (1-2-05), the Dallas line closed the year by opening holes for Jones to rush for 149 yards on 29 carries (5.1 avg.) and a touchdown.

2003: (With Dallas)

- Bounced back after missing most of 2002 season with sprained left ankle that required off-season surgery to remove bone spurs. Returned and started all 16 regular season games and playoff game at Carolina (1-3-04).
- Despite missing parts of four games with injuries, Allen returned to form and was honored with eighth PRO BOWL selection at guard.
- Began season by straining hamstring in practice four days before season opener.
- Still started vs. Atlanta (9-7), but aggravated hamstring in second quarter and sat out remainder of half before coming back for second half as offense rolled up 403 total yards.
- Played at New York Giants (9-15) and helped QB Quincy Carter throw for 321 yards in leading Dallas to come-from-behind overtime victory.

- Suffered sprained left knee in second quarter vs. Arizona (10-5), but returned in second half to help Dallas total 365 yards of offense.
- Despite playing sporadically vs. Washington (11-2) due to a sprained left knee suffered in the first quarter, helped Cowboys rack up 400 yards of total offense, including 208 rushing yards.
- Helped shut out DT Kris Jenkins while Dallas line allowed only one sack for zero yards in 45 pass plays vs. Carolina (11-23).
- Paved way for RB Troy Hambrick to run for 189 yards vs. Washington (12-14).

2002: (With Dallas)

- Had challenging season of injuries. Fought through off-season surgery and nagging early season ankle sprain that limited him to five starts between left guard and right tackle.
- Due to off-season rotator cuff surgery on left shoulder, was limited in training camp and saw action in just final two preseason games.
- Entering the regular season, was selected as an offensive captain by teammates.
- Sprained left ankle in second quarter vs. Tennessee (9-15). Attempted to return in second half but lasted just two plays before returning to sideline.
- Inactive at Philadelphia (9-22) due to ankle injury.
- Moved to right tackle during practice week leading up to St. Louis game (9-29) and opened game at that position before re-aggravating sprained left ankle. Left game in the first quarter.
- Returned to starting lineup at right tackle vs. New York Giants (10-6) but came out during first drive after aggravating left ankle. Battled pain and was in and out of game in second half at left guard for Kelvin Garmon who suffered hip injury.
- Following trade of Garmon to San Diego, Allen returned to left guard vs. Carolina (10-13), but left game in second quarter with ankle pain.
- Inactive next three games to let injury heal.

- Missed first career game at Arizona (11-21), snapping strings of 97 consecutive games played and 90 consecutive starts.
- Missed next four games with sprained knee.
- Returned to starting lineup at New Orleans (12-24) and helped Dallas line surrender no sacks on 39 pass plays while leading way for Smith to rush for eighth 100-yard game of the season.
- In season finale vs. New York Giants (1-2-00), helped pave way for Smith as he recorded ninth 100-yard game of year. Part of line that did not allow a sack in 33 pass plays.
- Part of offensive line that surrendered only one sack in 39 pass plays in NFC Wild Card Playoff Game at Minnesota (1-9-00). Also opened holes for Smith to rush for 99 yards, including a Dallas postseason record 65-yarder.

1998: (With Dallas)

- Penciled into left tackle position from day one of 1998 season after starting final three games of 1997 at left tackle.
- In his first full season guarding QB Troy Aikman's blindside, earned consensus ALL-PRO and ALL-NFC honors.

- Became just third player in league history to be selected to PRO BOWL at more than one offensive line position when peers voted him to NFC Pro Bowl squad at tackle.
- Earned recognition as vital cog in offensive line that allowed just 19 sacks for 110 yards in 493 pass plays for season—fewest in NFL.
- Blocking helped Smith to seven 100-yard rushing days and 1,332 yards.
- Debuted at new position in the season opener vs. Arizona (9-6) and helped Dallas gain 444 total yards (188 rushing)—both totals were highest since 1996.
- Helped lead way as two running backs topped 100-yard mark for just third time in club history at Washington (10-4), Smith finished with 120 yards and one touchdown while RB Chris Warren added 104 yards and two touchdowns.
- In November, faced four of NFC's top defensive ends in Hugh Douglas (fifth in NFC with 12.5 sacks in 1998), Chad Bratzke (ninth with 11.0), Simeon Rice (tied for 11th with 10.0) and John Randle (10th with 10.5). Streak started at Philadelphia (11-2) when he limited Douglas to one tackle and no sacks.
- Following week vs. New York Giants (11-8) and Bratzke, blocking helped Smith rush for 163 yards on 29 carries (5.6 avg.). Dallas offensive line allowed no sacks to Giants defense that led NFL in sacks in 1998.
- At Arizona (11-15), limited Rice to one tackle and was part of line that allowed no sacks to Cardinals defense. Plowed way for Smith's 118 rushing yards and three touchdowns.
- Seattle brought AFC's top sacking defense of 1998 (11-22) and came away with just one sack (on Aikman fumble), while Cowboys ran for 173 yards.
- Limited Randle to one tackle and no sacks in 81 offensive plays vs. Minnesota (11-26). Also helped set new club record for pass attempts in a game without a sack (57) and led way as Smith rushed for three touchdowns to tie Marcus Allen's NFL record of 123 career rushing scores.
- In the regular season finale against Washington (12-27), part of blocking unit that saw Smith run for two more touchdowns to break NFL's all-time rushing touchdown record.

1997: (With Dallas)

- Despite moving between guard and tackle during the season, was selected to his third straight PRO BOWL at guard and earned first-team ALL-PRO honors.
- Spent part of training camp working at left tackle and returned to right guard spot for first 13 games of season.
- Started third season at right guard at Pittsburgh (8-31) and helped Dallas gain 380 total yards, including 295 passing yards while not allowing a sack.
- Suffered a strained left hamstring in the second quarter in win over Philadelphia (9-15) and did not return to action.
- Returned to the starting lineup following the bye week vs. Chicago (9-28), but was forced out of game in second quarter without enough strength in left leg to block effectively.
- Back in starting lineup following week at New York Giants (10-5).
- Forced to slide out to left tackle after loss of Mark Tuinei at left tackle at Washington (10-13).
- Remained at left tackle in third down passing situations vs. Philadelphia (10-26) and Washington (11-16).

THE INTIMIDATOR

Michael Strahan once called Allen "the legalized killer" because of his size, athleticism and all-around nasty play. At the height of his dominance, other Cowboys chuckled when opposing defensive players came down with mysterious injuries before their meetings with Allen—a phenomenon known as "Allen-itis."

BAAS' NFL STATISTICS

GAMES/STARTS (Regular Season) - 2005 (13/5), 2006 (16/0); CAREER (Regular Season) - 29/5

READY OR NOT, HERE I COME

David came into the world with quite an entertaining birth tale. His unique labor took place in the parking lot of a bank near Tulsa, Oklahoma. In a dash to reach the hospital emergency room, David's parents had to come up with an alternate plan. Their son was ready to be delivered with no time to spare. The Baas' stopped in the bank parking lot and David's father had to deliver him in the family Datsun.

DOUBLE DUTY

Billy was a two-sport star at Westmoore High School in Oklahoma. While his efforts on the football field earned him a scholarship to Oklahoma State, Billy's talent on the baseball diamond was just as stellar. A flamethrower pitcher, Billy was regularly clocked with a fastball that zinged 90 miles per hour or more. He made the decision following high school graduation that football held a potentially brighter future than baseball and focused solely on his career as a tight end.

ROUGH RIDER

Tully has a love affair with classic cars that dates back to his days growing up in Mountain View, CA. When he was signed by the 49ers in the 2006 off-season, the linebacker was eager to bring his car collection back to the Bay Area and immediately entered four of them into a car show in Milpitas, CA. His latest purchase, a 1964 Deuce and Quarter (Buick Electra 225), is his prized possession. Nicknamed "Shrek", Banta-Cain has reupholstered the green machine's interior and added a state-of-the-art sound system.

CAREER: Extremely versatile athlete…Displays good quickness, size and power for a wide receiver…Former college quarterback is a tenacious down-field blocker…Has break-away acceleration upfield and possesses the elusiveness to make initial tacklers miss...Very intelligent, with an astute grasp of the playbook…Surpassed 2005 personal best performances by setting new CAREER-HIGHS in nearly every major offensive category in 2006…Also tied for seventh in the NFC with 23 catches on third down…Excelled and developed into the team's primary punt returner in 2004, including a CAREER-LONG 71-yard touchdown return vs. Arizona (10-10-04)…Played in only eight games in 2003 before being placed on injured reserve with toe injury.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a sixth round (197th pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2003.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006:

- Played in all 16 games and made 15 starts with the exception of the season finale at Denver, where the 49ers offense started in a two tight-end set.
- Saw most extensive time at wide receiver in 2006 and set CAREER-HIGHS in games started (15), receptions (59) and receiving yards (686). Tied 2005 mark of touchdown receptions (3).
- Finished second in receiving yards (686) and second in receptions (59). Also rushed five times for 25 yards and fielded six punts for 90 yards (15.0 avg.).
- Started at wide receiver at Arizona (9-10) and caught two passes for 17 yards and returned three punts for 71 yards. Marked first time he returned punts since the 2004 season at Arizona (12-12), when he had four returns for 34 yards.
- Started at wide receiver and hauled in three passes for 78 yards vs. St. Louis (9-17) while returning one punt for seven yards. One of his receptions was a 56-yard strike from QB Alex Smith on the 49ers' first possession, which set up a K Joe Nedney field goal.
- Started at wide receiver vs. Oakland (10-8) and caught four passes for 37 yards and two tough, short-yardage touchdowns. It was his FIRST CAREER MULTI-TOUCHDOWN receiving game.
- Paced the team in receiving with six catches for 55 yards while starting at wide receiver at Detroit (11-12). Also made a key block downfield that helped RB Frank Gore break a 61-yard touchdown run on the 49ers' first drive of the game. Five of six catches went for first downs, and four of those five came on a third down pass. Also broke a bone in his hand during the game. Awarded a game ball by Head Coach Mike Nolan.
- Led 49ers receivers with five receptions for 47 yards and a touchdown vs. Seattle (11-19) despite playing with a broken hand. Also had one carry on an end-around for 12 yards to open 49ers final drive of the first half. Marked second consecutive game he led the team in receptions, as well as his second in a row with five catches.
- Registered three receptions for 36 yards and returned two punts for 12 yards at St. Louis (11-26) after undergoing surgery to repair a broken bone in his left hand.

- Started at wide receiver at Seattle (12-14) and hauled in five receptions for a CAREER-HIGH 97 yards, and had one carry for CAREER-LONG 18 yards. His 54-yard reception at the end of the third quarter from the 49ers' 13-yard line helped spark the team's comeback as that drive eventually resulted in Smith's touchdown pass to TE Vernon Davis.
- Started at wide receiver vs. Arizona (12-24) and TIED CAREER-HIGH with seven receptions for 55 yards.
- Played but did not start in a two tight-end set at Denver (12-31) and led the team with four receptions for 56 yards. Also had one rush for four yards.

IN REMEMBRANCE

Arnaz's tough, hard-nosed play is described by some as competing with a chip on his shoulder. However, Arnaz would express it as playing with an angel instead of a chip in remembrance of his younger brother, Brandon. When Arnaz was nine years old, Brandon passed away in a tragic drowning accident. That memory is a moment from which Arnaz draws strength and inspiration. On his upper left arm appears a tattoo of his late brother's face that runs from the tip of his shoulder to his bicep. "Brandon will always be a part of me," Arnaz said.

LAYING THE WOOD

Colby is used to laying the wood on the field, but loves doing woodwork off the field. He received his bachelor's degrees in facilities management and would like to go into the construction business when his professional football career comes to a close. When he joined the NFL, Colby said he bought a saw and a few books and went to work to learn the craft of woodwork. The hobby helps relieve stress as he becomes immersed in creating unique items. Colby cites his favorite creations as two heartfelt gifts he gave to his daughter—a picnic table for Valentine's Day and a rocking horse.

TOUGH LOVE

Nate's disciplined approach, humble manner and self-motivation stems from a strong figure in his life, his father. Nate Sr. made sure that his young, talented son was focused solely on school and football so that he could achieve his dream of attending Ohio State on scholarship. Nate worked out at 6 a.m. before school started and during his junior and senior years at Shaker Heights High School in Ohio, stayed up until midnight to finish his homework and study for the SAT's after he finished football practice. Nate later became the first player inducted into his high school Hall of Fame and was a USA Today All-American at Ohio State. Nate Sr. has pushed him all the way, and still does today. After being voted to the Pro Bowl twice in the NFL, Nate Sr. told his son that while the All-Star game was an impressive achievement, maintaining consistency is how Nate would truly leave his mark in the league and eventually earn the ultimate – Pro Football Hall of Fame status.

DAHL'S NFL STATISTICS

SPIRIT OF A CHAMPION

Harvey was named as the recipient of the 2006 Thomas Herrion Award prior to the start of the 2006 season. The award is presented to a rookie or first-year player that best represents the Dream of Thomas Herrion. Harvey, like Thomas, took advantage of his opportunity to play in the NFL and with a positive attitude, spirit and ambition, turned his dream into a reality when he made last year's 53-man roster.

- Finished season with 20 catches for 265 yards (13.3 avg.) and three touchdowns. Also rushed two times for five yards.
- In his first regular season game and his FIRST CAREER START, caught CAREER-HIGH five passes for 37 yards and his FIRST CAREER TOUCHDOWN at Arizona (9-10). His 31-yard touchdown came on his first ever touch of the ball in the NFL, marking the second consecutive year that a 49ers rookie scored on his first touch (Otis Amey returned a punt for a touchdown in 2005 opening game against St. Louis).
- Saw action at tight end vs. Philadelphia (9-24), but did not start in the two tight-end blocking set. Left game with a strained calf and fractured fibula in third quarter and did not return.
- Inactive at Kansas City (10-1), vs. Oakland (10-8), vs. San Diego (10-15), at Chicago (10-29), vs. Minnesota (11-5) and at Detroit (11-12) while recovering from the cracked fibula suffered against Philadelphia.
- Played vs. Seattle (11-19) for the first time since cracking fibula in Week 3 against Philadelphia. Played five snaps on offense, but did not record a statistic.
- Started at tight end vs. Green Bay (12-10) and caught three passes for 74 yards and rushed one time for nine yards. Also snagged a CAREER-LONG 52-yard touchdown from QB Alex Smith in the fourth quarter.
- Started at tight end at Seattle (12-14) and made three receptions for 15 yards, including an eight-yard fourth-quarter touchdown, his second consecutive game with a touchdown reception.
- Started at tight end vs. Arizona (12-24) and caught four passes for a CAREER-HIGH 91 yards.
- Started in a two tight-end set at Denver (12-31) and finished with three receptions for 16 yards.

COLLEGE:

- Ran an astounding 4.38 in the 40-yard dash at the 2006 NFL Combine in Indianapolis.
- Lined up at fullback, H-back and flanker at Maryland.
- One of Maryland's finest and most complete athletes, boasting the second-best strength index (797) on the squad. Displayed excellent strength (460-pound bench press) and incredible leaping ability (40-inch vertical jump).
- An Iron Terp performer (top weight room award). Holds the school strength records for a tight end in bench (460), power clean (355), vertical jump (40 inches), index (797), squat (685) and 40-yard dash time (4.41), based on recordings in the spring of 2005.
- Earned consensus All-America honors as a junior, including accolades from the Associated Press, becoming the first Maryland offensive player since 1955 (center Bob Pellegrini) to be named to AP's first-team.
- Ranks 13th in school history with 93 receptions. His 1,371 yards receiving rank 11th in Maryland annals. His nine touchdown catches tied for ninth on the school's all-time record list.
- Consensus All-America and All-Atlantic Coast Conference first-team selection his junior season in 2005. Finalist for the Mackey Award, given to the nation's top tight end. Started every game, leading the team with 51 receptions and the conference with 871 receiving yards (17.1 avg.). Six touchdown catches rank tenth on the school's season-record list and 51 receptions also rank tenth on the Terrapins annual record chart while 871 yards rank fifth.
- Played in all 11 games his sophomore season. Finished second on the team with 27 catches and led Terrapins with 441 receiving yards and team-high three touchdowns. Ranked eighth in the ACC with 40.1 receiving yards per game.
- Saw the most consistent action of any true freshman, playing in all 13 contests. Snagged five receptions for 59 yards (11.8 avg.) and led the kickoff coverage unit with eight solo tackles.
- Majored in art studio.

PERSONAL:

- Born Vernon Davis (1-31-84) in Washington, D.C.
- Nickname "The Duke" originated from a name he inherited from his father who was called "Duke." Originally nicknamed "Little Duke." At Maryland, media added "The" and dropped "Little."
- Started three seasons at tight end and safety at Dunbar (Washington, D.C.) High School, but also saw time at wide receiver, kick returner, linebacker and defensive end during his tenure.
- Team compiled a 31-5 record during his time at Dunbar High School.
- Rated as the third-best tight end in the nation by ESPN.com's Tom Lemming and was a member of Super Prep's Elite 50. Mid-Atlantic All-Region pick by Super Prep and rated the third-best player (at any position) in the region.
- As a senior, was chosen second-team All-USA by USA Today. Caught 21 passes for 511 yards (24.3 avg.) and five touchdowns despite missing three games with a deep bone bruise below his knee. Also caught three two-point conversions and returned four kicks (two kickoffs and two punts) for touchdowns.
- Selected to play in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl as a junior.
- Was the DCIAA champion in the high jump with a leap of 6-5.
- Made his first $10,000 donation to Newborn Pentecostal in honor of his grandmother, Adaline, who raised Vernon and his six siblings. Pledged to make the donation annually to help the church refurbish and expand its building.

SMOCKS FOR JOCKS

Who said Athletes and the Arts don't mix? Vernon brought his football and artistic talents together when he took part in the NFL Players Association and NFL Retired Players Association's Smocks and Jocks event at Super Bowl XLI in South Florida. The annual event unites retired and active players of the NFL to auction off their own original artistic works for charity. Vernon entered a piece called "Kissing Him," which was displayed and auctioned at a jazz brunch in South Beach the Saturday before the Super Bowl. Vernon switched his original major in college, criminal justice, to art studio so he could pursue his passion of art. He has since showed the world a different side of pro football players.

LASTING IMPRESSION

In May of 2006, Trent financially contributed to a memorial fund that raised more than $800,000 to cover the cost of replacing the natural field turf at his former High School, Aptos High (CA). The memorial fund, and field, is named after his son, Trevin, who passed away 40 days after contracting a virus that attacked his heart at the age of five. The Pajaro Valley Unified School District board unanimously approved the name "Trevin Dilfer Memorial Field." The campaign benefited $50,000 from the first annual Trent Dilfer Invitational, a golf tournament hosted by Trent at Pasatiempo Golf Club.

WILD WEST

Over the past few years Patrick has taken up an interesting hobby. He participates in Cowboy Action Shooting which is a game of fantasy gun fighting during the time period of Wild Bill Hickock, Jesse James and Wyatt Earp. During the event, participants reenact themes from historical incidents and movie scenes. The firearms replicate those of the American Frontier during the span from 1860 to just after the turn of the century.

BAYOU CONNECTION

There must be something extraordinary in the water in Bogalusa, Louisiana that helped mold Ronald, and his cousin, Kenderick Allen, into the football powerhouses they've become today. The two were defensive tackles at Bogalusa High School and both went on to earn careers in the professional ranks. Kenderick played at LSU before going on to play for the Saints, Giants and Packers while Ronald, younger by three years, was drafted by the 49ers in the fifth round of the 2006 draft. The two hold a football camp together for youth in their hometown each summer.

REUNITED

Aubrayo had several options upon entering 2007 free agency, but the 49ers were the most enticing to him due in part to his connection with Head Coach Mike Nolan. "My decision was driven because of my relationship with Coach Nolan and the chance to play in a defense that I'm familiar with," said Franklin. "Coach Nolan was big for me my first couple of years in Baltimore. He kept motivating me to keep getting better." Nolan, who was the Ravens defensive coordinator when Baltimore drafted Aubrayo in the fifth round of the 2003 draft, believes Aubrayo fits the description of a prototypical nose tackle in a 3-4 defense. Aubrayo will also be reunited with former Raven and current 49ers defensive lineman Marques Douglas. "Marques helped me out my first year. He took me under his wing and showed me the ins and outs. It will be good to play with Marques again."

MR. GILMORE

When his NFL playing career is finished, Bryan plans to return to college to finish his degree in business administration/management. He hopes to combine his education, passion for teaching and mentoring youth as a high school finance teacher. And when he's not in the classroom, Bryan wants to share his success tips on life, and athletics, as a football and track coach.

RUNNING FOR MOM

Frank's determination to run over defenders comes from his tough upbringing in Miami, FL. Some considered his football career over when he suffered two serious knee injuries at the University of Miami. However, he relied on his mother Liz's strength to help him through. "She had been on dialysis (awaiting a kidney transplant) since I was in the 11th grade and raised three kids as a single woman, and now it became my time to support the family," Frank said. Her resilience and strength was finally answered in 2005, when she was finally able to have surgery. The procedure took place when Frank and the 49ers were in Mexico City playing Arizona. "It was really tough, that was the first time she went into the hospital with me not being around her. Not knowing if she was alright or not was the hardest part, but I know my mom is a tough woman."

THE "U"

Gore attended the University of Miami, which traditionally produces great NFL running backs. Before the 2006 season started, Gore was never in the conversation of who was the best running back from Miami. After the season, however, Gore was clearly the top of the class.

300 CLUB

Gore's 2006 season puts him in elite company among players with over 300 carries. Very few times has a player averaged as many yards per carry as Gore did while carrying the ball over 300 times. The players ahead of him are all Hall of Famers and feature three, 2,000-yard rushing seasons (a fourth ranks right behind him).

KINGPIN

Off the gridiron, many of the 49ers players have taken a strong interest in competitive bowling. Emerging as one of the team's hottest strikers is Roderick, who regularly bowls games of 200 and above. Equipped with his own bowling ball, bag and shoes, Roderick captured the team's most recently organized bowling outing in June and was the captain of his four-man team. Roderick's personal record in bowling is a whopping 235 score.

NO PAIN, NO GAIN

Parys' diligent work ethic was instilled at the age of 14. While growing up in Flora, Mississippi; his uncle and grandparents gave him an early introduction to life in the real world! He worked with his uncle at Sun Belt Bolts and Screws until he was 18 years old. After that, he labored in his grandfather's junk yard. Parys says his family helped instill the blue-collar foundation he leans on now as an NFL player. "You had to have a hard work ethic, because it was an eight-hour job in the hot Mississippi sun. Sometimes I didn't want to go, but my grandparents made me go because if I didn't work for what I wanted, they weren't going to give it to me." Those lessons taught Parys that good things don't come without hard work and perserverance.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS

Kwame took a longer road than most to get into the NFL. He was born in Jamaica on his grandparent's farm and at five, moved to New York and then to Delaware. He was introduced to football by his older brother, Duevorn. The move turned out to be advantageous for Kwame and his family. While Kwame was the 49ers first round draft choice in 2003, his younger brother, Orien, was drafted in the fourth round by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2006 and now plays for Cleveland. Kwame credits his parents for instilling a great work ethic in the boys.

FULL HOUSE

Walt's competitive streak can be traced back to his childhood, when he had to pull out all the stops to stand out from his 10 siblings. Walt was the youngest of 11, having six older brothers and four older sisters. Whether his speed accelerated from the mad race to the dinner table each night, or running from his older siblings, Walt stood out in both football and track at LaGrange (GA) High School and then set school records in college at Mississippi State.

ERIC HEITMANN

66 Guard/Center

Ht: 6-3, Wt: 318, Born: 2-24-80
College: Stanford
6th Year (D-7A in '02)
Games/Starts: 2006-14/14; Career-71/66; Postseason-2/2

CAREER: Experienced, smart and versatile player that has started in 66 of 71 career games…Tough performer that plays hard and has a natural feel for the game…Possesses tremendous power and uses his hands well to ward off defenders… Rarely is out of position and takes very good angles in the run game…Combines great quickness and strength with technique and awareness…Started 14 games at center in 2006 and was named 2006 BOBB MCKITRRICK AWARD WINNER given to the team's top offensive lineman as voted upon by his peers…Started all 16 games at left guard in 2004 and 10 games at right guard in 2005 before moving to center for the final six games of that season…After missing almost half of 2003 campaign with ankle injuries, returned healthy to a starting role at guard in 2004, where he didn't miss an offensive snap the entire season…In 2002, was first rookie to start a game on the offensive line since 1987, when Harris Barton started at right tackle…His quick and aggressive play was key factor in helping the 49ers become one of the top rushing offenses in the NFL.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a seventh round (239th pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2002…Was the first of two seventh-round selections.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006:

- Started at center for the first 14 games of the season. Suffered a broken leg in the first quarter at Seattle (12-14) and finished the season on injured reserve after undergoing surgery to repair the injury following the game. Was replaced at center by Tony Wragge.
- His blocking helped RB Frank Gore finish with a franchise-record of 1,695 rushing yards on a franchise-record 312 carries. Gore's total was first in the NFC.
- Played a key role in allowing Gore to run for another franchise-record of nine, 100-yard games.
- Named the BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD winner, presented annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication and commitment of former offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five-time Super Bowl Champion.
- Was part of an offensive line that received game balls from the coaching staff in victories vs. St. Louis (9-17) after not allowing a sack and at Detroit (11-12) after the team rushed for 198 yards.
- Helped Gore rush for a franchise single-game rushing record of 212 yards at Seattle (11-19).

2005:

- Started in all 16 games including 10 at right guard and six at center.
- Played center in preseason for injured Jeremy Newberry (knee) before moving back to right guard for the majority of 2005 campaign. Stepped in as a dependable anchor at starting center for the final six games when Newberry was placed on injured reserve (knee).
- Blocked for four different quarterbacks.

- Served as key cog in team's three offensive touchdowns in season-opening win vs. St. Louis (9-11) as starting right guard.
- Helped rushing attack produce 124 yards, surpassing 100-yard mark for first time of season vs. Dallas (9-25).
- Started at right guard at Arizona in Mexico City (10-2) and shifted to center in second half to relieve injured Newberry. Recovered fumble in first quarter to keep drive alive as 49ers led 14-0.
- Made key blocks in 49ers 140-yard rushing game at Washington (10-23) as Gore churned out 89 rushing yards (9.9 avg.) and 72-yard touchdown run.
- Part of 158 rushing-yard attack vs. Tampa Bay (10-30) as offensive line did not allow any sacks for first time since playing at Baltimore (11-30-03).
- Made first start at center in place of Newberry at Chicago (11-13) and was instrumental in 133-yard rushing performance while not allowing a sack from Bears defense.
- Moved back to starting right guard the following week vs. Seattle (11-20) and helped QB Ken Dorsey throw for 249 yards and a touchdown.
- Started at center at Tennessee (11-27) when Newberry was placed on injured reserve and stayed there remainder of season. Rookie David Baas shifted into Heitmann's post at right guard.

THE PIANO MAN

At the age of five, Eric's mother gave him a toy piano as a Christmas present. To her surprise, he played the small toy with both hands and like any nurturing mother; she bought him a life-sized piano the next week. By the time Eric was eight he could play Billy Joel's "We Didn't Start the Fire" and "Piano Man." At 11, he composed his first original piece while beginning to balance playing piano and football. In 2006, Eric visited Fantasy Studios in Berkeley to meet with renowned composer Gary Malkin. The day began with a tour of Fantasy Studios, including a stop into the recording studio where music and movie visuals come together on screen. As a "homework assignment", Eric was given a video for a commercial that Malkin scored which was played at the Summer Olympics. Eric in turn composed a musical score that fit the athletes and emotions in the piece.

REWRITING THE RECORD BOOKS

Maurice has set records all over the football map. On the college level, he set the NCAA Division I and II single-game rushing record with 437 yards on the ground on 34 carries vs. Morgan State as a senior at North Carolina A&T, breaking a 409-yard record previously set by Charles Roberts in 1999. During his second year in the NFL, Maurice picked up where he left off, rushing for 139 yards and a score in his first NFL start vs. Arizona (12-12-04). His 39 touches tied a 49ers single-game mark for most touches in a game. In 2006, Hicks set a 49ers franchise record for most kickoff return yards in a season with 1,428.

HOOK, LINE AND SINKER

Shaun loves to fish. The quarterback started reeling in fish that were inhabitants of farm ponds in his home state of Missouri during high school. When he lived in Minnesota as a member of the Vikings, Shaun caught a 30-inch, nine-pound walleye on his first try. He was able to lure the fish using a leech for bait 40-feet deep. Also in his fishing repertoire is a 48-inch musket.

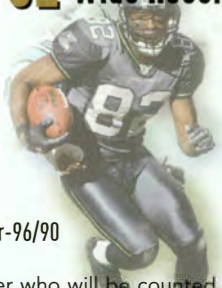
Fumble Recoveries - 1 vs. Seattle (11-19-06)

LOCKER ROOM CUT-UP

Marcus has a promising career ahead of him in the defensive secondary and on special teams. However, he helps his teammates in other interesting ways as well. He is the unofficial team barber and cuts most of his teammate's hair. The Miami, Florida native goes the entire way, complete with a barber's chair and cape for his customers.

DARRELL JACKSON

82 Wide Receiver



Ht: 6-0, Wt: 206, Born: 12-6-78
College: University of Florida
8th Year (Trade in '07)
Games/Starts: 2006-13/13; Career-96/90

CAREER: Crafty, experienced and athletic wide receiver who will be counted on to make an impact after joining San Francisco in a trade with NFC West rival Seattle…Has good short-area quickness and elusiveness in his releases off the line…Plays fast and can quickly close cushions against cornerbacks in off coverage…Excellent route runner that is quick out of his routes, has a good setup and plays with balance and control…Has solid hands and can adjust to catch outside his frame…Ranked fourth in Seattle history in catches (441), third in yards (6,445) and second in receiving touchdowns (47)…Finished fifth in Seattle history with 47 total touchdowns.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a third round (80th pick overall) draft choice by Seattle in 2000…Traded by Seattle to San Francisco for a 2007 fourth round draft pick on April 29, 2007.

PIT STOP

Darrell, a Floridian at heart, took an instant liking to car racing as the Daytona International Speedway was a Sunshine State staple. Darrell has attended multiple Daytona 500 and Pepsi 400 races at the speedway from the vantage points in both the stands and in the pits. When not breaking down NFL game film, Darrell can be found watching some of his favorite race car drivers, including Dale Earnhardt Jr., Michael Schumacher, Rusty Wallace and Jimmie Johnson, on his favorite channel – Speedvision.

FINDING A NICHE

Growing up on a farm outside of Tallahassee, Florida, Taylor didn't always have aspirations to play football. His father, Harry, who is a high school football coach and former standout running back at South Carolina State, influenced Taylor to take up the sport. As a youngster, Taylor excelled in soccer and baseball. When he got to the high school level, his father urged him to quit soccer and join the football team. Taylor followed his advice and gained All-America recognition at Florida A&M High School.

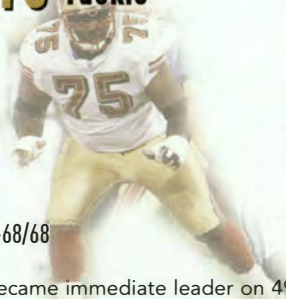
SCHOOL TIES

There's not a shy bone in Brian's body. The outgoing long snapper is one of the most sociable players in the 49ers locker room. And after attending 13 schools throughout his home state of Arizona, it's easy to see how Brian adopted his adaptive demeanor. He attended six pre-schools, five elementary schools, one middle school and finished his educational whirlwind tour at Red Mountain High School in Mesa, Arizona.

JONAS JENNINGS

75 Tackle



Ht: 6-3, Wt: 335, Born: 11-21-77
College: University of Georgia
7th Year (UFA in '05)
Games/Starts: 2006-13/13; Career-68/68

CAREER: First major free agent addition in 2005 who became immediate leader on 49ers offensive unit…Was named one of five permanent teams captains in 2006 after a vote by his teammates…After being limited to just three games in 2005 due to a shoulder injury, made a comeback in 2006 and played a key role, protecting QB Alex Smith's blind side…Marquee tackle who will serve as a main stay up front for the 49ers for years to come…Possesses skills of a tactical pass blocker as well as powerful run-blocker…Started in all 68 career games played.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a third round (95th pick overall) draft choice by Buffalo in 2001…Signed by San Francisco as an unrestricted free agent from Buffalo on March 3, 2005.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006: (With San Francisco)

- Started in 13 games, missing three contests due to injury.
- Named one of five permanent team captains in 2006 after a vote by his teammates, joining QB Alex Smith, CB Walt Harris, DT Bryant Young and S Keith Lewis.
- His blocking helped RB Frank Gore finish with a franchise record of 1,695 yards rushing on a franchise record 312 carries. Gore's total was first in the NFC.
- Played a key role in allowing Gore to run for a franchise record nine, 100-yard games.
- Missed game vs. St. Louis (9-17) with an ankle sprain suffered in the season-opener at Arizona (9-10) in the second quarter. Was replaced in the lineup against the Cardinals and against the Rams by Adam Snyder.
- Left game vs. Oakland (10-8) on the first drive with a sprained wrist that held him out of action the next week vs. San Diego (10-15). Replaced in both games by Snyder.
- In 49ers 20-14 win vs. Seattle (11-19), helped 49ers gain 262 yards on the ground, including a franchise record of 212 yards rushing by Gore. Gore, who earned a game ball for his efforts, in turn gave game balls to starting offensive linemen.
- Inactive for the season-ending game at Denver (12-31) due to a shoulder injury suffered vs. Arizona (12-24) and was once again replaced by Snyder.

2005: (With San Francisco)

- Started in first three games of season at left tackle before shoulder injury ended his season.
- Placed on injured reserve (11-9) after undergoing shoulder surgery.
- Started at right tackle in season opener vs. St. Louis (9-11) and helped team notch three offensive touchdowns in win.
- Started game at left tackle before being replaced by Patrick Estes in second quarter after taking hit to larynx at Philadelphia (9-18).
- Started at left tackle vs. Dallas (9-25) and helped offense rush for 124 yards, surpassing 100-yard mark for first time of season.

- Inactive at Arizona in Mexico City (10-2) with shoulder injury that was aggravated week before against Cowboys.
- Inactive vs. Indianapolis (10-9), at Washington (10-23), vs. Tampa Bay (10-30) and vs. New York Giants (11-6) due to shoulder injury.
- Underwent surgery to repair torn labrum and placed on injured reserve (11-9).

2004: (With Buffalo)

- Played and started in 14 games, manning the left tackle post.
- Started at left tackle vs. Jacksonville (9-12) and helped yield only one QB Drew Bledsoe sack.
- Started at left tackle vs. New England (10-3), but left the game with a concussion in the third quarter.
- Returned following week and started at left tackle at New York Jets (10-10).
- Inactive with ankle injury vs. Miami (10-17) and at Baltimore (10-24).
- Returned to the starting lineup vs. Arizona (10-31) and played a large role in allowing zero sacks for the first time since September 14, 2003. Paved the way for RB Willis McGahee's 102-yard rushing performance.
- Part of offensive line that allowed zero Bledsoe sacks for the second straight game vs. New York Jets (11-7). Also led the way for McGahee's 132-yard rushing performance.
- Started vs. St. Louis (11-21) and helped open holes for McGahee's 100 yards rushing.
- Started at left tackle at Seattle (11-28) and held Seahawks DE Grant Wistrom from recording a sack. Helped McGahee notch four rushing touchdowns; the most by a Bill since 1979. Left the game with an injured shoulder but later returned.
- Played through injury at Miami (12-5) and helped hold Dolphins DE Jason Taylor without a sack for second straight game.
- Led way for McGahee's sixth season 100-yard rushing performance vs. Cleveland (12-12).
- Played large role in the offensive line continuing its outstanding job protecting Bledsoe, as line only gave up one sack at San Francisco (12-26).

2003: (With Buffalo)

- Started first eight games of season at left tackle.
- Suffered hip flexor injury at Kansas City (10-26) and was de-activated next game at Dallas (11-9).
- Returned to play vs. Houston (11-16) and vs. Indianapolis (11-23) before suffering a toe injury at New York Giants (11-30).
- Placed on injured reserve with toe injury (12-3).

2002: (With Buffalo)

- After playing right tackle most of rookie season, moved to left tackle for second season and started 15 games at that spot.
- Served as a valuable member of an offensive line that did the job up front while Bledsoe set 10 team passing records, RB Travis Henry ran for fifth-highest single-season total in team history and WR Eric Moulds set franchise marks for catches in a season and had fifth-best receiving yardage year in Bills' annals.
- Left game late in fourth quarter at New England (12-8) with a leg injury and sat out the following week vs. San Diego (12-15) – the only game he missed in 2002.

2001: (With Buffalo)

- Enjoyed a solid rookie season in the NFL, starting all 12 games played. Started 10 games at right tackle and two at left tackle. Did not allow a sack all season.
- Made NFL regular season debut vs. New Orleans (9-9).

- Inactive with injured leg vs. Pittsburgh (9-30).
- Started in win at Jacksonville (10-18), but suffered sprained foot in first quarter and missed remainder of game.
- Inactive at San Diego (10-28) and vs. Indianapolis (11-4) due to sprained foot.
- Started at left tackle at New England (11-11) in first game back after foot injury.
- Started at left tackle, but left in the first half with injured foot vs. Seattle (11-18).
- Inactive vs. Miami (11-25) with foot injury.
- Returned to start at right tackle at San Francisco (12-2).
- Part of 310-yard offensive performance vs. New Orleans (12-16).

THE RECRUITER

Takeo Spikes, Larry Allen, Richard Seymour. It's not a past Pro Bowl roster, but a list of players that Jonas has recruited to play with him in various stops. At the University of Georgia, the offensive tackle played host to future NFL players Richard Seymour (New England) and Charles Grant (New Orleans). In Buffalo, he was also instrumental in recruiting good friend, Takeo Spikes. Although he's only been in San Francisco for two seasons, Jonas was the "go to guy" to pitch the 49ers to potential free agents during their visits. He hosted G Larry Allen in the 2006 off-season and also spent time with CB Walt Harris before each signed with the 49ers.

MANNY LAWSON

99 Linebacker

Ht: 6-5, Wt: 247, Born: 7-3-84
College: North Carolina State
2nd Year (D-1B in '06)
Games/Starts: 2006-16/11; Career-16/11

CAREER: Widely considered one of the finest athletes to ever play at North Carolina State…Made the switch from a college defensive end to an outside linebacker in his first NFL season…Had a breakout game in the 49ers 20-13 win vs. St. Louis (9-17-06) when he recorded two sacks and two quarterback pressures…Was named Diet Pepsi DEFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE WEEK for his performance…Ranks second on the N.C. State's all-time record list with seven blocked kicks and fourth with 20.5 sacks for minus-163 yards...Teamed with left defensive end Mario Williams, the first pick in the 2006 draft by Houston, in college to form the premier pass rushing tandem in college football…Duo would combine to sack quarterbacks a total of 39 times during their last two years.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a first round (22nd pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2006…Was the second of two first-round picks.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006:

- Started 11 games after 49ers made him their second selection in the first round of the 2006 NFL Draft. Missed five starts due to the team opening in different defensive alignments.
- Finished with 65 total tackles (42 solos), one interception, 2.5 sacks, two fumble recoveries and one blocked punt.
- In first home game vs. St. Louis (9-17), posted two sacks, including FIRST CAREER SACK as part of a defense that recorded six total sacks in 49ers 20-13 victory. Voted Week 2 Diet Pepsi NFL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE WEEK. One of his sacks came on a two-yard drop of QB Marc Bulger in the first quarter and the second came on a 12-yard sack of Bulger in the third quarter.

- Registered 49ers' only blocked punt of the season, and the FIRST NFL BLOCKED PUNT of the season in the 49ers 34-20 win vs. Oakland (10-8). Marked 49ers first blocked punt since S Keith Lewis blocked a punt vs. Arizona (12-5-05). Named honorable mention NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for Week 5. The blocked punt early in the third quarter allowed the 49ers to start at the Oakland nine-yard line to help set up QB Alex Smith's six-yard touchdown pass to WR Arnaz Battle. Lawson's deflected pass in the fourth quarter was intercepted by CB Walt Harris.
- Notched a CAREER-HIGH eight tackles (six solo) at Chicago (10-29).
- Recovered a fumble off a QB Brad Johnson sack to help position the 49ers for a K Joe Nedney field goal in 9-3 victory vs. Minnesota (11-5).
- Recovered a fumble that was caused when Harris hit WR Roy Williams at Detroit (11-12).
- Grabbed FIRST CAREER INTERCEPTION at St. Louis (11-26), picking off a QB Marc Bulger pass that was intended for WR Torry Holt.
- Combined with DT Bryant Young for a sack in the 49ers 24-14 victory at Seattle (12-14). The shared sack came in the fourth quarter when Seattle was in their hurry-up offense.

COLLEGE:

- Ranks second on N.C. State's all-time record list with seven blocked kicks and fourth with 20.5 sacks for minus-163 yards.

ACADEMICS FIRST

When the 49ers drafted Manny, they received a player that not only had ideal physical attributes, but one who also possessed an impressive mental capacity. Manny, whose father was in the Air Force and mother was a residential nurse, was taught the values of discipline at an early age. Academics always came first and athletics were just for fun. Anything below a B+ was not satisfactory to his parents. Fast forward a few years and the early lessons paid off as Manny graduated with a degree in industrial engineering from North Carolina State. He then went on to score a 43 out of 50 on the Wonderlic test, which tied for the highest of his draft class.

College: University of Pittsburgh
4th Year (D-6A in '04)
Games/Starts: 2006-16/0; Career-48/0

CAREER: Held onto the 49ers punting duties for the third consecutive season….After competing with NFL veteran punter Tom Rouen in the 2006 training camp, Lee responded with a stellar season, setting CAREER HIGHS in punting average (44.8) and net punting average (36.8), and punted for over 3,500 yards for the third time in his career….Boomed 81-yard punt against Tampa Bay (11-21-04), the fourth-longest punt in team history and the longest punt in the NFL in 2004…Was the first San Francisco rookie punter since 1957 to lead the league for the longest punt of the year…Also used as the holder for all field goals and extra points.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a sixth round (188th pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2004…Was the first of two sixth-round picks.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006:

- Punted in all 16 games, finishing with 81 punts for 3,625 yards with nine touchbacks, 22 punts inside the 20-yard line and a net average of 36.8.
- Added two special teams tackles.
- Served as K Joe Nedney's holder on all field goals and extra points.
- Set CAREER-HIGHS with a 44.8-yard gross average and a 36.8 net average.
- Finished seventh in the NFL with 36.8 net yards. His 44.8 gross average is the team's highest since P Tommy Davis averaged 45.6 in 1964.
- Kicked six punts for 291 yards vs. Minnesota (11-5), averaging 48.5 yards per punt. Previous best average was 48.3 yards vs. Tampa Bay in 2004 (11-21). Longest punt of the day vs. Vikings went 54 yards.
- Awarded a game ball for his efforts in the 20-14 victory vs. Seattle (11-19) when he landed two punts inside the 20-yard line to help the 49ers win the battle of field position.
- Posted a new CAREER-HIGH for punting average when he grossed 51.5 yards per punt at St. Louis (11-26). Also had a season-long punt of 66 yards in the Rams game.
- Kicked seven punts for a season-high 352 yards at New Orleans (12-3). Saints were limited to 5.3-yard average per return.

GRAND ENTRANCE

Andy never attended an NFL game growing up in South Carolina. Even when he went on to become a standout punter on the collegiate level at the University of Pittsburgh, he was still a stranger to live NFL action. The first professional game he ever attended was as a player with the 49ers in 2004. And his first NFL season was memorable after sailing the fourth-longest punt (81 yards) in team history.

CAREER: Has emerged as one of the top big-play receivers in the NFL with 59 career receptions over 20 yards and 20 receptions over 40 yards…Enters 2007 leading the league in yards-per-reception average (17.5 avg.) since his rookie year in 2002…Owned the NFL's highest yards-per-reception average in 2005 (18.3) and 2004 (20.1)…Eclipsed the 1,000-yard receiving mark for the first time in his career (1,084 yds.) in 2004…Caught a CAREER-HIGH 54 passes in 2004, an improvement of 17 catches from the previous season, as a key member of the AFC's No.3 pass offense (No. 6 in NFL)…Ranked second in the AFC (4th in NFL) with a 17.0 yards-per-reception average in 2003…Has recorded five career 100-yard receiving games (1 in 2002, 2 in 2003, 1 in 2004 and 1 in 2005)…Enjoyed a solid rookie year in 2002, posting 35 receptions for the most catches by a Broncos rookie since RB Terrell Davis' 49 catches in1995…Finished his career at the University of Hawaii as the school's all-time leader in receptions (194), receiving yards (3,341) and touchdown receptions (32).

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a first round (19th pick overall) draft choice by Denver in 2002…Traded by Denver to Atlanta on August 23, 2006 in a three-way trade, which Atlanta sent RB T.J. Duckett to the Washington Redskins, who then sent a 2007 undisclosed draft pick to Denver, who in turn sent Ashley Lelie to Atlanta…Signed by San Francisco as a free agent on March 5, 2007.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006: (With Atlanta)

- Joined Atlanta through a trade midway through training camp.
- Started in 10 of 15 games played, missing the season finale at Philadelphia (12-31) due to a shoulder injury suffered vs. Carolina (12-24).
- Finished the season with 28 receptions for 430 yards (15.4 avg.) and one touchdown.
- Recorded a season-high 61 yards receiving, including a 51-yard catch vs. Arizona (10-1).
- Caught a season-high four passes for 58 yards (14.5 avg.) in the Falcons 41-38 victory vs. Pittsburgh (10-22).
- Started at wide receiver and posted three catches for 55 yards (18.3 avg.) in the 29-27 win at Cincinnati (10-29).
- Posted two receptions for 17 yards with one touchdown vs. Dallas (12-16).

2005: (With Denver)

- Played in 16 games with 13 starts.
- Ranked second on the Broncos with 42 catches for 770 yards (18.3 avg.) with one touchdown.
- His 18.3 yards-per-reception average led the NFL for the second consecutive season.
- Totaled one 100-yard receiving game (110 yards. vs. Oakland, 12-24), while also adding five rushes for 84 yards (16.8 avg.). Established CAREER-HIGHS in single-season rushing yards (84), single-game rushing yards (56), longest rush (39), postseason single-game receptions (5) and postseason single-game receiving yards (68) during the season.

- Recorded his only 100-yard game of the season vs. Oakland (12-24), matching his season-high six catches and totaling 110 yards (18.3 avg.) against the Raiders.
- Posted seven catches for 118 yards (16.9 avg.) and his first postseason touchdown, while playing both playoff games with one start.
- In an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. New England (1-14-06), caught postseason-high five passes for 50 yards and drew a pass interference call on Patriots CB Asante Samuel in the end zone, moving the drive 39 yards to set up a Denver touchdown.
- In the AFC Championship Game vs. Pittsburgh (1-22), made two catches for a post-season-high 68 yards and his FIRST PLAYOFF TOUCHDOWN.

2004: (With Denver)

- Led the NFL in yards-per-reception average (20.1 avg.) and started all 16 regular-season games for the Broncos. His yards-per-reception average was the franchise's highest total in 17 years and fifth-best all-time.
- Eclipsed the 1,000-yard receiving mark for the first time in his career, posting 1,084 yards on 54 receptions to rank second on the Broncos in both categories. All seven of his touchdown receptions were longer than 30 yards (38, 37, 40, 35, 31, 39 and 33 yds.) as he led the NFL in that statistic.
- Additionally, seven touchdown receptions of 30 yards or more ranked as the second-highest single-season total in franchise history (Anthony Miller had 10 in 1995).
- Pulled down a spectacular 33-yard touchdown grab, which proved to be the game-winner, over the head of Chargers CB Quentin Jammer on fourth-and-9 in the third quarter vs. San Diego (9-26) as part of a four-catch, 67-yard (16.8 avg.) effort.
- On third down in the fourth quarter vs. Carolina (10-10) with the Broncos trailing by four points, made a 39-yard, over-the-shoulder, touchdown catch in the corner of the end zone that proved to be the game winner as he totaled 52 yards on two catches (26.0 avg.) in the game.
- Posted the fourth 100-yard receiving game of his career and first in 2004 at San Diego (12-5) with 105 yards on four catches (26.3 avg.).
- Caught FRANCHISE-RECORD seventh touchdown of 30+ yards vs. Indianapolis (1-2-05) with a 38-yard scoring grab in a three-catch, 70-yard (23.3 avg.) effort in the Broncos' regular-season finale.
- Recorded two receptions for 27 yards (13.5 avg.) at Indianapolis (1-9-05) in Denver's AFC Wild Card Game.

2003: (With Denver)

- Saw action in all 16 regular-season games with 10 starts.
- Caught 37 passes for 628 yards (17.0 avg.) with two touchdowns. Also rushed eight times for 43 yards (5.4 avg.).
- His yards-per-reception average of 17.0 ranked second in the AFC (4th in NFL).
- Started home opener vs. Oakland (9-22) when the Broncos came out in a three-receiver set and registered three catches for 108 yards (36.0 avg.) with a 44-yard touchdown reception, while rushing twice for nine yards.
- Tallied the third 100-yard receiving game of his career with five receptions for a CAREER-HIGH 115 yards (23.0 avg.) at Indianapolis, (12-21), including a CAREER-LONG 60-yard catch.
- Started and caught one pass for seven yards in the Broncos' AFC Wild Card Game at Indianapolis (1-4-04).

2002: (With Denver)

- Played in all 16 games with one start and caught 35 passes for 525 yards with two touchdowns while also rushing four times for 40 yards (10.0 avg.). His 15.0 yards-per-reception average led the team, and he led all AFC rookies in receiving yards (4th in NFL) and ranked third among AFC rookies (6th in NFL) in receptions.
- His 35 catches were the most by a Broncos rookie since RB Terrell Davis caught 49 passes out of the backfield in 1995.
- Recorded first NFL catch for 11 yards on a crucial third-down play in the fourth quarter at San Francisco (9-15).
- Made his FIRST NFL START vs. Buffalo (9-22) in a three wide-receiver set.
- Caught his FIRST NFL TOUCHDOWN at New York Jets (12-8) on a 10-yard pass from QB Brian Griese just before halftime and finished the game with three catches for 38 yards (12.7 avg.).
- Recorded four receptions for a then career-high 106 yards (26.5 avg.) at Oakland (12-22), including a then career-best 48-yard catch, for the FIRST CAREER 100-YARD GAME.

COLLEGE:

- Finished career at the University of Hawaii as its all-time leader in receptions (194), receiving yards (3,341) and touchdown receptions (32), while averaging an impressive 17.2 yards per catch.
- Was a first-team All-Western Athletic Conference selection as a junior in 2001, his final year at the school, and broke the WAC single season records for receiving yards (1,713) and touchdowns (19) while also tying the WAC record for most 200-yard games in a season (three). Ranked first in the conference and second in the nation in yards per game (142.8 avg.) and ranked third in the WAC and ninth in the nation in receptions per game (7.0 avg.). Teamed with WR Channon Harris to create a duo that averaged 12.75 receptions per game in 2001, forming the sixth best combo in the nation.
- As a sophomore, started every game and finished third in the WAC in catches per game (6.17 avg.) and third in receiving yards per game (92.5 avg.). Led Hawaii in catches (74), receiving yards (1,110), touchdowns (11), all-purpose yards (92.5 avg.) and scoring (66 pts.) while gaining more than 100 yards receiving in three games and adding three games with at least two touchdown catches.
- Played every game as a redshirt freshman in 1999, starting seven at the "Z" receiver slot and ranking fourth on the team with 36 catches for 518 yards (14.4 avg.) with two touchdowns.

PERSONAL:

- Born Ashley Jovon Lelie (2-16-80), in Bellflower, CA.
- Lettered in football, track and basketball at Radford High School (Honolulu, HI), where he was selected to both the all-district and all-state teams in football and was an all-district choice in basketball and an all-league selection in track.
- Was an honor roll student at Radford.
- Donated $26,000 to Radford's athletic program to build a dual scoreboard for the Rams' football and baseball fields in 2005. His No. 20 football jersey was also retired at the school that same year.
- Hosted a youth football clinic at the Broncos' training facility in December of 2005 in which he and several of his teammates instruct kids through several receiver drills.

NEVER QUIT

Ashley had serious doubts about pursuing football at the collegiate and professional levels. His freshman coach in high school cut Ashley for being too skinny. The next year, his family moved from California to Hawaii during the football season, so again he sat out. His first year in organized football was as a high school junior, when he was part of an offense that rarely threw the ball. When it came to his senior year, the only interest he received was from Oregon and Hawaii, with the latter offering Ashley to join the team as a walk-on. Ashley decided to quit momentarily, but his father urged him to give football at Hawaii a try, which ended up being one of the best pieces of advice he had ever received.

KEITH LEWIS

28 Safety

Ht: 6-0, Wt: 228, Born: 10-20-81
College: University of Oregon
4th Year (D-6B in '04)
Games/Starts: 2006-16/9; Career-48/13

CAREER: Hard hitting safety who turned his special teams prowess into a starting spot in the secondary in 2006 when he took over at free safety midway through the season…After NFL recognition for his stellar play on special teams through his first two seasons in 2004 and 2005, he was voted by his teammates as the special teams captain, joining offensive captains QB Alex Smith and T Jonas Jennings and defensive captains DT Bryant Young and CB Walt Harris…Named to USA Today's All-Joe Team for his play on special teams in 2005...Named to PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team as a Special Teams Player in 2004…Plays with intensity and confidence that motivates those around him to play at higher level.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a sixth-round (198th pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2004...Was the second of two sixth-round selections.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006:

- Played in all 16 games with nine starts at free safety.
- Finished the season with 72 total tackles (55 solos), two interceptions, six passes defensed, one sack, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and 16 special teams tackles.
- Set CAREER-HIGHS with the nine starting assignments, 72 total tackles, and two interceptions.
- Named one of five permanent captains prior to the Oakland game (10-8), along with QB Alex Smith, T Jonas Jennings, CB Walt Harris, and DT Bryant Young.
- Inserted into the starting lineup at free safety before the 49ers played vs. Minnesota (11-5) and responded by making game-changing plays over the course of the season.
- Created two turnovers at Detroit (11-12) by forcing a fumble and intercepting a pass on the final play of the game when Lions QB Jon Kitna made an attempt for the end zone. Pick secured the 49ers 19-13 victory. Forced fumble came on a tackle of RB Kevin Jones in the first quarter. It was recovered by S Mark Roman, and would result in a K Joe Nedney field goal. Was awarded game ball with entire defense by Head Coach Mike Nolan.
- Made four tackles, broke up two passes, recovered a fumble and intercepted a pass in the 49ers 20-14 victory vs. Seattle (11-19). The interception came on Seattle's first drive of the game, and was picked off on the 49ers eight-yard line. It would result in a 39-yard field goal. Recovered the fumble later in the second quarter after Roman forced the ball loose from TE Jerramy Stevens. Returned it 23 yards to set up a field goal. Also had three special teams tackles.
- Led defense with 11 tackles (eight solo) at St. Louis (11-26).
- Posted his FIRST CAREER SACK at New Orleans (12-3) when he forced QB Drew Brees to run out of bounds in the third quarter.
- Paced defense with 10 stops (eight solo) vs. Green Bay (12-10).
- Recorded CAREER-HIGH 12 total tackles (eight solo) vs. Arizona (12-24).

2005:

- Played in all 16 games with four starts at free safety final four games of season as a valuable reserve for injured S Mike Adams (knee sprain) and S Tony Parrish (leg).
- Amassed 23 total tackles (18 solo) and notched FIRST CAREER INTERCEPTION for two yards vs. Arizona (12-4).
- Ranked sixth on special teams with 11 total tackles. Added second career blocked punt vs. Arizona (12-4).
- Named to USA Today's All-Joe team as special teams player, honoring players who did not receive Pro Bowl invitations, but who were invaluable contributors to their teams.
- Finished with two special teams tackles as part of unit that allowed only 69 return yards from two punts and four kickoffs vs. St. Louis (9-11).
- Served as valuable reserve at Washington (10-23) to back up injured S Mike Rumph (foot), CB Derrick Johnson (groin) and CB Willie Middlebrooks (groin). Finished with two solo tackles on defense and one special teams stop.
- Notched two special teams tackles vs. New York Giants (11-6).
- Saw significant action on defense at Chicago (11-13), replacing SS Tony Parrish who suffered fractured fibula in first quarter. Credited with four tackles (three solo) on defense.
- Made game-changing play vs. Arizona (12-4) after blocking second career punt in third quarter to set up K Joe Nedney's 48-yard field goal. Also had landmark day after making FIRST CAREER INTERCEPTION on a pass from QB Kurt Warner intended for WR Larry Fitzgerald in fourth quarter. Returned two yards. Became first NFL player to have blocked punt and interception in same game since Baltimore's Ed Reed at Arizona (10-12-03). Also had two special teams tackles.
- Made FIRST NFL START at free safety at Seattle (12-11) in place of FS Mike Adams who suffered knee sprain vs. Arizona (12-4). Recorded CAREER-HIGH seven tackles (six solo).
- Started at free safety in place of Adams (knee) at Jacksonville (12-18) and had five tackles (four solo) on defense.
- Started at free safety at St. Louis (12-24) and finished with three solo tackles, one pass defensed and one tackle for loss.
- Had productive day vs. Houston (1-1) as starting free safety as he finished with two assisted defensive tackles and made key block in third quarter on Texans WR Donovan Morgan to help open lane for teammate Adams to return a Tony Banks theft for a touchdown.

2004:

- Appeared in all 16 games, finishing the season with two assisted tackles on defense and one forced fumble.
- Key cog on special teams unit as he tied for second on team with 17 special teams tackles and had one blocked punt, a forced fumble and fumble recovery.
- First 49ers player in history to block a punt, force a fumble and recover a fumble in the same season.
- Named to PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team as a Special Teams Player.
- Tallied three special teams tackles (one solo) at New Orleans (9-19).
- Posted four special teams tackles (three solo) vs. Carolina (11-14).
- Registered one assisted tackle on defense at Tampa Bay (11-21). Also had two solo special teams tackles and forced WR Joey Galloway to fumble on 49ers first punt of the game.
- Had one fumble recovery on special teams at Arizona (12-12) after Cardinals return man Karl Williams muffed 49er P Andy Lee's 44-yard punt on the 49ers first possession of the game.

- Posted one solo special teams tackle vs. Washington (12-18) and blocked a P Tom Tupa punt in the second quarter at the Redskins 10-yard line. Loose ball was recovered and kicked out of the end zone for a safety by Tupa.
- Saw action at safety vs. Buffalo (12-26).

COLLEGE:

- Started 37-of-49 career games, recording 277 tackles (163 solo) with two sacks (10.0 yards) and 13 tackles for loss (43 yards) at Oregon.

ON THE ROPES

Marcus has unusual plans when his NFL career ends. He hopes to get roped into another athletic endeavor—the California native would like to own a ranch and become a calf roper. Marcus said he appreciates the talent and hand-eye coordination involved in the tough job and has the ultimate respect for the "amazing athletes that participate in the sport." Marcus caught the "roping bug" as a frequent visitor to his girlfriend's ranch in Dixon, CA and has attended several Black Rodeo events in the Castro Valley over the past five years.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006:

- Played in 16 games with 11 starts and finished with a team-leading and CAREER-HIGH 114 total tackles (67 solos) and CAREER-HIGH 6.5 sacks. Also added a CAREER-HIGH four forced fumbles and one special teams tackle.
- Led the 49ers with 6.5 sacks, good for fourth among linebackers in the NFC in 2006. The 6.5 sacks ranked fourth among linebackers in 49ers history.
- Named the MATT HAZELTINE AWARD WINNER, given each year to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player.
- Began the season as a backup at linebacker, but did start at outside linebacker vs. Philadelphia (9-24) and at Kansas City (10-1) when the 49ers began the game in a 3-4 defense.
- Entered the starting lineup at middle linebacker in place of Jeff Ulbrich vs. Minnesota (11-5) and responded by leading the team with 15 tackles (eight solo), while causing two fumbles and recording a sack in the 49ers 9-3 victory. Named the NFC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK, his first such honor. His sack of QB Brad Johnson in the fourth quarter forced a fumble that was recovered by LB Manny Lawson to set up a K Joe Nedney field goal. Awarded a game ball and named Defensive MVP by Head Coach Mike Nolan.
- Had another outstanding game at Detroit (11-12) in the 49ers 19-13 victory with a team-leading 11 total tackles, two sacks, one passed defensed and two quarterback pressures. Sacked QB Jon Kitna in the fourth quarter inside the red zone, on the Lions' final drive of the game. The 10-yard loss eventually led to S Keith Lewis' interception on fourth down. It was the second two-sack game of Moore's career. Had his first two-sack game vs. Arizona (12-4-05). The entire defense received a game ball by Head Coach Mike Nolan.
- Had 11 tackles vs. Green Bay (12-10) and made one sack on the final play of the first half.

START SPREADING THE NEWS

Brandon's trip back to his Long Island, New York high school alma mater on February 13, 2005 was one that the Baldwin Bruin's football team will never forget. His former squad cruised to a 10-1 season topped with a Nassau Conference I football championship. Brandon presented the team and coaches with 56 championship rings that he purchased on his own. The group celebrated the program's first title since 1953. For his achievements as one of Long Island's finest football players, and for his gracious gesture, Baldwin retired Brandon's No. 6 jersey with a prominent display on the gym wall.

ELITE IN EVERY WAY

Hannibal launched the Hannibal Navies Foundation three years ago to initiate change in the social and academic development of San Francisco/Oakland Bay Area student-athletes. The organization is dedicated to preparing inner-city students for post secondary success. This year, Hannibal and his Foundation will launch the E-L-I-T-E Athlete program to promote education, leadership, integrity, teamwork, and excellence in student-athletes. The life skills will be taught in workshops and one-on-one sessions designed to prepare them for college and adulthood, as well as increase retention and completion rates among athletes who are first-generation college students.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006: (With San Francisco)

- Played in all 16 games and totaled 116 points for the season (29-35 FG, 29-29 XP), which is the second best total of his career. His highest scoring season came in 2000, when he produced 126 total points. The 116 points is tied for the eighth best total in 49ers history, and the highest total since Gary Anderson had 125 points 1997.
- His 29 field goals are tied with Gary Anderson (1997) and Mike Cofer (1989) for second in team history, behind the 30 by Jeff Wilkins in 1996. The 29 field goals are second to the 34 Nedney had in 2000 when he played for Carolina and Denver.
- Also added two special teams tackles.
- Converted successful onsides kick attempts at Arizona (9-10), vs. Minnesota (11-5) and at New Orleans (12-3).

- Twice kicked four field goals in a game in 2006: vs. Minnesota (11-5) and in the season finale at Denver (12-31).
- Closed out the season by connecting on 11 consecutive field goal attempts. Final attempt was on the 49ers' final play of the 2006 season, as he hit a 36-yard field goal in overtime at Denver (12-31) to seal the victory. It was Nedney's 16th game-winning field goal of his career and his fourth as a member of the 49ers.
- Responsible for all nine of the 49ers points in a 9-3 win vs. Minnesota (11-5) connecting on field goals of 25, 30 and 51 yards. His 51-yarder was his longest of the year. For his efforts, Nedney received a game ball and was named Special Teams MVP by Head Coach Mike Nolan. Also was named honorable mention NFC Special Teams Player of the Week.
- Converted all four of his field goal attempts from 28, 23, 23 and 47 yards away in a 19-13 win at Detroit (11-12). Awarded a game ball for his efforts and named Special Teams MVP.
- Connected on all four field goal attempts, including a game-winning 36-yard field goal in overtime, in a 26-23 win at Denver (12-31). Including his two extra points, accounted for a season-high 14 points. Awarded a game ball and named Special Teams MVP by the coaching staff for his performance.

2005: (With San Francisco)

- Played in 15 games and was sidelined for one (at Tennessee, 11-27) with a hip and groin injury suffered in practice.
- Led 49ers with 97 points scored.
- Split the uprights on 26-of-28 field goal attempts, including 10-of-10 from 40-49 yards out. Finished with CLUB-RECORD 92.9 percent in field goals.
- Connected on 2-of-3 from 50-plus yards, including CAREER-HIGH 56-yarder at St. Louis (12-24) to tie 49ers club record.
- Finished perfect on extra points, hitting 19-of-19 PATs.
- Successful on 2-of-4 onside kick attempts including one in opening game vs. St. Louis (9-11) and was successful on 1-of-2 attempts vs. Indianapolis (10-9). Was unsuccessful on fourth-quarter attempt vs. Seattle (11-20).
- Kicked three or more field goals four times, tying 2002 mark with Tennessee. Kicked three or more field goals in seven games with Denver and Carolina in 2000.
- Voted by coaches as co-recipient of 49ers BILL WALSH AWARD, along with LB Derek Smith, given to team's most valuable player.
- Named to USA Today's All-Joe Team, recognizing players that did not receive Pro Bowl invitations but who were invaluable contributors to their team.
- Beginning with PAT in Week 7 at Washington (10-23), scored 43 straight points for 49ers until WR Brandon Lloyd scored on 22-yard reception from QB Ken Dorsey in fourth quarter vs. Seattle (11-20) in Week 11. Most consecutive points by one NFL player since K Matt Stover had 49 consecutive for Baltimore in 2000.
- Set CAREER-HIGH with five field goals as sole scorer in 15-10 win vs. Tampa Bay (10-30). Hit from 45, 47, 41, 46 and 28 yards. Marked most ever in a single game from 40-49 yards. Performance earned NFC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK. Five field goals was one shy of team record for most field goals in single game (6 – Jeff Wilkins vs. Atlanta (9-29-96) and Ray Wersching at New Orleans (10-16-83)). Marked 13th time to kick game-winning field goal.
- Kicked 52-yard field goal vs. New York Giants (11-6). Also hit a 48-yard field goal.
- Finished 3-of-4 as only 49er to score at Chicago (11-13), hitting from 30, 34 and 29 yards in game marked by 47-mph wind gusts. 52-yard miss as time expired in first half was caught in end zone by Bears CB Nathan Vasher and returned 108 yards for touchdown, setting NFL record for longest play in League history.
- Played in 100th career game at Seattle (12-11).

- Inactive at Tennessee (11-27) with groin injury that was aggravated during practice. Was replaced for the week by Jose Cortez.
- Tied 49ers record for longest field goal and set CAREER-HIGH with 56-yard field goal at St. Louis (12-24) to bring 49ers within three points in fourth quarter. Tied club record with Mike Cofer's 56-yarder at Atlanta (10-14-90). Previous career-high were 53-yarders at Detroit (11-1-98) as an Arizona Cardinal and at Dallas (9-15-02) as a Tennessee Titan.
- Nailed 14th career game-winning field goal in overtime to give 49ers 20-17 win vs. Houston (1-1-06) in season finale.

2004: (With Tennessee)

- Placed on injured reserve (9-8) after injuring hamstring in practice just one day earlier.

2003: (With Tennessee)

- Connected on 8-of-10 field goal attempts and nine extra point attempts in four pre-season games.
- Second quarter 50-yard field goal gave Tennessee a 9-3 lead in season opener against Oakland (9-7) before suffering a torn right ACL while attempting a tackle on ensuing kickoff.
- Missed remainder of season after he was placed on injured reserve (9-11).

2002: (With Tennessee)

- Scored team-high 111 points, second-highest career total.
- Ranked seventh in AFC in points among kickers and was sixth in field goal accuracy, connecting on 25-of-31 field goal attempts (80.6%), also second-highest career mark.
- Handled all kickoff duties and finished fourth in the conference with nine touchbacks.
- Made 53-yard field goal at Dallas (9-15) to tie then career long. Marked longest field goal since a 52-yarder (10-15-00) with Carolina and the team's longest field goal since 1996 (56 yards by Del Greco vs. San Francisco, 10-27-96).
- Booted three field goals in three consecutive games (10-13 vs. Jacksonville, 10-27 at Cincinnati, 11-3 at Indianapolis).
- Connected on four field goals (32, 37, 40 and 21 yards) for the sixth time of his career, a then career-high at Baltimore (11-24).
- Hit game-winning 38-yard field goal in overtime at the New York Giants (12-1), marking 11th career game-winner.
- In first playoff appearance, made 2-of-3 field goal attempts and all four extra point attempts in a 34-31 AFC Divisional Playoff win vs. Pittsburgh (1-11-03), including a 26-yard field goal in overtime to deliver the victory. Marked 12th career game-winning field goal.

TEAM TILLMAN

Joe had one of his best kicking seasons in 2005, splitting the uprights on 26 of his 28 field goal attempts. His ace-of-a-leg led the 49ers in points with 97, and helped them put away two games against Tampa Bay and Houston. In 2006, he scored another 116 points for the 49ers. During his two seasons in San Francisco, his kicking efforts also helped a greater cause. For every field goal Joe made in 2005, he donated $250 to the Pat Tillman Foundation. By the season's end, Joe donated $6,500, helping the Foundation's efforts to support young people by encouraging them to promote positive change in themselves and the world around them. In 2006, his 29 PAT's donated another $7,250 for the Foundation.

MORAN NORRIS (MORE-ann)

44 Fullback

Ht: 6-2, Wt: 252, Born: 6-16-78
College: University of Kansas
7th Year (UFA in '06)
Games/Starts: 2006-14/7; Career-76/25

CAREER: Tough, hard-nosed fullback who can be utilized as both a blocker and receiver…Assumed the starting fullback role early in 2006 and helped the 49ers rushing attack finish sixth in the NFL…Lead blocker that helped push RB Frank Gore to a Pro Bowl season with an NFC-leading and team-record 1,695 yards and nine, 100-yard games…Also close friends with Gore off the field…Traveled with the running back to Hawaii when he received his 2006 Pro Bowl bid…Helped open holes for Houston backfield mate Domanick Davis' record consecutive 1,000-yard seasons in 2003-2004…Also a solid special teams performer.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a fourth round (115th pick overall) draft choice by New Orleans in 2001…Waived by New Orleans on September 17, 2002…Claimed off waivers by Houston from New Orleans on September 18, 2002…Signed by San Francisco as an unrestricted free agent from Houston on May 23, 2006.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006: (With San Francisco)

- Played in 14 games with seven starts at fullback. Was inactive for the first two games of the season when the coaching staff elected to use Chris Hetherington at fullback.
- Finished the season with two rushing attempts for eight yards and five receptions for 36 yards, including CAREER-HIGH two touchdown receptions.
- Also added three special teams tackles and one kickoff return for one yard.
- Played a pivotal role as the lead blocker for RB Frank Gore, who, behind Norris' crushing blocks, went on to set a franchise record for rushing yards and lead the NFC with 1,695 yards.
- Made first start of the season at fullback vs. San Diego (10-15) and caught a two-yard touchdown reception, the second of his career.
- Started at fullback vs. Seattle (11-19) and paved the way for Gore to rush for a franchise single-game record 212 yards.
- As the starting fullback at Seattle (12-14), helped open holes for 49ers 228 rushing yards, including 144 by Gore.
- Finished with two carries for eight yards and a 32-yard touchdown reception in the season finale 26-23 win at Denver (12-31). The 32-yard touchdown pass against the Broncos marked a CAREER-LONG, surpassing the 11-yard reception he had against Tennessee (12-31-03) when he played with Houston.

GOING THE EXTRA MILE

In 2005, Moran established his own community-based program, the Moran Norris Foundation, seeking to help Houston-area students become champions in Athletics, Character and Education. Here in the Bay Area, Moran recently "adopted" a group of students in the Brother2Brother/Sister2Sister Mentoring Program in San Francisco as part of his Foundation's initiatives. Norris hosts the youngsters at 49ers games, provides them with financial support and teaches them the importance of life skills, education, goal setting, hard work and good character.

MELVIN OLIVER

96 Defensive End

Ht: 6-3, Wt: 282, Born: 7-25-83
College: Louisiana State
2nd Year (D-6C in '06)
Games/Starts: 2006-16/14; Career-16/14

CAREER: Was a valuable 2006 sixth-round selection who started 14 games in rookie season…Chosen with little fanfare, but turned in one of the most productive seasons for a first-year player at his position…Possesses advantageous size and is solid anchoring against the run when lined up at defensive end…Takes adequate pursuit angles and has the skill to close down cutback lanes…Has shown flashes of ability to collapse the pocket when rushing the passer…Scored FIRST CAREER TOUCHDOWN on a fumble recovery vs. Oakland (10-8-06)…Notched 50 tackles and one sack during inaugural season…Suffered season-ending knee injury during 2007 spring workouts.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a sixth round (197th pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2006…Was the third of three sixth-round selections.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006:

- Played in 16 games as a rookie, starting 14.
- Finished with 50 tackles and one sack for three yards.
- Made FIRST NFL START at defensive tackle in a 4-3 alignment at Arizona (9-10) and posted two solo tackles.

- Started at defensive end in a 4-3 alignment vs. St. Louis (9-17) and posted two solo tackles and a quarterback pressure.
- Started at right defensive end in a 4-3 alignment vs. Oakland (10-8) and posted three tackles (two solo) while also recovering a fumble for his FIRST CAREER TOUCHDOWN. His touchdown came off of a fumble return in the fourth quarter when he picked up a loose football on a muffed forward lateral and ran 12 yards into the end zone. Was 49ers first fumble returned for a touchdown since the 49ers had two against Arizona (10-2-05) in Mexico City. Became the first 49ers rookie defensive lineman to ever score a touchdown.
- Started at right defensive end in a 4-3 alignment at Detroit (11-12) and finished with three tackles (one solo). Entire defense was awarded game balls by Head Coach Mike Nolan for their total performance in limiting one of the league's top offenses.
- Started at right defensive end in a 4-3 alignment at Denver (12-31) and finished with four tackles (three solo), one quarterback pressure, and his FIRST CAREER SACK. The sack on QB Jake Plummer came in the second quarter for a three-yard loss.

COLLEGE:

- Played in 52 games for the LSU Tigers, starting 24 times, including all 13 games as a senior and 10 times as a junior.
- Finished career with 20 sacks (112 yards), which ties as the fourth-highest total in school history.
- Had a total of 26.5 tackles for losses during his career.
- Solid defensive end who, along with Kyle Williams, Claude Wroten and Chase Pittman, gave the Tigers one of the most dominant defensive fronts in college football.
- Led all Tiger defensive linemen with 67 tackles, nine sacks and 11 tackles for losses as a senior. The nine sacks tie for the seventh-highest single-season total in school history.
- Capped career with Tigers by being named Defensive MVP of the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl after recording five tackles, including two tackles for losses and a sack in the 40-3 LSU win.
- Named LSU's Defensive MVP by the media at the Capital One Bowl after intercepting a pass and returning it 27 yards in the first quarter as a junior.
- Had outstanding game in Sugar Bowl against Oklahoma as a sophomore, finishing with four tackles, one sack for a nine-yard loss and another tackle behind the line of scrimmage. Also broke up a pass in the 21-14 win over the Sooners.
- Majored in general studies.

PERSONAL:

- Born Melvin Deontae Oliver (7-25-83) in Opelika, AL.
- Parents are Melvin Watson and Belinda Martin. Has one brother, Carleton.
- Outstanding pass rusher that helped Opelika (AL) High School to an 11-2 overall mark.
- Squad was the No. 1 rated defense in Alabama and they ranked first in the state in points allowed per game.
- Registered 80 tackles, including 16 for losses and had 14 sacks with one fumble recovery.

HAND-FISH COORDINATION

When home in Chickasha, Oklahoma, Sam enjoys a nice day of cat-fishing with his friends. That entails a non-traditional method used to capture the fish, a technique called "noodlin." "It's basically fishing by hand. We've caught some catfish that were between 50 and 60 pounds." Along the Washita River, he and friends search for catfish holes. Wearing leather gloves that cover most of his forearm, Sam swims down to the catfish holes to retrieve his catch. The catfish usually try to bite down on the hand of their invader, thinking it's food. When the fish bites, Sam quickly wraps his hands around it and pulls his dinner from its hole to the shore.

2nd Year (D-4 in '06)
Games/Starts: 2006-16/0; Career-16/0

CAREER: Successfully made the transition from college quarterback to professional running back…Was one of the 49ers' top special teams performers…Saw action at running back and kick returner during 2006 season…Emerged as solid third-down back as the season progressed…Tough, powerful rusher who spent time as a short yardage back throughout the season…One of the most athletic and versatile players on the team…Highly regarded for character and leadership abilities.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a fourth round (100th pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2006.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006:

- Played in all 16 games as a rookie.
- Finished first NFL season with 38 rushes for 116 yards and two rushing touchdowns. Also caught nine balls for 47 yards.
- Ranked third on the team with 16 special teams tackles.
- Played on offense and on special teams vs. Philadelphia (9-24) and assumed the primary running back role after RB Frank Gore left the game in the third quarter with a strained abdomen. Finished the game with five carries for 29 yards and two touchdowns, including a long rush of 13 yards, all CAREER-HIGHS. He also caught two passes for three yards. His one-yard touchdown run in the third quarter was his FIRST CAREER TOUCHDOWN, and his goal-line scoring burst in the fourth quarter gave him his FIRST CAREER MULTI-TOUCHDOWN game.
- Played in the backfield and on special teams vs. Oakland (10-8) and ran the ball 12 times for 21 yards while getting most of his carries inside the red zone. His 12 carries are a CAREER-HIGH. He also recorded one solo special teams tackle.
- Played on offense and on special teams at New Orleans (12-3). Recovered an onside kick by Joe Nedney in the third quarter. It was Robinson's first career onside kick recovery.
- Played on offense and on special teams at Seattle (12-14), carrying the ball once on a fake punt for 33 yards. The fourth-and-five fake was in the second quarter, when he brought the ball from San Francisco's 43-yard line to Seattle's 24-yard line. The conversion eventually led to a Joe Nedney 39-yard field goal. Since the fake punt attempt officially counts as a rushing attempt, the 33-yard run established a new CAREER-HIGH.

COLLEGE:

- One of three team captains at Penn State. Was so highly regarded by his teammates that they gave him serious consideration for captaincy during his freshman year.
- Used at all three receiver positions (slot, split end, flanker), halfback, quarterback and punt returner during his 44 games with the Nittany Lions.
- Only quarterback in school history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a career, finishing with 1,637 yards and 20 touchdowns on 369 carries.
- Became the fifth player in school history to gain over 5,000 yards in total offense (5,168) at Penn State, joining Chuck Fusina (5,382 from 1975-78), Kerry Collins (5,304 from 1991-94), Tony Sacca (5,869 from 1988-91) and Zack Mills (7,212 from 2001-04).
- Started a total of 28 games for the Nittany Lions (17 at quarterback, six at halfback and five at receiver).
- Became the only player in school history to throw and run for over 1,000 yards in a career.
- Tied an NCAA record with touchdowns on three consecutive carries during the 2002 campaign.
- Named Big Ten Conference Offensive Player of the Year by the League's coaches and was a consensus second-team All-Big Ten choice as a senior. 3,156 total yards as a senior set a school season-record, shattering the previous mark of 2,660 yards by Kerry Collins in 1994.
- Earned advertising and public relations degree in three years, graduating in December, 2004. Earned a second undergraduate degree (journalism) in December, 2005.

PERSONAL:

- Born B. Michael Robinson (2-6-83) in Richmond, VA.
- Two-time Associated Press first team All-State selection and a three-time member of the Richmond Times-Dispatch All-Metro team. Richmond Times-Dispatch Offensive Player of the Year and the district and regional Player of the Year. Named a Times-Dispatch Scholar-Athlete and rated by Super Prep as the third-best athlete in the nation during his senior season.
- Led Varina (Richmond, VA) High School to four consecutive regional titles and two state runner-up finishes.
- Rushed for 3,046 yards on 371 carries, an impressive 8.2 average, and 37 touchdowns. Also passed for 2,409 yards in his career.
- Two-year team captain who also totaled 211 career tackles, 18 interceptions and 13 sacks as a safety.
- As a senior, accounted for a huge portion of the team's total offense, passing for 1,056 yards and rushing for 1,281. Scored 15 touchdowns.
- Participated in the sprints for the track and field squad.

THE TOTAL PACKAGE

One of the most athletic and versatile players on the team, Michael is equally adept off the playing field. At Penn State, Michael starred at quarterback and earned Academic All-Big Ten honors three times. More than a football player, Michael gained reporting experience on Penn State Basketball and on CSTV's Penn State Primetime programs. Robinson has also spent time in the television studio in the Bay Area, meeting reporters and gaining experience behind the camera. The camera darling also hosts a segment called "The Robinson Report" on the 49ers website, 49ers.com.

CAREER: Stepped up as the starter at the safety position in October and never relinquished his hold on the position after signing with San Francisco as a free agent during the first week of 2006 training camp…Emerged as solid performer in 49ers secondary against both the pass and run…A solid tackler with a linebacker-like ability to track down the ballcarrier…Is tremendously thorough in terms of his classroom study and game preparation…Having played cornerback for the first two years of his career, possesses deceptive speed and also is a fundamentally sound player…In 98 NFL games (69 starts), has 421 tackles (331 solo), seven sacks, five interceptions, 36 passes defensed, four forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries…Tied for second on the Packers with a CAREER-HIGH 105 tackles (74 solo) in 2005…Also posted CAREER-HIGHS in interceptions (two) passes defensed (eight) and fumble recoveries (two)…Started in 16 games for the second time in his six-year career (also 2003 with Cincinnati)…Spent his first two years in the League at cornerback, making 10 starts at the position over the 2000-01 seasons…Joined Green Bay as an unrestricted free agent after playing his first four years in the League with Cincinnati (2000-03)…Entered the NFL in 2000 as a second-round draft choice of the Bengals…Moved to free safety at the outset of the '02 campaign and one year later became the Bengals' starter at that spot…In 2003, his final season in Cincinnati, he started every game for the first time and collected 83 tackles…Made the reverse transition in college at LSU, starting for three seasons at free safety before a senior-year shift to cornerback.

TRANACTIONS: Originally a second round (34th pick overall) draft choice by Cincinnati in 2000…Signed by Green Bay as unrestricted free agent from Cincinnati on March 24, 2004…Waived by Green Bay on July 27, 2006…Signed by San Francisco as a free agent on July 29, 2006.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006: (With San Francisco)

- Played in all 16 games, with 11 starts at strong safety in first season with San Francisco.
- Finished season with 61 tackles, eight passes defensed, one interception and one sack.
- Divided snaps with Tony Parrish for first five game before taking over as a starter at strong safety vs. San Diego (10-15). Made four tackles while playing most of the game. Suffered a shoulder injury in the second quarter but later returned.
- Started at strong safety at Detroit (11-12) and posted four tackles (three solo) while also recovering a fumble. The recovery came in the first quarter, when FS Keith Lewis forced the ball loose from Lions RB Kevin Jones.
- Started at strong safety vs. Seattle (11-19) and recorded two solo tackles while forcing a fumble. The forced fumble came late in the second quarter, when he forced the ball loose from TE Jerramy Stevens. Lewis returned it 23 yards to yield a K Joe Nedney 18-yard field goal.

- Started at strong safety at Seattle (12-14) and registered three tackles (one solo), five passes defensed, and one interception, his first of the season. Also had one solo special teams tackle. Stepped in front of a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass intended for WR D.J. Hackett in the end zone early in the third quarter for the pick. Five passes defensed marked new CAREER-HIGH, eclipsing the two passes defensed vs. Philadelphia (12-5-04). Awarded a game ball by Head Coach Mike Nolan as the defensive player of the game.
- Started at strong safety at Denver (12-31) and posted three tackles (one solo) and first sack of the season.

2005: (With Green Bay)

- Started all 16 games in his second season as the Packers' starting strong safety.
- Led the Green Bay defensive backs and tied for second on the team with a CAREER-HIGH 105 tackles (74 solo).
- Also had two interceptions, eight passes defensed and two fumble recoveries—all career bests.
- At Detroit (9-11), finished one tackle short of a career high, making 11 stops (seven solo), with one pass defensed.
- Led the defensive backs with nine tackles at Minnesota (10-23).
- At Cincinnati (10-30), once again topped defensive backs with eight tackles (six solo), including one for loss.
- In 33-25 triumph at Atlanta (11-13), recovered a fumble in the first quarter by RB Warrick Dunn, forced by DE Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila; the Packers scored three plays later to take a 14-0 lead.
- At Chicago (12-4), in the first quarter of Bears contest, picked off a QB Kyle Orton pass that bounced off TE Desmond Clark's hands, and returned it six yards.
- Picked up his second interception—and second against the Bears—vs. Chicago (12-25). With less than a minute remaining in the first half, picked off QB Rex Grossman on a pass intended for WR Bernard Berrian and returned it 12 yards.
- In season-ending win vs. Seattle (1-1-06), led the defensive backs with six tackles (five solo), adding a pass defensed and a fumble recovery.
- With the clock winding down in the first half, recovered the only fumble lost by RB Shaun Alexander during the NFL MVP's 2005 season (forced by S Marviel Underwood).

2004: (With Green Bay)

- Won the starting strong safety spot over Marques Anderson (who was later traded) during training camp after joining the Packers as an unrestricted free agent.
- Played in all 16 contests, making 15 starts.
- Led the defensive backs—and was third among all Packers—with 84 tackles (71 solo).
- Also recorded CAREER-HIGH 3.5 sacks, along with three passes defensed and one special teams stop.
- Was runner-up on the team in tackles with a season-best eight in Monday Night opener at Carolina (9-13), including one-half sack.
- Dropped Kurt Warner for a 10-yard sack among six tackles (five solo) vs. New York Giants (10-3).
- Did not start vs. Tennessee (10-11) after limited practice late in the week due to chronic knee pain, though he did play throughout the Titans contest in the team's dime package as well as seeing action in the base defense. Finished with seven tackles (five solo).
- Returned to the starting lineup for victory at Detroit (10-17) and made one assisted tackle and limited the Lions to only 125 net yards.

- Sacked QB Vinny Testaverde for a five-yard loss, forcing a field goal, when he came unblocked from the left side on a third-and-4 in victory over Dallas (10-24). Finished with six tackles (five solo).
- In Monday Night triumph vs. St. Louis (11-29), on a fake field goal attempt by the Rams, helped to sniff out the play and force a turnover on downs.
- At Philadelphia (12-5), matched season high with eight tackles, along with posting a season-best two passes defensed.
- At Chicago (1-2-05), quarter dropped Bears QB Chad Hutchinson for a 12-yard sack in second quarter.
- Registered four solo tackles and one pass defensed in NFC Wild Card playoff with Minnesota (1-9-05).

2003: (With Cincinnati)

- Played and started in all 16 games for the first time as a professional.
- Made 74 tackles (55 solo) to rank fifth among Cincinnati defenders. Also had one-half sack, one forced fumble, one interception and seven passes defensed.
- Intercepted Broncos' QB Jake Plummer in opening-day game vs. Denver (9-7).
- Tied for the club lead with a nine-tackle effort in win vs. Seattle (10-26).
- Shared a sack (with DE Justin Smith) that dropped Texans QB David Carr for a 10-yard loss and forced a punt in the fourth quarter of 34-27 victory vs. Houston (11-9).
- Helped break up a third-down pass to WR Dante Hall in the third quarter of upset win over previously-unbeaten Kansas City (11-16). Chiefs missed a subsequent 44-yard field goal try in Cincinnati's 24-19 triumph.
- Posted a CAREER-HIGH and team-leading 12 stops in game at Baltimore (12-7).
- Forced a fumble by RB Kevan Barlow (recovered by teammate Brian Simmons at the Bengals' five-yard line) on the 49ers' first possession of the second half in eventual 41-38 win vs. San Francisco (12-14).
- Tied for the team lead in tackles with 10 in finale vs. Cleveland (12-28).

2002: (With Cincinnati)

- Moved to free safety after being utilized primarily at cornerback during first two seasons in Cincinnati.
- Saw action in 13 games, making one start at free safety.
- Posted 30 tackles and one forced fumble.
- Inactive vs. Tennessee (10-27) due to the lingering effects of a concussion suffered two weeks earlier vs. Pittsburgh (10-13).
- Had a five-tackle effort at Houston (11-3), but tore right knee cartilage and was inactive for ensuing contest at Baltimore.
- Forced a QB Jeff Blake fumble when he stopped the Ravens passer short of the marker on a third-down run vs. Baltimore (12-1).
- Led the secondary with seven tackles at Carolina (12-8), seeing extended duty at free safety due to a shoulder injury that limited Corey Hall.
- Aggravated prior right knee injury in victory vs. New Orleans (12-22), and was placed on injured reserve the following day with a week left in the season.

2001: (With Cincinnati)

- Played in 13 games and started eight after LCB Rodney Heath was lost for the year with a hamstring tear.
- Suffered a compound dislocation of his right middle finger in practice (12-19). Placed on injured reserve (12-20).
- Posted 51 tackles, one interception, two sacks, one fumble recovery, seven passes defensed and three special teams stops.

- Recorded FIRST CAREER SACK after dropping QB Tim Couch for a five-yard loss on third down vs. Cleveland (10-14).
- Made a season-high and a team-leading nine tackles in first start of the year vs. Chicago (10-21). Also recovered a first-quarter fumble by WR Marty Booker at the Cincinnati three-yard line.
- Broke up a pair of passes in the decisive fourth quarter of 31-27 victory at Detroit (10-28).
- Made second career interception at Cleveland (11-25), picking off Couch in the end zone.
- Sacked Jaguars QB Mark Brunell vs. Jacksonville (12-9) and had eight tackles.

2000: (With Cincinnati)

- Played in eight games as a rookie, starting the last two contests at left cornerback.
- Was inactive for eight games.
- Recorded 16 tackles, one forced fumble, two passes defensed and one special teams stop over the course of the year.
- Broke up a potential touchdown pass at New England (11-19), getting a hand on QB Drew Bledsoe's aerial that was intended for WR Tony Simmons in the end zone on a third-down play in the second quarter.
- Had a season-high 10 tackles in FIRST NFL START vs. Jacksonville (12-17) in place of injured S Robert Bean. Also forced a third-quarter fumble by Jaguars WR Jimmy Smith.

COLLEGE:

- Four-year starter at Louisiana State (1996-99). Spent first three seasons at free safety before shifting to cornerback as a senior.
- Intercepted 10 passes over the course of his LSU career, returning three for touchdowns.
- Also broke up 21 passes, forced five fumbles and recovered one fumble.
- Enjoyed his best season in 1998, when he was a Football News first-team All-Southeastern Conference pick. Also earned second-team League honors from the conference coaches.
- Recorded career highs in total tackles (82), solo tackles (69), tackles for loss (six), forced fumbles (five), sacks (one) and passes defensed (seven) while starting all 11 games at free safety as a junior. Also had a team-high three interceptions, including one he returned 53 yards for a touchdown to open the scoring at Notre Dame.
- Led LSU defensive backs in tackles as a sophomore with 64 (49 solo), including a season-best 12 stops in win over then-No. 1 Florida.
- Was a Freshman All-America selection of The Sporting News in 1996.
- Also was named SEC Freshman Defensive Player of the Year by the Knoxville News-Sentinel.
- Majored in construction management.

PERSONAL:

- Born Mark Emery Roman (3-26-77) in Lafayette, LA.
- Was named Most Valuable Player on offense in Class 5A as a senior at New Iberia (LA) High School.
- Rushed for 1,897 yards and 21 touchdowns his senior season despite playing in only seven-plus games. Broke his ankle in the school's eighth contest, but returned to action less than a month later to play in the state playoffs.
- Lettered four times each in football (as a running back and safety) and track.
- Was part of a track team that captured the state title his sophomore and senior years.

- Also competed as a prep against current NFL players Kevin Faulk (Patriots), Travis Minor (Rams) and Brandon Stokley (Broncos). Maintains relationship with all three.
- Did not start playing football until the seventh grade.
- Conducts a football camp every June in conjunction with the New Iberia (LA) Jaycees.
- In 2005, signed autographs in exchange for cash donations to the American Red Cross' Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund.
- While in college, worked as a site manager for a construction company, supervising a crew of workers. Would like to pursue a career in the residential construction industry following his NFL career.
- Married to Ashley. Couple resides in Houston, TX.

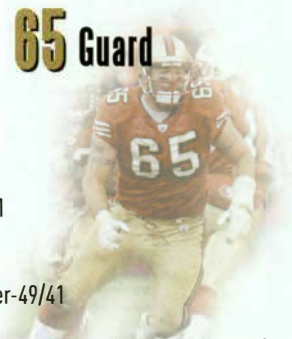
JUSTIN SMILEY

65 Guard



Ht: 6-3, Wt: 311, Born: 11-11-81
College: University of Alabama
4th Year (D-2A in '04)
Games/Starts: 2006-16/16; Career-49/41

CAREER: Outstanding drive blocker with superb power and incredible quickness for position…Has started every game for the last two seasons…Very emotional player, commands respect from teammates and opponents…Shows quickness and agility coming out of stance…Very effective getting out and moving pile on traps and sweeps…Uses sudden burst to reach or cut off linebackers at second level…Shows above average lateral agility, especially when working in space…Delivers good pop and explosion with hands…Has very good reactions and keen field vision, showing instinctive reactions in blocking.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a second round (46th pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2004…Was the first of two second-round selections.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006:

- Started all 16 games at right guard after moving from left guard due to the signing of Larry Allen.
- Stable blocking helped pave the way for RB Frank Gore's franchise record 1,695 rushing yards, tops in the NFC, and franchise record 2,180 combined rushing and receiving yards. Helped Gore accumulate nine, 100-yard rushing days.

- Started at right guard vs. St. Louis (9-17) and was part of offensive line that received a game ball from Head Coach Mike Nolan after not giving up a sack the entire game.
- Part of offensive line that didn't give up a sack for the second time of the season vs. Oakland (10-8).
- Started at right guard at Detroit (11-12). Entire offensive line was awarded game balls by Head Coach Mike Nolan, for paving the way for 198 rushing yards, including 148 rushing yards by Gore at halftime.
- Started at right guard vs. Seattle (11-19) and played with an offensive line that blocked for Gore's franchise record 212 yards rushing. The 49ers accumulated 262 total rushing yards in the game, the eighth-most in team history. The last time they rushed for that many yards was vs. Detroit (12-14-98), when they ran for a franchise-best 328 yards. Gore, who was awarded a game ball by Head Coach Mike Nolan, in turn gave game balls to the entire offensive line.
- Part of offensive line that didn't allow a sack for the third time all season at St. Louis (11-26). Offense also totaled 171 rushing yards on the day.

2005:

- Started all 16 games at left guard. Joined RT Kwame Harris as only other member of offense to start at same position all 16 games.
- Started at Philadelphia (9-18) and played entire game with cast on hand after suffering a broken bone in his hand during week of practice.
- Started vs. Dallas (9-25) and helped the 49ers rushing attack tally 124 yards, surpassing 100-yard mark for first time of season.
- Started and paved the way for then season-high 158 49ers rushing yards vs. Tampa Bay (10-30). Part of offensive line that did not allow any sacks for first time since playing at Baltimore (11-30-03).
- Started at Tennessee (11-27), hustling to tackle LB Keith Bulluck at the San Francisco seven-yard line to save a touchdown after Bulluck intercepted QB Ken Dorsey in the second quarter.
- Started vs. Arizona (12-4) and made a tackle on Robert Griffith after he intercepted QB Alex Smith in the fourth quarter.
- Started at St. Louis (12-24) as a key blocker when 49ers amassed SEASON-HIGH 217 rushing yards, the highest rushing total since gaining 206 yards rushing at Philadelphia (12-21-03). Made one key block to pave way for RB Maurice Hicks' 73-yard touchdown run on the first play from scrimmage and threw two more key blocks on Gore's touchdown runs of 10 and 30 yards, which were both the same play call. Blocking efforts opened holes for three rushing touchdowns, most since the 49ers had three in 30-27 loss at New Orleans (9-19-04). Helped Hicks finish with 109 rushing yards (10.9 avg.).
- Started vs. Houston (1-1-06) and provided blocking that led to 49ers first back-to-back wins since the 2002 season.

2004:

- Saw action in all 16 games as a rookie with nine starts.
- Took snaps on offensive line vs. Atlanta (9-12) when Jeremy Newberry was sidelined with an injury.
- Saw action on offensive line on a rotational basis and helped team total 370 yards at New Orleans (9-19).
- Started at right guard Weeks 3-4 due to revamped offensive line when Harris was sidelined with an ankle and knee injury.
- Started at right guard and helped team total 448 yards vs. Arizona (10-10).
- Held strong up front to help 49ers offense total 371 yards as starting right guard at New York Jets (10-17).

- Part of offense that generated 317 total yards as starting right guard vs. Seattle (11-7).
- Started at right guard and was part of 357-yard offensive output vs. Carolina (11-14).
- Started at right guard and helped offense generate 224 total yards vs. Miami (11-28).
- Saw action on offensive line and helped team generate 318 total yards at New England (1-2-05).

COLLEGE:

- A mainstay on Crimson Tide offensive line, starting 36 games for Alabama. Never allowed a quarterback sack during collegiate career.
- Two-time recipient of team's Sylvester Croom Commitment to Excellence Award and won Mal Moore Leadership Award junior season at Alabama.
- Three-year starter holds school's weight room record in hang clean with 415-pound lift.
- Named guard on The Sporting News Freshman All-America third team (2001).
- Majored in criminal justice.

PERSONAL:

- Born Justin Smiley (11-11-81) in Ellabell, GA.
- Attended Southeast Bulloch (Ellabell, GA) High School.
- Border Wars second-team All-South pick.
- All-Area pick after grading at 80 percent blocking as a junior.
- Used as fullback as a freshman, shifting to offensive line following year.
- Cousin, Dusty Ziegler, played at Notre Dame and then for the Buffalo Bills and New York Giants as offensive center.
- Resides in Ellabell, GA.

SMILEY'S NFL STATISTICS

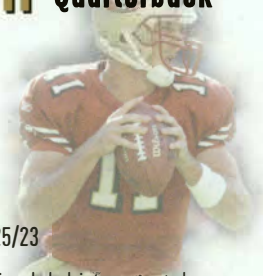
GAMES/STARTS (Regular Season) - 2006 (16/16); 2005 (16/16); 2004 (16/9); CAREER - 49/41

LIVING LEGEND

A high school standout in Ellabell, Georgia, Justin was honored with a jersey retirement ceremony at his alma mater, Southeast Bulloch High School, in 2006. His No. 78 jersey was retired at halftime of the Southeast Bulloch's spring football game. Justin's jersey was the first to be retired in school history. The local legend is the only professional athlete to come from Southeast Bulloch's athletic program.

ALEX SMITH

11 Quarterback



Ht: 6-4, Wt: 210, Born: 5-7-84
College: University of Utah
3rd Year (D-1 in '05)
Games/Starts: 2006-16/16; Career-25/23

CAREER: Alex Smith became the first 49ers quarterback in club history to take every snap from center during a season in 2006…Improved on rookie season exponentially during his sophomore NFL campaign…Finished second NFL season with CAREER-HIGHS in every major statistical category: attempts (442), completions (257), yards (2,890), and touchdowns (16)…Rushed for two touchdowns in 2006…In 2006, 34 of Smith's completions were "explosive plays," or plays that gained 20 or more yards…Had only 13 such plays in 2005…Engineered a fourth-quarter comeback with two touchdown passes and an 18-yard touchdown run at Seattle (12-14-06) in a nationally televised contest…Only two other players in NFL history threw at least two touchdown passes in one quarter, while also running for a touchdown of at least 15 yards in that same quarter – Phil Simms did that as a rookie for the 1979 Giants (against the 49ers) and Kordell Stewart did it for the Steelers in 1997 (against the Ravens)…Finished rookie season completing 84 passes for 875 yards and one touchdown…Smart, cerebral quarterback…Can utilize his deceptive quickness when leaving the pocket…Possesses a strong, live arm.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a first round (1st pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2005.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006:

- Became the first quarterback in 49ers history to take every snap over the course of the season. The only other quarterbacks to take every snap in 2006 were Peyton Manning (Indianapolis), Jon Kitna (Detroit), and J.P. Losman (Buffalo).
- Smith set new CAREER-HIGHS in every category in 2006. Shattered all rookie marks, finishing with 257 completions on 442 attempts, 2,890 passing yards, 16 touchdowns and 16 interceptions.
- Final quarterback rating was 74.8, almost doubled from 2005. Finished with a rating over 100.0 in four contests.
- His 43 carries for 147 yards are also new CAREER-HIGHS, besting the 30 attempts for 103 yards in 2005.
- Started the regular season opener for the first time in his career at Arizona (9-10) and responded with his best statistical game as a pro, posting then career-highs in attempts (40), completions (23), and yards (288), while also throwing a 31-yard touchdown to rookie TE Vernon Davis.
- In the home opener vs. St. Louis (9-17), threw for 233 yards and completed 11-of-22 passes with a touchdown. He twice set his own record for his longest pass: once in the first quarter on a 56-yard gain to WR Arnaz Battle, then again on a 72-yard touchdown pass to WR Antonio Bryant in the third quarter. His previous best was a 47-yard completion to RB Frank Gore against Jacksonville (12-18-05).
- Started vs. Philadelphia (9-24) and finished with CAREER-HIGH 293 yards and completed 27-of-46 passes, with a touchdown. His 75-yard pass to WR Bryan Gilmore in the third quarter set a new CAREER-HIGH, marking the second straight week he bested the mark. In the second quarter, he scampered for a 22-yard run, marking a new CAREER-LONG in rushing, overtaking his previous high of 19 yards at Jacksonville last season (12-18).

- Played an efficient game vs. Seattle (11-19), completing 19-of-25 passes for 163 yards and a touchdown. Also had his FIRST CAREER RUSHING TOUCHDOWN on a nine-yard toss to Battle in the second quarter. On the 49ers' next drive, Smith ran a bootleg to the right from the one-yard line and scampered in for the score, giving the 49ers a 17-0 lead, which ultimately led to a 20-14 victory.
- Had one of his best games as a pro at Seattle (12-14), completing 14-of-25 passes for 162 yards and two touchdowns, along with six carries for 33 yards and a rushing touchdown in the 49ers 24-14 win. His quarterback rating for the game was 102.4. It was the fourth time in 2006 that Smith finished with a quarterback rating of 100 or more. Smith engineered the fourth-quarter comeback with two touchdown passes and an 18-yard touchdown run. Only two other players in NFL history threw at least two touchdown passes in one quarter while also running for a touchdown of at least 15 yards in that same quarter – Phil Simms did that as a rookie for the 1979 Giants (against the 49ers) and Kordell Stewart did it for the Steelers in 1997 (against the Ravens).
- Finished the season by completing 17-of-32 passes for 194 yards, one touchdown and one interception in the 49ers overtime victory at Denver (12-31). It was Smith's second career overtime victory. His other came in the 2005 season finale vs. Houston (1-1-06). He completed a third-quarter touchdown pass to FB Moran Norris in the right flat. The 32 attempts were his most since Week 3 vs. Philadelphia, when he threw 46 times.

- Played in nine games with seven starts as a rookie.
- Missed four games with a knee injury suffered at Washington (10-23).
- Completed 84-of-165 passes for 875 yards and threw one touchdown pass.
- Rushed for 103 yards on 30 carries.
- Became the first rookie to start at quarterback for the 49ers since Jim Druckenmiller started at St. Louis (9-7-97).
- Saw first NFL action at Philadelphia (9-18), attempting one pass that fell incomplete. Also rushed one time for three yards.
- Completed his FIRST CAREER NFL PASS on 15-yarder to WR Brandon Lloyd at Arizona in Mexico City (10-2). Finished game 6-of-10 for 34 yards.
- Started FIRST CAREER GAME vs. Indianapolis (10-9), going 9-of-23 for 74 yards and four interceptions.
- Inactive vs. Tampa Bay (10-30) after suffering knee injury from a LB LaVar Arrington hit vs. Washington (10-23).
- Inactive vs. New York Giants (11-6) and at Chicago (11-13) while recovering from knee injury. Was also inactive vs. Seattle (11-20) as third-string quarterback.
- Dressed as backup quarterback at Tennessee (11-27) but did not play.
- Started vs. Arizona (12-4) after being sidelined by knee injury that occurred in Washington game. Completed 16-of-24 passes for 185 yards and three interceptions. Completed first eight passes and was 11-of-12 for 138 yards in first half.
- Started at Jacksonville (12-18), completing 8-of-24 attempts for 123 yards and one interception. Rushed four times for 30 yards, including 19-yard run on the first series that helped set up team's first score.
- Started at St. Louis (12-24) and recorded first career win as a starter, finishing 12-of-16 for 131 yards and a 98.7 quarterback rating. Led 49ers on two scoring drives in final 1:19 of first half to cut a 20-7 deficit to 20-17. Completed 5-of-5 passes for 57 yards to set up 10-yard touchdown run by Gore. Later hit WR Jason McAddley with 10 seconds remaining to set up 56-yard Joe Nedney field goal. Also rushed seven times for 21 yards.

- Started vs. Houston (1-1-06) and threw his FIRST-CAREER TOUCHDOWN on a 14-yard pass to Lloyd in the second quarter. Finished 16-of-29 for 159 yards with one interception. Rushed for 10 yards on four carries.

WORTH HIS WEIGHT

Alex recently committed $500,000 to the University of Utah's athletic department. The generous donation is the lead gift for the Alex Smith Strength and Conditioning Facility—a $1.5 million expansion of Utah's varsity athletics weight room. The money kicked off a campaign to raise the remaining funds for the project. Plans call for the expansion of the Dee Glen Smith Center, which houses the strength and conditioning room, as well as the football coaching offices, meeting, training and equipment rooms. The facility will cover 11,000 square feet—a 3,500 square foot improvement from its current size, and will feature new lifting stations and cardiovascular conditioning space.

CARBON COPY

While NFL players are required to train year-round to maintain their physical shape, Derek has gone the extra step by installing a replica of the 49ers team weight room in his garage. With the help of 49ers Head Strength and Conditioning Coach, Johnny Parker, Derek ordered the exact weights and accessories that are used at the team's Santa Clara Facility.

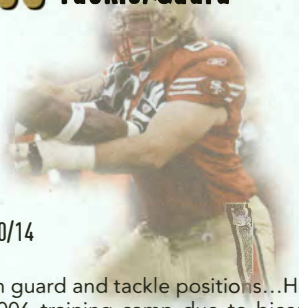
ADAM SNYDER

68 Tackle/Guard



Ht: 6-6, Wt: 326, Born: 1-30-82
College: University of Oregon
3rd Year (D-3B in '05)
Games/Starts: 2006-14/6; Career-30/14

CAREER: Versatile player who can rotate talents between guard and tackle positions…Has played in 30 career games with 14 starts…Slowed in 2006 training camp due to biceps injury which limited his chance to earn a starting spot…Was still a key contributor in the trenches and was part of offensive line that finished sixth in rushing in the NFL…Also paved the way for RB Frank Gore to set a franchise-record 1,695 rushing yards and 2,180 combined yards…Gained valuable playing time during rookie season, seeing action in all 16 games at both guard and tackle…Able to take command of an offense and step in to help the team wherever needed…Possesses the quickness to protect the quarterback's blind side yet utilizes strength to prosper at the point of attack.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a third round (94th pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2005…Was the second of two third-round selections.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006:

- Saw action in 14 games, with six starts (three starts at left tackle for Jonas Jennings and three starts at right guard in place of Larry Allen). Missed two games with a sprained knee.
- Started at left tackle vs. St. Louis (9-17) in place of Jennings, who was inactive because of a high ankle sprain suffered against Arizona (9-10). Part of offensive line that received the game ball from Head Coach Mike Nolan as they did not give up a sack the entire game.
- Made second start of his career at guard when he took the field at left guard vs. Philadelphia (9-24) in place of Allen, who sat out with a knee injury.
- Started at left guard vs. Oakland (10-8) and played with an offensive line that did not give up a sack for the second time of the season. Moved over to left tackle after Jennings left the game on the first series with a hand injury and did not return. Replaced at left guard by Tony Wragge.
- Started at left tackle vs. San Diego (10-15), replacing Jennings, who was inactive after having surgery to repair a tendon in his pinkie and also sustained a wrist injury the previous week against Oakland.
- Inactive vs. Green Bay (12-10) and at Seattle (12-14) due to a sprained knee and ankle suffered at New Orleans (12-3).
- Returned to action vs. Arizona (12-24) and saw extensive action at left tackle after Jennings left the game in the first quarter with a dislocated shoulder.
- Started at left tackle at Denver (12-31) in place of Jennings. Blocking helped Gore break the 49ers franchise rushing record and franchise combined yardage record.

2005:

- Saw action in all 16 games during his rookie campaign. Started seven games at left tackle and one game at right guard.
- Saw first action in the trenches at guard late in fourth quarter at Philadelphia (9-18).

- Saw time at guard when G/C Eric Heitmann moved to center due to an injury to Jeremy Newberry at Arizona in Mexico City (10-2).
- Logged time at guard when Heitmann moved to center relieving Newberry vs. Indianapolis (10-9).
- Saw significant action in second half at right guard vs. New York Giants (11-6).
- Made FIRST NFL START at Chicago (11-13) at right guard, taking over for Heitmann, who moved to center to fill in for Newberry (knee/shoulder). Part of line that held Bears to zero sacks.
- Started at left tackle vs. Seattle (11-20), at Tennessee (11-27) , vs. Arizona (12-4), at Seattle (12-11) and at Jacksonville (12-18)
- Started at left tackle at St. Louis (12-24) and was instrumental in 49ers amassing 217 rushing yards, the most since the team totaled 206 rushing yards at Philadelphia (12-21-03). Part of line that opened holes for RB Maurice Hicks to ramble 73 yards for a touchdown on the initial play of game. Helped Hicks finish with 109 rushing yards (10.9 avg.). Offense produced three rushing touchdowns, the most since the 49ers had three in 30-27 loss at New Orleans (9-19-04).
- Started at left tackle vs. Houston (1-1-06) and provided blocking that led to 49ers first back to back wins since the 2002 season.

COLLEGE:

- Departed as one of Oregon's most decorated linemen of all time, becoming the Ducks' third Morris Trophy recipient (as the Pacific-10 Conference's top lineman) ever.
- Three-year starter and school's first two-time first-team all-league offensive line stalwart in four decades.
- Extended string of career starting assignments to 35 at three different positions (right guard, right tackle and left tackle) while playing in 48-of-49 outings.
- Allowed only two sacks his entire senior season. Voted All-Pac-10 while spending entire season at left tackle.
- Enjoyed most consistent year on the offensive line as a junior, highlighted by the selection as the Pac-10's first lineman to earn Offensive Player of the Week accolades since 1995 for his play in the Ducks win over Michigan. Became Oregon's first first-team All-Pac-10 offensive line honoree in 20 years, anchoring a line that boasted the League's fourth-best rushing output despite the lack of a 1,000-yard rusher for the first time in five years.
- Started 10 games while serving as a reliable anchor along the Ducks' offensive line as a sophomore. Helped Oregon churn out a first-team all-conference running back while the unit ranked second in the conference in rushing and fourth in sacks allowed.
- Majored in journalism/public relations.

PERSONAL:

- Born Adam Richard Snyder (1-30-82) in Fullerton, CA.
- Attended La Serna (Whittier, CA) High School.
- Ranked among best interior linemen and top 80 overall prospects in California by Super Prep.
- Two-year starter and 1999 team captain graded better than 80 percent blocking consistency final season. Second-team all-CIF honoree helped team rush for more than 2,400 yards senior year.
- Married to Erika. Couple splits time between Santa Clara, CA and Whittier, CA.

SNYDER'S NFL STATISTICS

GAMES/STARTS (Regular Season) - 2005 (16/8), 2006 (14/6); CAREER - 30/14

ROLLER DERBY

As a 6-6, 326-pound tackle, Snyder had an interesting hobby as a youth. While growing up in Southern California, Adam liked spending time Inline skating with his friends. While in Jr. High School, Adam and his friends began to skate for PLAY IT AGAIN SPORTS who would support the skaters with wheels and accessories, making them locally sponsored performers. Adam's greatest stunt accomplishment on his wheels was a 13-stair rail.

ISAAC SOPOAGA (SOAP-ah-gah)

90 Defensive Tackle

HOME GROWN HULK

Growing up in American Samoa, Isaac's first sport was rugby. Part of his conditioning routine was to build up his arms by lifting bags filled with coconuts and logs from chopped down trees. The leg workout was also geographically geared. "Have you ever seen a 325-pound guy climb a coconut tree?" Isaac didn't go on to play football until late in his career. That changed when he went to junior college in Southern California and then to the University of Hawaii, where his athleticism and size landed him on the NFL radar.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS

Despite playing at a very consistent level in 2005 and having an impressive training camp in 2006, Shawntae hasn't reached his ultimate goal. "We didn't go to the playoffs. I was at home in January watching the playoffs on TV. I don't really care about anything else except winning. I just want to go to the playoffs." To do his part, Shawntae said he participated in former NFL receiver Cris Carter's "Fast Program" in Coral Gables, Florida in June of 2006 to step up his game. He said the sessions allowed him to learn how receivers think and how to read splits. "Ultimately, I've still got to study it myself, but it did really help."

TOUGH AS NAILS

Born in Sierra Leone, B.J. was sent by his parents at the age of 10 to live in Seattle with an aunt and uncle when the West African nation and former British Colony fell into a decade-long civil war which resulted in an estimated 50,000 casualties. B.J., short for Baigeh Joe switched from soccer to football upon arrival to the United States. B.J.'s father, a chemistry professor, moved to Milwaukee in 1997 while his mother, Joan Scott, still lives in war-torn Liberia near Sierra Leone, where she works for the United Nations assisting refugees. "It's always a concern, but we speak weekly or every two weeks so I know that she's safe," B.J. said of his mother, who he saw in September of 2006 for the first time since leaving Sierra Leone in 1990.

ULTIMATE FIGHTER

Jeff is a big fan of Ultimate Fighting. In fact, the linebacker incorporates the style in his workouts. He frequently watches events with his wife and started using the training when a friend converted an old building into a fighting studio. At the studio, Jeff wrestles, practices ninjitsu and takes part in other cross training activities. He says the alternate workouts increase his cardiovascular stamina to a higher level because they are executed in a controlled environment.

31 Safety

VICKIEL VAUGHN (Vick-EEL)

Ht: 6-0, Wt: 204, Born: 10-24-83
College: University of Arkansas
2nd Year (D7 in '06)
Games/Starts: 2006-0/0; Career-0/0

CAREER: Second-year player returns to field after spending entire rookie season on injured reserve with a finger injury…Allocated by 49ers to Frankfurt Galaxy during the 2007 off-season…Well-built safety who can make hard hits and physical tackles…Tough and aggressive player who flies around in run support and blows up ball carriers…Sniffs out the play quickly and gets started towards the ball fast…Smart and instinctive player who does a good job of using good tackling technique…Has the height and long arms to jolt and play physically with receivers/tight ends on short pass routes.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a seventh round (254th pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2006.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006:

- Placed on injured reserve (9-2) after suffering a finger injury in the final preseason game vs. San Diego (9-1).
- Allocated to the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europa after the end of the 2006 season. He later played for the Berlin Thunder.

COLLEGE:

- Was a regular on the field for the Arkansas Razorbacks during all four seasons.
- Returned two interceptions for touchdowns in college career.
- Second on the team in total tackles in 2005 with 83. Had four interceptions, returning one for a touchdown, and recovered one fumble.
- Played both free and strong safety in 2004 and led team with 66 tackles, tied for team-lead with two interceptions for 92 yards and had three passes defensed.
- Played at linebacker during sophomore campaign. Had 23 tackles, one interception and two forced fumbles.
- Appeared in all 14 games as a true freshman.
- Enrolled in the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences and is majoring in sociology.

PERSONAL:

- Born Vickiel Vaughn (10-24-83).
- Attended West High (Plano, TX) and was rated one of the nation's top 25 football players by The Sporting News and one of the top 125 by USA Today.
- Participated in the U.S. Army National High School All-Star Game in San Antonio.
- Caught 25 passes for 414 yards and five touchdowns as a senior wide receiver. Racked up 67 tackles and six interceptions in his final prep campaign on defense.
- Made four interceptions as a junior before tearing his right ACL.
- Ranked as the sixth safety in the nation by Rivals100.com and rated as the ninth safety in the country by Max Emfinger.
- Member of Tom Lemming's Prep Football All-American team. Made Super Prep's All-America squad and was rated the second defensive back in the nation by the same publication.
- Sisters, Rochelle and Brittney, play on the Lady Razorback basketball team.

BAVARIAN BALLER

Even though Vickiel's arrival as a player in the NFL Europa came mid-way through the season after spending the first half of the year on the injured list with a hand injury, he managed to impress coaches and European fans with his natural athletic flair to make plays. When Vickiel flew to Germany, he was slated to play for the Frankfurt Galaxy, the team he joined during NFLEL training camp. When he reported in Frankfurt after mending his hand injury, he was re-assigned to Berlin. But upon arrival, the League thought he would have to move again, this time to Cologne. When the Thunder's coaches saw Vickiel's speed and play-making ability, they cancelled the final leg of his German train tour and kept him in Berlin. He finished with 11 tackles, a three-yard interception, three passes defensed and two tackles on special teams.

DELANIE WALKER (De-LAY-nee)

46 Tight End

Ht: 6-0, Wt: 244, Born: 8-12-84
College: Central Missouri State University
2nd Year (D-6A in '06)
Games/Starts: 2006-7/1; Career-7/1

CAREER: Made the transition from college wide receiver to NFL tight end as a rookie…Looks to return at full strength after injuring his shoulder during the preseason that limited his playing time in 2006…Possesses excellent size and plays with great toughness…Fights for the ball while in the air and isn't afraid to go over the middle…Doesn't get pushed around much and can get a clean release working against press coverage…Plays with a mean steak, has good upper body strength and can be an effective blocker.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a sixth round (175th pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2006…Was first of three sixth-round selections.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006:

- Played in seven games as a rookie with one start.
- Finished with two catches for 30 yards and returned one kickoff for 25 yards.
- Injured shoulder early in training camp and missed the first month of the season.

- Played on special teams vs. Oakland (10-8) and recorded his first NFL touch of the season when he returned a kickoff for 25 yards. Was also FIRST CAREER NFL GAME.
- Active at Kansas City (10-1) but did not play.
- Made FIRST CAREER START at tight end in a two-tight end set at New Orleans (12-3) and saw extended playing time due to the knee injury suffered by TE Eric Johnson.
- Saw extensive action at tight end vs. Green Bay (12-10), catching two passes for 30 yards. Made FIRST CAREER RECEPTION in the third quarter from QB Alex Smith, which he took for 29 yards.

COLLEGE:

- First and only player selected by the 49ers from Central Missouri State.
- In 20 games at Central Missouri, tied with Anthony Simpson (1994-95) for eighth on the school's career-record list with 113 receptions.
- 1,347 receiving yards rank 11th in school history and 965 yards on kickoff returns ranks seventh in Central Missouri history.
- 2,578 all-purpose yards ranks ninth on the school's all-time record chart.
- Including his 19 games at Mt. San Antonio College, caught 199 passes for 2,659 yards and 23 touchdowns in 39 contests during his college career.
- His two kickoff returns for touchdowns in 2003 tied the school season-record first set by Walter Rhome in 1971.
- His three kickoff returns for scores tied the CMSU all-time record held by Rhome (1969-72).
- Majored in video production, with a minor in criminal justice.

PERSONAL:

- Born Delanie Walker (8-12-84) in Pomona, CA.
- Attended Pomona (CA) High School.
- First-team All-Region selection by The LA Times, adding All-Division and All-San Gabriel Valley honors as a senior.
- Twice chosen Miramonte League Offensive Player of the Year and was selected 2001 Pomona Red Devil of the Year.
- Also excelled in track, winning the Division III 100-meters title after also finishing first in the 2002 Miramonte League Meet.

THREE FLAGS UP

Delanie caught Vice President of Player Personnel Scot McCloughan's eye during his two collegiate stops. In 39 games at Mt. San Antonio College and Central Missouri State, Walker caught 199 passes for 2,659 yards and 23 touchdowns. In 20 games for the Mules, he accumulated 2,578 all-purpose yards. "The thing you look for when you're watching a guy like that is, 'Does he dominate on that level?" McCloughan said. "And he dominated." Delanie said he developed his skills as a youngster while playing a game called "Three Flags Up." There were no teams. Whoever had the ball kept it until being tackled. Delanie was tough to bring down and extremely elusive, qualities he's confident will transfer to the professional level.

BRANDON WILLIAMS

81 Wide Receiver

Ht: 5-11, Wt: 183, Born: 2-24-84
College: University of Wisconsin
2nd Year (D-3 in '06)
Games/Starts: 2006-13/0; Career-13/0

CAREER: Looks to make an impact at wide receiver after serving as the primary return man in 2006…Returned 16 kickoffs for 380 yards (23.8 avg.) and 22 punts for 147 yards…Quick off the line, sharp running routes and is able to separate from opponents…Comes back to the ball, finds the soft spot in the defense and effectively uses the sidelines…Natural pass-catcher and easily adjusts to errant throws…Dangerous in the open field.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a third round (84th pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2006.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2006:

- Played in 13 games as a rookie.
- Finished with 147 punt return yards and 280 kickoff return yards.
- Was active for first career game vs. Philadelphia (9-24), playing at kick returner and punt returner, and responded by returning three punts for 12 yards and four kickoffs for 85 yards.
- Handled punt return duties at Kansas City (10-1) and returned one punt for two yards and had one fair catch. Also played his first career snap on offense.
- Handled kick return and punt return duties vs. Minnesota (11-5), returning two kick-offs for 55 yards and one punt for two yards. Set a then career-long kick return with a 36-yard runback in the first quarter. Rceived kickoffs in place of Maurice Hicks, who played but did not make returns due to the concussion he suffered the previous week at Chicago.

WHAT'S IN A NUMBER?

After a rookie season where he served as the team's primary punt returner, Brandon is looking to make an impact at wide receiver. He's applied his strategy to all aspects on the field, even changing his number from 17 to 81. "It's all about perception. I wanted a receiver number. I want to be perceived as a receiver." Brandon feels the number change, along with another year in the 49ers system, will help him attain a breakthrough 2007 season. "It's a maturation process. I know the offense is a whole lot better, so I can go out there and know where I have to be. That will help me 100 times more, just knowing the routes and knowing what I have to do."

AMPED UP

Through 13 NFL seasons, Bryant's fingers have gone through countless battles with offensive linemen, opposing running backs and quarterbacks. However, during the off-season, Bryant uses his fingers to play a different tune. He is a musician at heart and plays the electric bass guitar at jazz clubs in the Bay Area. The bass is typically similar in appearance to an electric guitar, but with a larger body, a longer neck and scale length. He says playing music relaxes him and he especially enjoys playing the instrument in a jazz setting.

Game 1
ARIZONA 34, SAN FRANCISCO 27
At Cardinals Stadium, Glendale, AZ
September 10, 2006

The Arizona Cardinals withstood San Francisco's last-minute rally and christened their new stadium with a 34-27 victory. Despite falling behind 21-7 in the first quarter on two fumbles that were converted into 14 Arizona points, the 49ers fought back and fell one play short when QB Alex Smith's final pass into the end zone went incomplete on the game's last play to secure a Cardinals victory. Following a 44-yard field goal by PK Joe Nedney with 34 seconds remaining that closed the gap to 34-27, rookie S Marcus Hudson recovered Nedney's onside kick attempt to set up the dramatic finish. Smith completed a 25-yard pass to WR Antonio Bryant to give San Francisco a first down at the Arizona 36-yard line with just 20 seconds left to play. After spiking the ball to kill the clock, Smith's desperation pass into the end zone was knocked down before TE Vernon Davis and Bryant had a chance to make the catch as time expired. Smith made his first opening day start and threw for a career-high 288 yards, including a 31-yard touchdown pass to Davis to culminate the 49ers first drive of the game. Arizona responded with a touchdown drive to tie the game at 7-7 and then scored 14 points off two 49ers turnovers inside San Francisco territory to take a 21-7 first quarter lead. RB Frank Gore, who accounted for 170 yards of total offense including 87 rushing yards and 83 receiving yards, turned a short pass into a 39-yard gain at the end of the first quarter and then finished the drive with a four-yard touchdown run to cut Arizona's lead 21-14. The Cardinals added a field goal before the end of the second quarter for a 24-14 halftime lead. The 49ers defense sparked a comeback in the third quarter when newly acquired CB Walt Harris forced and recovered a fumble on a sack of QB Kurt Warner deep in Arizona territory. The turnover allowed the 49ers to start their next drive at the seven-yard line, which set up Gore's second touchdown on a two-yard run and closed the Arizona lead to 24-21. The Cardinals started their next drive at their own 14-yard line and converted a key third-and-10 situation into a 19-yard gain to keep an 86-yard drive alive. That series ended with a Warner touchdown for a 31-21 Cardinals lead. A 60-yard punt return by WR Arnaz Battle helped move the 49ers to Arizona's five-yard line midway through the fourth quarter, but the team was forced to settle for a field goal to make the score 31-24, Arizona. The Cardinals chewed more than seven minutes off the clock on their next series, which resulted in a field goal for a 34-24 lead with just 1:41 left to play in regulation. Smith hooked up with Bryant on a 46-yard pass to the Arizona 11-yard line, but Bryant was called for an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty to push the 49ers back to the 26-yard line with 34 seconds to play. Nedney's 44-yard field goal and onsides kick helped put the 49ers in position to tie the game with Smith's final pass to the end zone falling incomplete.

Game 2
SAN FRANCISCO 20, ST. LOUIS 13
At Monster Park, San Francisco, CA
September 17, 2006

The San Francisco 49ers rallied with 14 third-quarter points to overcome a 10-3 halftime deficit in a 20-13 victory over the St. Louis Rams in the 2006 home opener. The third quarter was highlighted by big plays on offense and special teams, including the biggest scoring play of QB Alex Smith's career when he connected with WR Antonio Bryant on a 72-yard touchdown pass. RB Maurice Hicks took the third quarter kickoff and raced for a career-long 59 yards to the St. Louis 34-yard line. Two plays later, RB Frank Gore scored on a 32-yard touchdown run to tie the game at 10-10. After holding the Rams on the ensuing drive, Smith hit Bryant in stride for a 72-yard touchdown to take a 17-10 lead. After a Rams field goal closed the 49ers lead to 17-13 in the fourth quarter, DT Marques Douglas forced St. Louis QB Marc Bulger to fumble on a six-yard sack, allowing DT Isaac Sopoaga to recover at the Rams 17-yard line. The 49ers moved to the two-yard line, but were forced to settle for a PK Joe Nedney field goal and a 20-13 lead. A relentless 49ers defense, which registered six sacks, stopped the Rams final offensive drive and took over with 3:38 left to play. Gore, who pounded out 127 rushing yards for a 4.4-yard average, was able to help the 49ers run out the clock to secure the win and even the 49ers season record to 1-1. San Francisco opened the game with a 32-yard Nedney field goal that was set up when Smith connected with WR Arnaz Battle for a 56-yard gain to the Rams 12-yard line. A 34-yard pass from Smith to Bryant pushed the 49ers inside St. Louis territory on their next possession, but a fumble by Gore on a dive into the end zone from the two-yard line on the first play of the second quarter killed the scoring opportunity. The 49ers defense forced the Rams into a punting situation on the next drive, but the special teams unit was called for a roughing the kicker penalty to keep the drive alive. The Rams took advantage of the situation and converted the drive into a 49-yard field goal to tie the game at 3-3. The Rams scored on their next drive to take a 10-3 lead when Bulger hit WR Torry Holt in the back of the end zone. Smith threw for 233 yards, including passes of 56 yards and 72 yards. Bryant became the first 49ers wide receiver to open his career with consecutive 100-yard games after finishing with 131 yards on four receptions. Rookie LB Manny Lawson registered his first two NFL sacks. The 49ers offensive line, playing without G Larry Allen and T Jonas Jennings on the left side, chalked up 127 yards rushing and did not allow a sack.

Game 3
PHILADELPHIA 38, SAN FRANCISCO 24
At Monster Park, San Francisco, CA
September 24, 2006

QB Alex Smith threw for a career-high 293 yards, and rookie RB Michael Robinson scored two touchdowns, but it was not enough to help the 49ers in a 38-24 loss to the Philadelphia Eagles at Monster Park. The Eagles had big plays on offense and defense that helped lead to 28 points. Eagles QB Donovan McNabb completed 50 and 60-yard passes to set up touchdowns. RB Brian Westbrook broke free for a 71-yard touchdown run, and then in the third quarter, DT Mike Patterson returned a fumble 98 yards. McNabb opened the game with a 50-yard pass on the game's first play to set up a four-yard touchdown run by Westbrook. Philadelphia chalked up 337 yards in total offense in the first half in building a 24-3 halftime lead. The 49ers fought back in the second half behind a strong performance by Smith, who completed 27-of-46 pass attempts for 293 yards, including a 15-yard touchdown pass to TE Eric Johnson. Robinson filled in for RB Frank Gore, who left in the second half with an injury, and scored on a pair of one-yard touchdown runs. The 49ers defense rebounded in the second half, limiting the high powered Eagles to just 79 yards in total offense in the second half. After halftime, the 49ers marched to the Philadelphia one-yard line in the beginning of the third quarter during an attempt to come back from the deficit. Gore was stopped on three attempts from the one-yard line. On his third attempt, Eagles S Brian Dawkins forced a fumble that Patterson picked up and ran 98 yards back for a touchdown to extend the Philadelphia lead to 31-3. The 49ers fought back with touchdown drives on their next two possessions to bring the score to 31-17. A 60-yard pass from McNabb to TE Matt Schobel helped position the Eagles for another touchdown to extend their lead to 38-17. With 5:14 left to play, the 49ers got the ball back and drove down to the Philadelphia 15-yard line. With 10 seconds remaining, Smith connected with Johnson on a 15-yard touchdown for a 38-24 final.

Game 4
KANSAS CITY 41, SAN FRANCISCO 0
At Arrowhead Stadium, Kansas City, KS
October 1, 2006

The Kansas City Chiefs held the visiting San Francisco 49ers fourth-ranked offense to just 10 first downs and 165 total yards in a 41-0 rout at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs converted three 49ers turnovers into 17 points and over 50 percent of their third down attempts. Kansas City backup QB Damon Huard played nearly flawless. He completed all but two of his 15 first-half passes and finished 18-of-23 for 208 yards and two touchdowns. The 49ers entered the game with 12 sacks in their first three games, but did not get a single sack against the Chiefs. After building a 34-0 lead in the fourth quarter, Kansas City PR Dante Hall capped the day with a 60-yard punt returned for a touchdown. After taking a 7-0 lead on the opening drive, Kansas City capitalized on the first of three turnovers. The Chiefs forced and recovered RB Frank Gore's fumble at the San Francisco 25-yard line and converted the turnover into a field goal for a 10-0 first-quarter lead. The Chiefs took a 17-0 lead when they converted two third down plays on a 62-yard drive in the second quarter that was culminated with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Larry Johnson. QB Alex Smith was intercepted for the first time in 2006 when SS Sammy Knight picked off a pass in the second quarter and returned it 27 yards to the 49ers 34-yard line. On the next play Huard connected with WR Eddie Kennison on a 34-yard touchdown pass for a 24-0 lead. The 49ers had their only sustained drive on the next series, moving to the Kansas City 33-yard line where PK Joe Nedney attempted a 51-yard field goal that sailed wide left as time expired in the first half. RB Maurice Hicks returned the second half kickoff 53 yards, but fumbled on the play and Kansas City recovered at their own 49-yard line. The Chiefs moved to the 31-yard line to set up a 49-yard field goal for a 27-0 lead. The 49ers gained just two first downs in the second half and only 52 net yards. Kansas City added 14 points in the fourth quarter to drop the 49ers to a 1-3 season record.

Game 5
SAN FRANCISCO 34, OAKLAND 20
At Monster Park, San Francisco, CA
October 8, 2006

The San Francisco 49ers forced five second-half turnovers to rally from a 13-7 halftime deficit in a 34-20 win over the Oakland Raiders in the Battle of the Bay. The 49ers second half was highlighted by CB Walt Harris' three interceptions and a touchdown by rookie DT Melvin Oliver, who scooped up a Raiders fumble on a muffed backward pass and scored on a 12-yard run. RB Frank Gore and QB Alex Smith both had big games on offense. Gore pounded out 134 rushing yards on 27 carries for a 5.0-yard average. Smith completed 15-of-19 passes for 165 yards and three touchdown passes, including two in the third quarter. After scoring a touchdown on their opening drive with a four-yard touchdown pass from Smith to WR Arnaz Battle, the 49ers had two chances to pull away in the second quarter after the Raiders closed the gap to 7-6, but were stopped on two fourth-and-one attempts deep in Oakland territory. The Raiders capitalized on the second failed attempt by executing a perfect two-minute drill that resulted in a touchdown for a 13-7 halftime lead. The 49ers quickly took control of the game after halftime with a blocked punt that set up a touchdown, a fumble returned for a touchdown and four interceptions that led to 10 points. LB Manny Lawson blocked a Raiders punt on their first second-half drive that positioned the 49ers at the Oakland nine-yard line. It set up Smith's second touchdown pass to Battle to retake the lead at 14-13. Oakland drove to the San Francisco 23-yard line on the ensuing drive and Harris had the first of three interceptions when he picked off a pass in the end zone for a touchback. The 49ers took advantage of the turnover, moving to the 33-yard line, where Smith hit RB Maurice Hicks on a screen pass. Hicks turned it into a 33-yard touchdown after diving over the pylon to put San Francisco in front 21-13 heading into the final quarter of play. S Chad Williams intercepted a Raiders pass early in the fourth quarter and returned it 43 yards to the Oakland 28-yard line to set up a PK Joe Nedney field goal and a 24-13 lead. On the Raiders first play from scrimmage following the kickoff, Oliver scored on a 12-yard fumble return when the Raiders muffed a backward pass. Oakland added a touchdown and the 49ers answered with a field goal for a 34-20 final that improved the 49ers to a 2-3 season record.

Game 6
SAN DIEGO 48, SAN FRANCISCO 19
At Monster Park, San Francisco, CA
October 15, 2006

The San Diego Chargers offense dominated the 49ers in a 48-19 victory at Monster Park. San Diego scored on five of their first six drives to chalk up 35 first half points. Chargers QB Philip Rivers passed for 334 yards and two scores against the 49ers injured secondary that was playing without team captain CB Walt Harris (hamstring). Chargers RB LaDainian Tomlinson was held to 71 yards, but scored four rushing touchdowns. The 49ers offense managed to put in a solid effort, scoring 17 first-half points against a San Diego defense that entered the game ranked first in the NFL. The Chargers gave up more points in the first half to the 49ers than they allowed in any of their first four games. RB Frank Gore averaged 5.5 yards per carry on 10 rushing attempts for 55 yards and QB Alex Smith completed 20-of-31 pass attempts for 214 yards with two touchdown passes. TE Antonio Gates got the Chargers on the board early when he broke free for a 57-yard touchdown. The 49ers responded with a five-play, 74-yard drive that culminated with a 15-yard touchdown pass from Smith to WR Bryan Gilmore to tie the game at 7-7. San Diego took a 14-7 first quarter lead on a five-yard run by Tomlinson before PK Joe Nedney's field goal early in the second quarter closed the gap to 14-10. The Chargers then took a 28-10 lead on two second quarter touchdowns before the 49ers fought back. A 22-yard run by Gilmore off a reverse put the 49ers in position for Smith's two-yard touchdown pass to FB Moran Norris that closed the San Diego lead to 28-17. San Diego began the ensuing drive at its own six-yard line following a penalty on the kickoff. The 49ers appeared to get a break when Rivers was called for intentional grounding in the end zone for a safety. However, on the first play from scrimmage following the free kick the 49ers lost momentum when Smith's pass attempt was batted in the air and intercepted at the San Francisco 24-yard line, leading to a Chargers touchdown.

Game 7
CHICAGO 41, SAN FRANCISCO 10
At Soldier Field, Chicago, IL
October 29, 2006

The Chicago Bears jumped out to a 24-0 first quarter lead and took a 41-0 lead into the half before coasting to a 41-10 victory over the San Francisco 49ers. The Bears converted four first-half turnovers into 28 points, including three turnovers in the first quarter. Four of Chicago's first half scoring drives started inside San Francisco territory due to the three turnovers and a 42-yard punt return. Chicago recovered 49ers fumbles at the San Francisco 15-yard line and 13-yard line, and intercepted a pass at the 49ers 41-yard line in the first quarter. The Bears then returned a punt 42 yards to begin a drive at the San Francisco 24-yard line early in the second quarter that lead to another score. Despite the loss, RB Frank Gore played a solid game as he registered his third 100-yard game of the season with 12 carries for 111 yards. He had a season-long 53-yard run in the fourth quarter to set up the 49ers first points on a 23-yard field goal by PK Joe Nedney. QB Alex Smith stood strong in the pocket against the Bears second-ranked defense, completing 16-of-26 pass attempts for 146 yards, including a 16-yard touchdown pass to WR Antonio Bryant in the fourth quarter. The Bears chalked up 289 yards in the first half and then were held to 113 in the second half. The Bears went ahead 10-0 before the 49ers offense even had a chance to run a single play. After marching down the field for a field goal to open the game, the Bears recovered a RB Maurice Hicks fumble on the ensuing kickoff to begin at the 15-yard line. Two plays later, RB Thomas Jones scored on a seven-yard run for a 10-0 lead. After falling behind 34-0 in the second quarter, Smith tried to get the 49ers back in the game, hitting Bryant on a 16-yard pass to the Chicago 30-yard line. However, Bryant fumbled on a hard hit by SS Todd Johnson and the Bears recovered with 1:12 to play. Instead of running out the clock, Bears QB Rex Grossman executed a perfect two-minute drill down to the San Francisco 27-yard line, where he connected with TE Desmond Clark for a touchdown and a 41-0 lead.

The 49ers offense struggled against one of the league's stingiest defensive fronts in 2006 when the team traveled to Chicago to play against the eventual NFC Champions.

Game 8
SAN FRANCISCO 9, MINNESOTA 3
At Monster Park, San Francisco, CA
November 5, 2006

Three forced turnovers by the 49ers defense combined with a special teams effort that produced three field goals and a successful onside kick helped lead the San Francisco 49ers to a 9-3 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings. The 49ers defense limited the Vikings offense to just 238 total yards and forced QB Brad Johnson to fumble two times and throw one interception. Two of those turnovers were converted into field goals. After spotting the Vikings a field goal on their opening drive, the 49ers defense shut down the Vikings for the final three quarters. The 49ers defensive line was extremely active up front to help hold the Vikings to just 5-of-14 on third downs. PK Joe Nedney accounted for all of the 49ers points, kicking field goals of 25 and 30 yards in the second quarter and then a 51-yarder in the fourth quarter. Pinned deep in San Francisco's own territory with 1:04 left to play, RB Frank Gore gained 11 yards on a run and then slid to remain in bounds to keep the clock running and seal the victory. The 49ers offense struggled against the Vikings defense, gaining just 133 total yards and eight first downs. Nedney tied the game at 3-3 early in the second quarter after QB Alex Smith connected with WR Arnaz Battle for an 18-yard gain to the Minnesota 13-yard line on a third-and-15 situation. On the ensuing drive, DT Marques Douglas forced a fumble on an eight-yard sack of Johnson that was recovered by CB Shawntae Spencer at the Minnesota 21-yard line. It set up a 30-yard field goal by Nedney and a 6-3 lead. The 49ers 6-3 halftime lead was their first halftime lead in 2006. After a scoreless third quarter, the 49ers forced a fumble that helped lead to another Nedney field goal. Minnesota drove to the San Francisco 27-yard line and was threatening when DE Bryant Young and LB Brandon Moore forced Johnson to fumble on a three-yard sack. LB Manny Lawson recovered the loose ball at the 49ers 30-yard line. Smith helped drive the 49ers to the 34-yard line where Nedney nailed a 51-yard field goal for a 9-3 win. Minnesota threatened again late in the fourth quarter, but S Mark Roman broke up a pass on the goal line on fourth-and-seven with 1:10 to play. The 49ers wore their 1989 throw-back jerseys in honor of Alumni festivities that took place at halftime.

Game 9
SAN FRANCISCO 19, DETROIT 13
At Ford Field, Detroit, MI
November 12, 2006

The San Francisco 49ers improved to 4-5 with a 19-13 victory over the Detroit Lions at Ford Field. RB Frank Gore pounded out 159 rushing yards, including a 49ers record for most rushing yards in a half when he chalked up 148 yards in the first half. Gore put the 49ers on the board when he capped the opening drive with a 61-yard touchdown run on a third-and-16 situation. PK Joe Nedney connected on four field goals (28, 23, 23 and 47) for the rest of the 49ers scoring. The offensive line helped the 49ers gain 198 yards on the ground and control the clock for more than 38 minutes. The 49ers defense forced four turnovers with three forced fumbles and a key interception late in the game that helped seal the victory. Detroit threatened late, reaching the San Francisco 19-yard line with 2:41 left to play. On fourth-and-13, Lions QB Jon Kitna was intercepted by S Keith Lewis at the two-yard line. QB Alex Smith completed a seven-yard pass to WR Arnaz Battle on third-and-four that gave the 49ers the one first down they needed to run out the final two minutes to claim the win. San Francisco took a 10-0 lead after capitalizing on a fumble recovery deep in Detroit territory. Lewis set up the first of Nedney's four field goals with a jarring hit on Lions RB Kevin Jones to force a fumble that CB Walt Harris recovered for a 49ers first down at the 32-yard line. San Francisco took a 13-0 lead before Detroit hit on a field goal with 22 seconds to play in the first half for a 13-3 halftime lead. The 49ers had a chance to put the game away in the second half as Detroit had two turnovers on its first three plays, but they came away with only a field goal. On the first play of the second half, CB Shawntae Spencer registered his first NFL sack when he came on a corner blitz and forced Kitna to fumble on a seven-yard sack that was recovered at the Lions 26-yard line to set up a field goal and a 16-3 lead. LB Derek Smith forced a fumble on the next series, but the 49ers failed to capitalize as Smith fumbled on a two-yard scramble. Detroit took advantage, mounting a 10-play drive that ended in a touchdown pass to close the gap to 16-10 heading into the final quarter. Nedney added a 47-yard field goal in the fourth quarter for a 19-10 lead, but Detroit followed with two good drives in the final quarter. The first drive ended in a field goal that cut the 49ers lead to 19-13. Detroit then drove to the San Francisco 19-yard line before Lewis' interception helped seal the win.

Game 10
SAN FRANCISCO 20, SEATTLE 14
At Monster Park, San Francisco, CA
November 19, 2006

The San Francisco 49ers snapped a six-game series losing streak against the Seattle Seahawks with a 20-14 victory over the defending NFC Champions that evened their record at 5-5. RB Frank Gore set a franchise record with 212 rushing yards that included a pair of 50-yard runs with a 51-yard run in the first quarter and a 50-yard run in the third quarter. His 212 yards pushed him over the 1,000-yard mark for the first time in his young career. The 49ers defense continued their streak with five turnovers to give the team 12 in their last three games. After scoring 20 points in the first quarter, it was the defense that clinched the win. The 49ers stopped the Seahawks three times in the final four and a half minutes with a fourth-down tackle, an interception and a forced fumble as the clock expired. The 49ers intercepted Seattle QB Seneca Wallace two times in the first half and then recovered a fumble to culminate in 13 of the 49ers 20 first-half points. Seattle's first drive ended when S Keith Lewis intercepted Wallace at the San Francisco eight-yard line. Gore's 51-yard run on the ensuing drive helped set up PK Joe Nedney's 39-yard field goal for a 3-0 first quarter lead. The 49ers scored 17 unanswered points in the second quarter to take a commanding 20-0 halftime lead. Seattle had two turnovers in the second quarter with another interception and a 49ers fumble recovery that both helped lead to scores. The first turnover led to a nine-yard touchdown pass from QB Alex Smith to WR Arnaz Battle. Gore broke free for a 20-yard run followed by a 23-yard run to help set up a one-yard touchdown run by Smith for a 17-0 lead. Lewis recovered a Seahawks fumble prior to the end of the half inside Seattle territory to lead to a field goal and the 20-0 lead. The Seahawks fought back with two touchdowns in the second half to narrow the 49ers lead to 20-14. The 49ers stopped the Seahawks with 1:53 left to play and appeared to be in position to run out the clock after starting a drive at the Seattle 36-yard line. On the first play, Gore fumbled and Seattle recovered at the 25-yard line with 1:47 to play. On the second play of the Seahawks next series, CB Walt Harris picked off Wallace's pass to give the 49ers the ball back with 1:18 to play. Gore moved to the 49ers nine-yard line, but a Nedney field goal attempt sailed wide right, allowing Seattle to take over with 34 seconds to play. Rookie CB Marcus Hudson forced and recovered a fumble following a completion to seal the victory. Legendary WR Jerry Rice, along with numerous 49ers dignitaries were in attendance to celebrate Rice's retirement as a 49er in a special halftime ceremony.

Game 11
ST. LOUIS 20, SAN FRANCISCO 17
At Edward Jones Dome, St. Louis, MO
November 26, 2006

The St. Louis Rams snapped San Francisco's three-game winning streak with a last-minute touchdown in a 20-17 victory over the visiting 49ers. San Francisco chalked up 171 yards on the ground behind a 134-yard rushing performance by RB Frank Gore and overcame a 13-7 halftime deficit to take a 17-13 lead with 3:54 to play. Leading 14-13 midway through the final period, the 49ers extended their lead to 17-13 on a 13-play, 75-yard drive that chewed 7:34 off the clock. Gore accounted for 40 yards on the drive as the 49ers moved to the St. Louis seven-yard line. RB Michael Robinson was stopped short of the first down marker on third-and-one, forcing a 24-yard field goal by PK Joe Nedney. The Rams took over and converted two fourth downs with QB Marc Bulger completing 9-of-9 passes for 66 yards to advance to the five-yard line with 29 seconds to play. Bulger culminated the drive with a five-yard touchdown pass to WR Kevin Curtis to give the Rams a 20-17 lead. QB Alex Smith was intercepted on the next drive to seal the St. Louis victory. The 49ers took their first lead of the game in the third quarter when Smith converted two third down passes to move the 49ers to the St. Louis one-yard line, where he connected with TE Eric Johnson on a one-yard touchdown pass. The teams played a scoreless first quarter after an apparent 50-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown by CB Walt Harris was challenged by the Rams and reversed. The Rams took a 3-0 lead in the second quarter on a 24-yard field goal by PK Jeff Wilkins. Later in the quarter WR Arnaz Battle fumbled during a punt return, and the Rams recovered at the San Francisco 36-yard line. On the first play from scrimmage, Jackson broke free for a 36-yard touchdown to extend the Rams lead to 10-0. The 49ers responded on the ensuing drive when Smith hit WR Antonio Bryant on a 28-yard pass followed by a 25-yard pass to set up a 12-yard touchdown run by Gore with 1:11 to play to close the gap to 10-7. Bulger was hit hard by DT Bryant Young early on the next drive and was briefly knocked out of the game. Veteran QB Gus Frerotte orchestrated a drive that was kept alive when he connected with Curtis on a 27-yard pass that set up a 51-yard field goal at the buzzer to give the Rams a 13-7 halftime lead. After surrendering 103 rushing yards in the first half to Rams RB Steven Jackson, the 49ers defense held Jackson to just 18 yards rushing in the second half.

Game 12
NEW ORLEANS 34, SAN FRANCISCO 10
At Louisiana Superdome, New Orleans, LA
December 3, 2006

Rookie RB Reggie Bush scored all four of the Saints touchdowns (three rushing and one touchdown reception) and accounted for 168 yards in total offense, including 131 receiving yards on nine catches to help lead the New Orleans Saints to a 34-10 victory over the San Francisco 49ers. RB Frank Gore entered the game as the NFC's leading rusher, but was held to just 40 yards against a stingy Saints defense that limited the 49ers to just 10 first downs. After falling behind 14-3 at the half, the 49ers took advantage of the New Orleans eight-man fronts when QB Alex Smith connected with WR Antonio Bryant on a 48-yard touchdown pass on the 49ers first offensive possession of the second half to close the gap to 14-10. PK Joe Nedney executed a perfect onside kick to follow that was recovered by RB Michael Robinson at the San Francisco 41-yard line. Any momentum the 49ers gained was killed on the next play when Bryant slipped on a passing route, allowing Saints CB Mike McKenzie to intercept Smith's pass. McKenzie returned the ball 54 yards to the San Francisco six-yard line to set up a field goal and a 17-10 New Orleans lead. McKenzie appeared to fumble on the return, allowing the 49ers to recover at the one. However, the play was challenged by New Orleans and revered to keep the Saints in scoring position. The 49ers offense generated just 52 yards the rest of the way, and Smith threw two more interceptions as New Orleans scored 20 unanswered points for a 34-10 final. The Saints came up big on third down on two of their second half touchdown drives. On third-and-eight, QB Drew Brees scrambled up the middle for 16 yards to keep a drive alive. The gain prompted a five-yard touchdown pass to Bush for a 24-10 lead heading into the final quarter. Then on third-and-11 in the fourth quarter, Brees completed a short pass to Bush, who raced 74 yards before being pushed out of bounds at the San Francisco 18-yard line. Two plays later, Bush scored on a 10-yard run for a 31-10 lead. The 49ers jumped on board first with a 29-yard field goal by Nedney at the end of the first quarter. Saints PR Michael Lewis returned the kickoff 47 yards to help set up a one-yard touchdown run by Bush to give the Saints the lead at 7-3. New Orleans went on a 12-play, 57-yard drive that ended in an eight-yard run by Bush with 43 seconds to play in the first half to go ahead 14-3 at the break. RB Deuce McAllister rushed for 136 yards to lead a Saints attack that produced 190 yards on the ground.

Game 13
GREEN BAY 30, SAN FRANCISCO 19
At Monster Park, San Francisco, CA
December 10, 2006

The Green Bay Packers capitalized on three 49ers turnovers and two explosive touchdown passes by QB Brett Favre to beat the 49ers 30-19 at Monster Park. Favre amassed 293 passing yards to win 11 of 12 meetings against the 49ers throughout his 15-year NFL career. Favre's play-action fakes and pump fakes helped fool the 49ers secondary, leading to a 36-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter and then a 68-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter. The turning point of the game came early in the third quarter. The 49ers closed the Green Bay lead to 17-13 after taking the second half kickoff and engineering an 11-play, 79-yard drive that resulted in a one-yard touchdown run by RB Frank Gore. After pinning Green Bay at its own three-yard line later in the third quarter, the 49ers fielded a Packers punt and began a drive at midfield. Two plays later, QB Alex Smith rolled to his right and appeared to have TE Vernon Davis wide open with a clear shot at the end zone. Instead the pass was underthrown and intercepted by Green Bay FS Nick Collins. Two plays later, Favre used his trademark pump fake to complete a pass to WR Donald Driver that resulted in a 68-yard touchdown and a 24-13 Packers lead. Smith threw his second interception of the day in the fourth quarter when he was picked off by Green Bay LB A.J. Hawk in the end zone on a pass intended for Davis. Gore had a big day rushing with a franchise record seventh 100-yard game after accumulating 130 yards on 19 carries for a 6.8-yard average. Gore set up the 49ers first score when he broke free for a 72-yard gain to help set up a field goal. Despite his success, a costly fumble by Gore at the San Francisco eight-yard line set up a Green Bay field goal and a 10-3 Packers lead early in the second quarter. Favre gave Green Bay a lead they would never relinquish in the first quarter when he executed a perfect play-action fake and then threw a 36-yard pass to WR Ruvell Martin for a touchdown and a 7-3 Packers advantage. Driver caught nine passes for 160 yards to shred a 49ers secondary that was missing starter CB Shawntae Spencer (ankle) and reserve CB Donald Strickland, who was forced out of the game with a knee injury in the first quarter. Late in the game, Davis was able to turn a short pass into a 52-yard touchdown by breaking a few tackles and bulldozing his way into the end zone.

Game 14
SAN FRANCISCO 24, SEATTLE 14
At Qwest Field, Seattle, WA
December 14, 2006

The San Francisco 49ers completed a series sweep of the Seattle Seahawks after producing 21 points in the fourth quarter for a 24-14 victory in a nationally-televised Thursday night game on the NFL Network. QB Alex Smith accounted for three fourth-quarter touchdowns with passes to TE Vernon Davis and RB Frank Gore and his own 18-yard touchdown run. Gore gained 144 of the 49ers 228 yards on the ground, including 106 yards in the fourth quarter. The 49ers offense struggled for the first three quarters. They were limited to just four first downs before the breakout fourth quarter that saw the team gain 196 total yards to rally for the comeback. After going three-and-out in eight of their first nine drives, the 49ers went on three straight touchdown drives – an 11-play, 102-yard drive, a 10-play, 78-yard drive and then a six-play, 86-yard drive. Smith played arguably the best quarter of his young career, jump starting the 49ers offense when he completed a 54-yard pass to WR Arnaz Battle on the last play of the third quarter for a first down at the Seattle 33-yard line. After firing a 13-yard strike to Battle on third-and-10, Smith connected with Davis for a touchdown that gave the 49ers a 10-7 lead. Davis was flagged on the touchdown for excessive celebration, forcing the 49ers to kick off from their own 15-yard line. A 28-yard kickoff return allowed Seattle to begin the ensuing drive inside San Francisco territory at the 36-yard line. The 49ers defense stopped Seattle on both third-and-one and fourth-and-one attempts, and the 49ers offense responded by converting two third-down plays on a drive that reached the Seattle 20-yard line to set up Smith's 20-yard touchdown pass to Gore for a 17-7 49ers lead. CB Shawntae Spencer intercepted QB Matt Hasselbeck's pass on the next drive, and a 40-yard run by Gore helped position the 49ers at the Seattle 18-yard line, where Smith scored on a run off a bootleg fake for a 24-7 lead. Seattle scored with 18 seconds left for a 24-14 finale. Seattle took a 7-0 first quarter lead and appeared ready to go into halftime with that lead, but the 49ers lined up to punt from their own 43-yard line and Head Coach Mike Nolan called a fake. The snap was directed to RB Michael Robinson for a 33-yard gain to the Seattle 24-yard line to get into position for a 39-yard PK Joe Nedney field goal. Seattle took the second half kickoff and marched to the San Francisco 20-yard line. Hasselbeck was intercepted by S Mark Roman in the end zone to snuff a scoring chance and swing the momentum to the 49ers.

QB Alex Smith led the 49ers to a 21-point fourth quarter comeback win at Seattle. With under a minute to play, Smith sealed the victory with an 18-yard fake bootleg into the end zone.

Game 15
ARIZONA 26, SAN FRANCISCO 20
At Monster Park, San Francisco, CA
December 24, 2006

The San Francisco 49ers needed a victory over Arizona to remain in the playoff hunt heading into the final week of the season, but the Cardinals controlled the ball for the final five minutes to secure a 26-20 victory and eliminate the 49ers from playoff contention. RB Frank Gore scored on a one-yard run to get within seven points with 4:56 to play. Backup QB Kurt Warner, subbing for an injured QB Matt Leinart, converted a key third-and-four attempt to get down to the two-minute mark. With no timeouts left for the 49ers, Warner took a knee to run out the clock and hand the 49ers a loss that dropped them to 6-9. After falling behind 20-6 at halftime, the 49ers had opportunities to get back in the game. The first chance occurred in the third quarter when LB Brandon Moore stripped Cardinals PR Troy Walters of the football on a return, allowing RB Maurice Hicks to recover at the Arizona 46-yard line. A 13-yard run by Gore and a 13-yard pass from QB Alex Smith to TE Vernon Davis helped set up a two-yard touchdown run by Gore to close the gap to 20-13. Arizona responded with a drive into San Francisco territory, but the defense managed to hold the Cardinals to a field goal on the first play of the fourth quarter to keep the game in reach at 23-13. The 49ers first two drives in the fourth quarter resulted in turnovers. Following the Cardinals fourth quarter field goal, Hicks returned the ensuing kickoff for a career-long 64 yards to the Arizona 34-yard line. The scoring chance was killed on the first play from scrimmage when Smith was intercepted by CB Antrel Rolle. The 49ers defense stopped the Cardinals on the next series, but turned the ball over on the first play of the next drive. WR Arnaz Battle was stripped of the football after trying to fight for more yards on a short pass from Smith. Arizona recovered at the San Francisco 18-yard line and converted the turnover into a 32-yard field goal to increase its lead to 26-13. A 44-yard pass from Smith to Davis on the next series helped get the 49ers in position for a one-yard touchdown run by Gore to make it 26-20 with just under five minutes to play in the game. Arizona started at its own 25-yard line and reached the San Francisco 24-yard line before taking a knee to run out the final two minutes. Gore opened the game with an 11-yard run followed by a 15-yard carry to set up a field goal for a 3-0 lead on the game's opening drive. The Cardinals countered with scoring drives on their first four possessions to take a 20-3 lead. But Smith connected with Davis on a 29-yard pass to set up a field goal with 22 seconds left to play in the first half to cut the Cardinals lead 20-6 at the break.

Game 16
SAN FRANCISCO 26, DENVER 23 (overtime)
At Invesco Field at Mile High, Denver, CO
December 31, 2006

The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 13-0 deficit to pull out a 26-23 win over the Denver Broncos at Invesco Field at Mile High. The 49ers played the role of spoilers when the victory knocked the Broncos out of the playoffs. The 49ers come-from-behind win was led by three outstanding individual efforts: RB Frank Gore gained 153 rushing yards, PK Joe Nedney kicked four field goals along with the game winner in overtime, and CB Walt Harris snagged two interceptions, including a 28-yard touchdown return in the third quarter. WR Bryan Gilmore had two key plays in overtime to advance the 49ers into field goal range for the game winning kick. During the first half, a strong 49ers goal-line defense helped limit Denver to a pair of field goals on drives that were stopped when the Broncos were in first-and-goal situations. The 49ers defense again held Denver to a field goal in the third quarter when the Broncos had a first-and-goal inside the five-yard line. Denver went ahead 13-0 in the second quarter when CB Champ Bailey took a deflected theft 70 yards into the end zone. Nedney booted a 46-yard field goal to put the score at 13-3 in Denver's favor at the end of the half. San Francisco rallied in the second half, converting its first series into a 12-play, 76-yard touchdown drive. FB Moran Norris caught a short pass from Smith and weaved in and out of traffic for a 32-yard touchdown. The 49ers took the lead on the ensuing drive when Harris picked off QB Jay Cutler and went 28 yards untouched for a touchdown that gave the 49ers a 17-13 lead. Denver responded with a field goal on the next series, but the 49ers added two field goals in the fourth quarter for a 23-16 advantage with 6:14 to play in regulation. Cutler completed a nine-yard touchdown pass to TE Tony Scheffler to tie the game at 23-23 and send it into overtime. Denver won the coin toss, but was forced to punt on two drives before a 12-yard return by PR Brandon Williams allowed the 49ers to start their game-winning drive at their own 39-yard line. Gilmore gained 20 yards on an end route and then caught a 14-yard pass from QB Alex Smith for a first down at the Denver 25-yard line. Two plays later, Nedney kicked a 36-yard field goal to give San Francisco the win.

49ERS PLAYOFF HISTORY

'57 Detroit Lions 31, 49ers 27
NFL Divisional Playoff
December 22 at Kezar Stadium (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco made its first playoff appearance as an NFL team a memorable one, but came up a bit short against the Detroit Lions at venerable Kezar Stadium.

QB Y.A. Tittle completed 18-of-31 passes for 248 yards and three touchdowns for the 49ers. Tittle connected with HB R.C. Owens on a 34-yard scoring toss to record the first ever postseason touchdown for San Francisco. He also had touchdown connections with RB Hugh McElhenny and WR Billy Wilson. McElhenny caught six passes for a game-high 96 yards and rushed for 82 yards on 14 carries.

'70 49ers 17, Minnesota 14
NFC Divisional Playoff
December 27 at Metropolitan Stadium (Bloomington, MN)

QB John Brodie scored on a one-yard run with just under two minutes remaining to provide the difference as the 49ers claimed a 17-14 decision over Minnesota at a frigid Metropolitan Stadium.

San Francisco was trailing 7-0 in the first quarter when Brodie connected with WR Dick Witcher on a 24-yard scoring toss. Brodie completed 16-of-32 passes for 201 yards and one touchdown.

NFC Championship
January 3 at Kezar Stadium (San Francisco, CA)

QB John Brodie passed for 262 yards and one touchdown, but it wasn't enough as the Cowboys advanced to Super Bowl V with a 17-10 win over the 49ers at Kezar Stadium.

RB Duane Thomas rushed for 143 yards and scored on a 13-yard run in the third quarter to put Dallas ahead 10-3. Later in the quarter QB Craig Morton connected with RB Walt Garrison on a five-yard toss to put the Cowboys up 17-3.

San Francisco would add to its final score on its next possession with a 26-yard Brodie-to-WR Dick Witcher touchdown, capping an eight-play, 73-yard drive.

NFC Divisional Playoff
December 26 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB John Brodie completed 10-of-19 passes for 176 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a 24-20 win over Washington at a wet and windy Candlestick Park.

Brodie hit WR Gene Washington on a 78-yard play for his first touchdown of the game that helped tie the score at 10-10. On the next 49ers possession Brodie connected with WR Bob Windsor on a two-yard toss into the corner of the end zone that led to a 17-10 lead.

The 49ers would insure the victory when DT Bob Hoskins pounced on an errant snap from center and recovered it for a touchdown with just under three minutes remaining in the game. LB Frank Nunley led the defensive effort with 11 tackles and a blocked field goal.

'71 Dallas Cowboys 14, 49ers 3
January 2 at Texas Stadium (Irving, TX)

San Francisco and Dallas combined for just 483 yards of total offense in a low-scoring affair at Texas Stadium. The Cowboys received rushing touchdowns from RB Calvin Hill and RB Duane Thomas as they posted a 14-3 win and earned a bid to Super Bowl VI.

San Francisco was paced offensively by RB Vic Washington with 86 yards of total offense. QB John Brodie completed 14-of-30 passes for 184 yards, but was intercepted three times.

DE Cedrick Hardman had a big game with 12 tackles, including two sacks. DE Tommy Hart and LB Frank Nunley had 11 tackles each.

NFC Divisional Playoff
December 23 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Roger Staubach came off the bench to rally the Dallas Cowboys with two touchdown passes in the closing minutes of regulation to post a 30-28 come-from-behind win over the 49ers.

Staubach connected with WR Billy Parks on a 20-yard touchdown with 1:30 remaining in the game. On the ensuing onside kick the Cowboys recovered and three plays later Staubach connected with WR Ron Sellers for the game winner.

The outcome overshadowed several sparkling individual efforts for the 49ers. RB Vic Washington set a club record with his 97-yard touchdown return on the opening kickoff. RB Larry Schreiber also established a then club record by scoring three rushing touchdowns.

LB Ed Beard led the Niners defense with 10 tackles while DE Cedrick Hardman added three sacks.

'81 49ers 38, New York Giants 24
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 3 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1972 and posted its first postseason win since 1971 with a 38-24 triumph over the visiting New York Giants.

Aiding the 49ers cause was CB Ronnie Lott, who intercepted two passes, including one he returned 20 yards for a touchdown, and recorded five tackles.

Offensively, the Niners were paced by QB Joe Montana, who completed 20-of-31 passes for 304 yards and two touchdowns. Montana hit TE Charle Young on an eight-yard toss in the first quarter and connected with WR Freddie Solomon on a 58-yard strike in the second. Solomon finished the day with six receptions for 107 yards. He was joined by WR Dwight Clark who had five receptions for 104 yards.

'81 49ers 28, Dallas Cowboys 27
NFC Championship
January 10 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

In the most memorable playoff game to date, the 49ers and Cowboys staged an epic battle. In what was a fitting end for some and a heartbreaking one for others, it was the 49ers who came out on top 28-27.

QB Joe Montana capped a brilliant day with a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Dwight Clark late in the fourth quarter to overcome a six-point deficit. "The Catch," as it would come to be known, capped a 13-play, 89-yard drive that took over four minutes off the clock.

Montana finished the day with 286 yards on 22-of-35 passing and three touchdowns. Clark had one of his finest days, posting eight receptions for 120 yards and two touchdowns.

CB Carlton Williamson led the defensive charge with 12 tackles. LB Jack Reynolds added nine stops and DT Archie Reese added six.

'81 49ers 26, Cincinnati Bengals 21
Super Bowl XVI
January 24 at Silverdome (Pontiac, MI)

QB Joe Montana accounted for two first half touchdowns and K Ray Wersching added two field goals as San Francisco built a 20-0 lead at the half and held on for a 26-21 victory over the Bengals for its first Super Bowl Championship.

Montana scored on a one-yard run in the first quarter and in the second he led the team on a 12-play, 92-yard drive that resulted in an 11-yard scoring toss to FB Earl Cooper. For the game, Montana completed 14-of-22 passes for 157 yards.

Wersching also had an impressive outing. The veteran kicker connected on all four field goal attempts in the game, hitting from 22, 26, 40 and 23 yards.

The 49ers defense kept the potent Bengals attack in check for much of the game. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson warmed up in the second half with three touchdowns, two of them on pass plays to TE Dan Ross, but two fourth quarter field goals by Wersching put the game out of reach.

LB Jack Reynolds keyed the 49ers defense with seven tackles and one sack. LB Bob Leopold also recorded seven tackles and NT Archie Reese added six stops.

'83 49ers 24, Detroit Lions 23
NFC Divisional Playoff
December 31 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

WR Freddie Solomon caught a 14-yard touchdown pass from QB Joe Montana with two minutes remaining to give San Francisco a 24-23 win over the visiting Detroit Lions and earn a berth in the NFC Championship Game.

San Francisco's defense kept the team alive on several occasions, intercepting Detroit QB Gary Danielson five times. LB Riki Ellison had two interceptions while LB Keena Turner, S Dwight Hicks and CB Ronnie Lott had one apiece.

RB Wendell Tyler and RB Roger Craig each scored a touchdown for San Francisco. Tyler rushed for 74 yards on 17 carries and also caught two passes for 15 yards. Craig led the Niners in receiving with seven receptions for 61 yards.

'83 Washington Redskins 24, 49ers 21
NFC Championship
January 8 at RFK Stadium (Washington, DC)

Mark Moseley connected on a 25-yard field goal with 40 seconds remaining to hand San Francisco a heartbreaking 24-21 defeat in the NFC Championship Game at RFK Stadium.

The defeat was especially hard to swallow after the 49ers fought back from a 21-0 deficit with 21 fourth-quarter points. QB Joe Montana hit WR Mike Wilson on a five-yard scoring strike 30 seconds into the fourth, snapping the shutout. On the next 49ers possession, Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 76-yard bomb to pull within seven at 21-14.

The Redskins went three-and-out on their next possession, which led to another Montana-to-Wilson touchdown and a tie ballgame. Unfortunately for the 49ers, the Redskins would launch a six-minute drive that led to the Moseley field goal and the end of the season.

Montana finished the game with his typically excellent numbers: 27-of-48 for 347 yards and three touchdowns. Solomon caught eight passes for 106 yards and one touchdown.

DT Pete Kugler led the defensive charge with 10 tackles. He was joined by S Carlton Williamson with eight tackles and LBs Riki Ellison and Keena Turner had six stops each.

'84 49ers 21, New York Giants 10
NFC Divisional Playoff
December 29 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana rushed for 63 yards, passed for 309 yards and the 49ers earned a date in the NFC Championship Game with a 21-10 win over the New York Giants.

San Francisco drew first blood when Montana hooked up with his favorite target, WR Dwight Clark, on a 21-yard scoring toss just three minutes into the first quarter. Clark would finish the day with 112 yards on nine receptions.

On the Giants next possession, it was S Ronnie Lott who intercepted a QB Phil Simms pass and returned it 38 yards to the New York 12-yard line. Two plays later, Montana hit TE Russ Francis on a nine-yard strike to extend the lead to 14-0.

New York would pull within three following LB Harry Carson's interception and touchdown return off a tipped Montana pass seven minutes into the second quarter. Three minutes later, the 49ers answered when Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 29-yard scoring completion to put San Francisco up 21-10.

DE Fred Dean recorded seven tackles and two sacks for the inspired 49ers defense. LB Jack Reynolds added five tackles.

Super Bowl XIX
January 20 at Stanford Stadium (Palo Alto, CA)

QB Joe Montana passed for 331 yards and accounted for four touchdowns to lead San Francisco to a 38-16 win over the Miami Dolphins. For his efforts, Montana was named Super Bowl MVP for the second time in his career. The game was played at nearby Stanford Stadium in Palo Alto in front of 84,059 fans.

Montana's first touchdown of the day came on a 33-yard strike to RB Carl Monroe late in the first quarter. He followed that with an eight-yard scoring toss to RB Roger Craig in the second quarter. On the next 49ers possession, Montana added his third score of the day, this time taking it in himself on a six-yard run.

His fourth and final score came on a 16-yard pass to Craig midway through the third quarter. Craig also had an impressive day totaling 135 yards of total offense and added two scores.

San Francisco rolled up an impressive 537 yards of total offense in the game, including 211 rushing yards.

S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright each intercepted a QB Dan Marino pass. LB Keena Turner led the team with six tackles.

'87 Minnesota Vikings 36, 49ers 24
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 9 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

Minnesota WR Anthony Carter and K Chuck Nelson each established NFL postseason records as the Vikings posted a 36-24 win over hometown San Francisco at Candlestick Park.

Carter caught 10 passes from QB Wade Wilson for an NFL postseason record 227 yards. Carter broke the old record of 198 yards that was set by E Tom Fears of the Los Angeles Rams in 1950 against the Chicago Bears.

Nelson set his record by kicking five field goals, breaking the old mark of four that was done eight times.

San Francisco was led offensively by QB Steve Young, who spelled QB Joe Montana early in the second half. Young completed 12-of-17 passes for 158 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team-high 72 yards on six carries and had a five-yard touchdown run.

S Jeff Fuller established a new 49ers postseason record when he returned an interception 48 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter. LB Mike Walter posted nine tackles and S Ronnie Lott added eight.

'88 49ers 34, Minnesota Vikings 9
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 1 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice entered the NFL record books as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 34-9 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick.

Rice set a record, that he shares with five other players, with three touchdown receptions. He scored on receptions of two, four and 11 yards, all thrown by QB Joe Montana. Rice closed the day with five receptions for 61 yards.

Craig entered the record book courtesy of his 80-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. The run was the longest touchdown run and the longest run from scrimmage in team postseason history. Craig broke the old record established by RB Marcus Allen with his 74-yard touchdown run against the Washington Redskins in 1983. Craig finished the day with 135 yards on 21 carries and two touchdowns.

The 49ers defense also posted a strong day, recording six sacks, two interceptions and one fumble recovery. S Ronnie Lott had a big day with four tackles, two interceptions and three passes defensed. DE Larry Roberts recorded two and a half sacks.

'88 49ers 28, Chicago Bears 3
NFC Championship
January 8 at Soldier Field (Chicago, IL)

Game time temperatures were in the teens and the wind chill was 26 below zero, but the San Francisco 49ers were hot, as they rolled to a 28-3 win over the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field.

QB Joe Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 61-yard scoring toss in the first quarter and a 27-yard scoring toss in the second as the 49ers took a 14-3 lead into the half. In the third quarter, it was again the mastery of Montana, who connected with TE John Frank on a five-yard touchdown pass to extend the lead to 21-3.

FB Tom Rathman capped a solid day with a four-yard burst into the end zone with 8:07 remaining in the fourth quarter. Rathman finished with 36 yards rushing and caught five passes for 51 yards.

The San Francisco defensive charge was led by LB Mike Walter, who posted a game-high 11 tackles and forced a fumble. S Jeff Fuller recorded nine tackles and intercepted a pass.

Offensively, Rice finished with 11 receptions for 133 yards and two touchdowns while Montana completed 17-of-27 passes for 288 yards.

Super Bowl XXIII
January 22 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco its third NFL Championship. QB Joe Montana connected on 23-of-36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last.

The game opened at a stand still with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first quarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34-yard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3-3 tie.

The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown draught. Following a 49ers field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown.

It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31-yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40-yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10-yard touchdown.

An 11-play, 46-yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46-yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16-13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eight-yard line. What happened next is legendary.

Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27-yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10-yard line. Following the timeout, Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had its third Super Bowl title of the decade.

'89 49ers 41, Minnesota Vikings 13
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 6 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana threw four touchdown passes and RB Roger Craig rushed for 118 yards as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 41-13 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick Park.

The Vikings opened the scoring on a K Rich Karlis field goal nine minutes into the first quarter, but from that point on it was all San Francisco. The 49ers erupted for 28 consecutive points before halftime to put the game away early.

Just 20 seconds after the Vikings initial score, Montana connected with WR Jerry Rice for the first of his four touchdown passes of the afternoon. The play started simply enough before, in true Rice fashion, he turned a seven-yard gain into a 72-yard touchdown. Following an interception by S Chet Brooks, Montana hit TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard touchdown pass and the rout was on.

Montana would add touchdown passes to WR John Taylor and another to Rice before handing the game over to reserve QB Steve Young. On the day, Montana completed 17-of-24 passes for 241 yards.

The 49ers defense would also contribute a score, courtesy of S Ronnie Lott, who intercepted a QB Tommy Kramer pass and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown.

'89 49ers 30, Los Angeles Rams 3
NFC Championship
January 14 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

The 49ers defense intercepted QB Jim Everett three times and held the Los Angeles Rams to 156 yards of total offense as San Francisco earned its fourth trip to the Super Bowl of the decade with a 30-3 win at Candlestick Park in the NFC Championship Game.

San Francisco QB Joe Montana was superb in his direction of the 49ers offense, completing 26-of-30 passes for 262 yards and two touchdowns. His first touchdown pass of the game came with 11:27 remaining in the second quarter when he hit TE Brent Jones on a 20-yard strike to give the 49ers a 7-3 lead.

CB Tim McKyer intercepted an Everett pass giving the 49ers possession at the Los Angeles 27-yard line. A five-play drive culminated in a one-yard touchdown run by RB Roger Craig.

It wouldn't take long for San Francisco to strike again. Gaining possession with 3:10 remaining in the second, Montana calmly directed a 14-play, 97-yard drive that ended with an 18-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor.

K Mike Cofer accounted for the final nine points on three field goals in the second half.

Offensively, Montana was joined by Craig, who rushed for 94 yards on 24 carries. WR Jerry Rice caught six passes for 55 yards and FB Tom Rathman added 63 yards rushing and 48 yards receiving.

'89 49ers 55, Denver Broncos 10
Super Bowl XXIV
January 28 at Louisiana Superdome (New Orleans, LA)

WR Jerry Rice scored three touchdowns, FB Tom Rathman scored twice and QB Joe Montana earned his third Super Bowl MVP award as the San Francisco 49ers cruised to their fourth NFL Championship of the decade with a resounding 55-10 win over the Denver Broncos. The game was played before a crowd of 72,919 at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans, LA.

Rice scored on touchdown catches of 20, 38 and 28 yards en route to a seven-reception, 148-yard outing. Rathman scored his two touchdowns on runs of one and three yards.

The real story of the game was the play of Montana. He completed a sensational 22-of-29 passes for 297 yards and five touchdowns. He was masterful in his direction of the 49ers offense, leading the team on scoring drives of 66, 69 and 71 yards.

The 49ers defense proved to be as devastating as the offense. San Francisco harassed Denver QB John Elway all game, intercepting him twice and sacking him on six occasions. DE Daniel Stubbs led the way with two sacks and was joined by four others who had one sack each. DE Kevin Fagan had six tackles and LB Matt Millen added five.

'90 49ers 28, Washington Redskins 10
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 12 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana completed 22-of-31 passes for 274 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a 28-10 win over the visiting Washington Redskins.

The Redskins opened the scoring on a 31-yard touchdown reception from QB Mark Rypien to WR Art Monk. The 49ers answered with a one-yard touchdown run by FB Tom Rathman that capped an eight-play, 74-yard drive to tie the score at 7-7.

Washington added a 44-yard field goal by K Chip Lohmiller just before the end of the first quarter to take a 10-7 lead. That would be all of the scoring for the Redskins as the 49ers would reel off 21 consecutive points over the next three quarters.

Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 10-yard strike to complete a 10-play drive, giving San Francisco its first lead of the game four minutes into the second quarter. Five minutes later, the 49ers would extend their lead to 21-10 thanks to an eight-yard touchdown pass from Montana to WR Mike Sherrard.

It was the 49ers defense that would cap the scoring for the day. Following a scoreless third quarter, DT Michael Carter intercepted a Rypien pass that had been tipped by DE Charles Haley and returned it 61 yards for a touchdown.

CB Don Griffin and DE Kevin Fagan had seven tackles each to lead the 49ers defense.

'90 New York Giants 15, 49ers 13
NFC Championship
January 20 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

Kickers and defense were the story of the day at Candlestick as the Giants used five field goals from K Matt Bahr and the Giants defense held San Francisco to 39 yards on the ground to defeat the 49ers 15-13.

In the first two quarters, it was Bahr and 49ers K Mike Cofer who provided all the scoring. Bahr connected on a pair of field goals from 28 and 42 yards out. Cofer added field goals of 47 and 35 yards, and the teams entered the half in a 6-6 tie.

San Francisco opened the scoring in the third quarter on a 61-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor from QB Joe Montana to take a 13-6 lead. From that point on, it was all New York and Matt Bahr.

Bahr kicked field goals of 46 and 38 yards to pull the Giants within one at 13-12 with 5:47 remaining. San Francisco took over at its own 20-yard line, but five plays later DT Erik Howard forced a 49ers fumble and LB Lawrence Taylor recovered at the Giants 43-yard line with 2:36 remaining. A pair of QB Jeff Hostetler completions to TE Mark Bavaro and WR Stephen Baker had the Giants in field goal range at the 49ers 29-yard line with 1:10 remaining in the contest. Three plays later Bahr added his fifth field goal of the day, this one from 42 yards away, as time expired.

Montana completed 18-of-26 passes for 190 yards and one touchdown. Taylor caught two passes for 75 yards, including the 61-yard touchdown. WR Jerry Rice added five catches for 54 yards.

Defensively, San Francisco was led by LB Bill Romanowski's seven tackles. DT Jim Burt, DT Pierce Holt and DE Charles Haley added one sack each.

'92 49ers 20, Washington Redskins 13
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 9 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw for 227 yards, including two touchdown passes, and rushed for an additional 73 yards to lead San Francisco to a hard fought 20-13 win over the visiting Redskins at Candlestick Park.

Young tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor to open the scoring at the 11:48 mark of the first quarter. The teams traded field goals, and then Young hit TE Brent Jones on a 16-yard scoring strike and K Mike Cofer added the extra point to give San Francisco a 17-3 lead at halftime.

The Redskins answered with 10 consecutive points on a K Chip Lohmiller field goal and a QB Mark Rypien one-yard touchdown plunge to cut the 49ers lead to 17-13. The locals responded with a 14-play, 59-yard drive that resulted in a 33-yard Cofer field goal with 2:22 remaining.

The San Francisco defense did the rest, sacking Rypien four times on its final drive before forcing the Redskins to turn the ball over on downs.

DT Pierce Holt had four tackles, including three sacks, to pace a determined Niners defense. CB Don Griffin posted a team-high six stops in the victory.

'92 Dallas Cowboys 30, 49ers 20
NFC Championship
January 17 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Troy Aikman completed 24-of-34 passes for 322 yards and two touchdowns as the Cowboys claimed a 30-20 win over the 49ers. The game was played before 64,920 fans at a rainy Candlestick Park.

Dallas opened the scoring with a 20-yard field goal by K Lin Elliott. The 49ers answered with a one-yard run by QB Steve Young to take a 7-3 lead after the first quarter. Cowboy RB Emmitt Smith scored the first of his two touchdowns on a four-yard run at the 5:05 mark of the second quarter to put Dallas up 10-7. San Francisco tied the score three minutes later on a 28-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer.

FB Daryl Johnston scored the first points of the second half on a three-yard run at the 10:45 mark of the third quarter to put the Cowboys ahead 17-10. Cofer added a field goal for the 49ers to make the score 17-13 heading into the fourth quarter.

It was a battle between Aikman and Young in the fourth. Aikman hit Smith on a 16-yard scoring strike at the 12:25 mark, extending the Dallas lead to 24-13. Young answered back with a nine play, 93-yard drive resulting in a five-yard scoring toss to WR Jerry Rice to trim the Cowboys lead to 24-20. It didn't take long for Dallas to respond. On a first and 10 from their own 21, Aikman hit WR Alvin Harper on a crossing pattern that Harper turned into a 70-yard completion. Three plays later Aikman hit WR Kelvin Martin for a six-yard touchdown to secure the win.

Rice had an outstanding day receiving, finishing with eight catches for 123 yards and one touchdown. Young completed 25-of-35 passes for 313 yards and one touchdown.

CB Eric Davis had six tackles to lead the 49ers defense. S Dana Hall, CB Don Griffin and LB Bill Romanowski added five tackles each. DT Ted Washington and DE Kevin Fagan had two sacks each for San Francisco.

'93 49ers 44, New York Giants 3
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 15 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

It was a wattered down 49ers attack at Candlestick Park as RB Ricky Watters established an NFL single-game playoff record with five rushing touchdowns in the 44-3 win over the visting New York Giants.

Watters scored on runs of one, one, two, six and two yards as he compiled 118 rushing yards on 24 carries. He also caught a team-high five passes for 46 yards from QB Steve Young, who finished the day completing 17-of-22 passes for 226 yards in the victory.

The 49ers defense stepped up their play in the win as well. New York was held to 194 total yards, with only 41 yards rushing. DT Dana Stubblefield had two sacks and LB Bill Romanowski added a team-high five tackles.

The game was marked by several milestone events:

- Attendance of 67,143 set a 49ers and Candlestick Park record (since broken).
- 44 points are most scored by 49ers in an NFC Playoff Game.
- Watters sets NFL single-game record for postseason rushing touchdowns (5), postseason touchdowns (5) and points scored (30).

'93 Dallas Cowboys 38, 49ers 21
NFC Championship
January 23 at Texas Stadium (Irving, TX)

The Cowboys broke a 7-7 tie by scoring 21 unanswered points in the second quarter and that proved to be the difference in their 38-21 win over the visiting 49ers.

The game was played before 64,902 at Texas Stadium.

The Cowboys opened the scoring on a five-yard touchdown run by RB Emmit Smith at 8:14 of the first quarter. San Francisco responded with a seven-yard touchdown reception by FB Tom Rathman from QB Steve Young early in the second quarter to tie the score. That would be as close as the 49ers would get, as Dallas answered with a 21-point outburst in the final 10 minutes of the second quarter to take a 28-7 halftime lead.

San Francisco scored its second touchdown of the game at the 5:47 mark of the third quarter. RB Ricky Watters capped a six-play, 43-yard drive with a four-yard scamper into the end zone. Dallas sealed the game by scoring 10 consecutive points on a 42-yard touchdown reception by WR Alvin Harper from reserve QB Bernie Kosar and adding a 50-yard field goal from K Eddie Murray. The 49ers would add another touchdown on a one-yard plunge by Young, capping a 17-play, 94-yard drive.

San Francisco was paced offensively by Young, who completed 27-of-45 passes for 287 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team-high 38 yards. Watters added 37 yards on 12 carries and one touchdown.

LB Michael Walter led the 49ers defense with eight tackles. He was joined by S Merton Hanks and DT Dennis Brown who had seven stops each.

'94 49ers 44, Chicago Bears 15
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 7 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

FB William Floyd rushed for three touchdowns and the 49ers defense held Chicago to just 247 yards in a 44-15 rout of the Bears. Floyd's three scores established him as the first rookie to hit paydirt three times in an NFL playoff game.

The Bears actually took an early 3-0 lead on a 29-yard field goal by K Kevin Butler. The Niners bounced back, however, lighting up the scoreboard for 37 unanswered points to put the game away.

San Francisco's first points were the result of a 13-play, 68-yard drive that ended with a two-yard run by Floyd. CB Eric Davis then intercepted QB Steve Walsh on the Bears next possession and moments later, QB Steve Young connected with TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard scoring play.

The Niners continued to roll in the second quarter, increasing the lead to 30-3 at the half on touchdown runs by Floyd and Young, sandwiched around a K Doug Brien field goal. Floyd's third touchdown of the game midway through the third quarter increased the lead to 37-3 and completed the afternoon's work for many of the San Francisco starters.

LB Gary Plummer led a spirited defensive effort, tying the 49ers single-game postseason record with 13 tackles. The 49ers defense also sacked Chicago quarterbacks four times, led by DE Tim Harris' two.

'94 49ers 38, Dallas Cowboys 28
NFC Championship
January 15 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

CB Eric Davis returned an interception 44 yards for a touchdown and forced a fumble that San Francisco converted into another touchdown. Those plays set the stage for a defensive effort that produced five takeaways in San Francisco's 38-28 NFC Championship Game win over the Dallas Cowboys. The game was played before a Candlestick Park-record 69,143 (since broken).

On the third play of the game, Davis, playing a disguised zone coverage, stepped in front of a QB Troy Aikman pass and sprinted to the end zone. Three plays later, he stripped the ball from WR Michael Irvin and S Tim McDonald recovered. Five plays later, QB Steve Young hit FB Ricky Watters in the flat on a play that produced a 29-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead.

The ensuing kickoff saw 49ers RB Adam Walker jar the ball loose from Dallas returner Kevin Williams and K Doug Brien recovered the fumble. It took seven plays before FB William Floyd plunged in from the one to make it 21-0 with 7:33 remaining in the first quarter.

Dallas began its comeback on the next series. Facing third and 23 from the San Francisco 44, Aikman hit Irvin for a touchdown that cut the score to 21-7. Following a Brien field goal of 34 yards, RB Emmitt Smith capped a 63-yard drive with a four-yard run that narrowed the gap to 24-14. The crucial point in the game came seconds before the first half expired. With eight seconds remaining, Young found WR Jerry Rice for a 28-yard score, giving the 49ers a 31-14 lead heading into the locker room.

The teams traded touchdowns in the second half with the 49ers holding off a strong Dallas charge in the fourth quarter. Young completed 13-of-29 passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for 47 yards and another score. Watters led the ground game, compiling 72 yards, while TE Brent Jones and Floyd each had three receptions.

Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. paced the squad with 10 tackles, while Davis and McDonald added seven. Davis also had two interceptions and a forced fumble. CB Deion Sanders had an interception, along with five passes defensed, while DT Rhett Hall and DE Tim Harris each had two sacks.

'94 49ers 49, San Diego Chargers 26
Super Bowl XXIX
January 29 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49-26 win over San Diego.

San Francisco wasted little time getting on the scoreboard as it took just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four-yard run and an 11-yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44-yard scoring strike.

Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51-yard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13-play, 78-yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one-yard touchdown plunge to make it 14-7 after one quarter of play.

The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70-yard drive that culminated with a five-yard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight-yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31-yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28-10.

The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42-10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine-yard blast up the middle, and a 15-yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven-yard toss from Young in the fourth quarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tying his own record with three scoring receptions.

'95 Green Bay Packers 27, 49ers 17
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 6 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

Aided by a swarming defense that caused four turnovers, the Green Bay Packers defeated the 49ers 27-17 at 3Com Park.

A record crowd of 69,311 saw the Packers advance to the NFC Championship Game, while the 49ers one-year reign as world champions ended with an overall record of 11-6.

Green Bay took its opening drive and marched to the San Francisco 26 before settling for a field goal attempt. However, K Chris Jacke's 44-yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three-yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13-yard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura. San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21-yard field goal with two minutes remaining.

The 49ers took their first possession of the third quarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21-10. On the 14-play drive, Young was 9-of-10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27-10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two-yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with 50 seconds remaining in the game.

Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40-yard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket. WR Jerry Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions.

Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield recorded a team-high 10 tackles and a sack for a loss of five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine tackles.

'96 49ers 14, Philadelphia Eagles 0
NFC Wild Card
December 29 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14-0 in the NFC Wild Card Game.

Led by their marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship Game, the 49ers advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoff round.

Following a scoreless first quarter, Young led the offense on a 10-play, 74-yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl quarterback scoring on a gutty nine-yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to paydirt.

Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the endzone by Niners interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marquez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven-yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five-yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone-blitz coverage.

The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one-handed catch that resulted in a 36-yard gain. He scored on a three-yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage.

Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14-of-21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing.

The Niners defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing yards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason-record 12 solo tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

'96 Green Bay Packers 35, 49ers 14
January 4 at Lambeau Field (Green Bay, WI)

Missed opportunities, including a total of five turnovers, spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60,787, the 49ers fell 35-14 in a game that featured 34-degree weather (with a wind chill of nine-degrees) and driving rain.

It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71-yard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four-yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14-0.

San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second quarter. Trailing 21-0, the tide began to turn when 49ers special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight-yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21-7 at the half.

On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line; but before the 49ers defenders could react, WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28-14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11-yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game.

Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first quarter. Grbac completed 19-of-36 passes for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team-high 36 yards receiving.

Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All-Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

'97 49ers 38, Minnesota Vikings 22
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career-high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38-22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park.

In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21-of-30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown.

San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd scored from the one and the 49ers led 7-0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66-yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14-7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one-yard plunge. The game-breaker occurred two plays later when the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket and forced him to throw a pass over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone.

In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34-yard field goal to build the lead to 24-7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24-14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Young then hit WR Terrell Owens with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second-year receiver shook off a defender then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one-yard run.

CB Tyronne Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defensed to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

'97 Green Bay Packers 23, 49ers 10
January 11 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23-10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68,987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park.

The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on its first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10-play, 76-yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19-yard field goal. Favre completed three-of-four passes for 37 yards in the series.

Green Bay continued its scoring in the second quarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27-yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10-0.

San Francisco then broke the drought with a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second quarter. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38. A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packers territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down with 26 yards to go, Young completed a 48-yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packers 10-yard line. The drive resulted in a 28-yard field goal by K Gary Anderson.

Green Bay answered on its next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packers 27. Two plays later, Favre hit Freeman for a 40-yard completion to the San Francisco 25. Longwell connected on a 43-yard field goal to make the halftime score 13-3.

After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended its lead to 16-3 on a 25-yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added seven more after a five-yard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23-3.

San Francisco closed out the game by scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. Levy's return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97-yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972.

Young completed 23-of-38 passes for 250 yards and one interception. RB Terry Kirby ran for a team-high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43.

Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

'98 49ers 30, Green Bay Packers 27
NFC Wild Card
January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25-yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining, as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30-27.

The 49ers forced three Green Bay turnovers and racked up 178 yards rushing, including 128 yards on 22 carries by RB Garrison Hearst, but still needed last-second heroics to defeat their rival and nemesis.

On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23-yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play on defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19-yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one yard out for the touchdown and a 7-3 lead.

Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two-yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. The score capped a nine-play, 62-yard drive. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens bowled into the end zone from two yards out. The extra point by Longwell was good and Green Bay took a 17-10 halftime lead.

The third quarter opened with another big play from the 49ers defense. With Green Bay driving at its own 41-yard line, DE Charles Haley pressured Favre into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall and returned 17 yards to the Packers 33-yard line. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight yards out for the score.

The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a team postseason record and career-long 48-yard field goal from Richey. The kick capped an 11-play, 48-yard drive that took 5:33 off the clock.

In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48-yard kick with a 37-yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20-20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40-yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23-20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 11-yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine-play, 89-yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27-23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game.

The Packers touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers history. San Francisco took possession at its own 24-yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to its credit. From there Young would lead the team on a drive for the ages. Young opened the drive with completions of 17 and nine yards to WR J.J. Stokes. His third straight completion was for three yards to FB Marc Edwards, who broke three tackles to pick up a first down. After using the first timeout, Young threw incomplete to Stokes and then had a six-yard completion to WR Jerry Rice. The 49ers second timeout was followed by a nine-yard completion to RB Terry Kirby who ran out of bounds at the Green Bay 32-yard line. A seven-yard completion to RB Garrison Hearst was followed by the 49ers final timeout with 14 seconds remaining on the clock. After the timeout, Young passed incomplete to Stokes with eight seconds to play. On the next play Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25-yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

CB Marquez Pope and Woodall paced the defensive effort with eight tackles each. Woodall also recorded an interception and had two passes defensed. DT Brentson Buckner added six tackles, while LB Ken Norton Jr. and DT Junior Bryant recorded five stops each. CB Darnell Walker added an interception.

'98 Atlanta Falcons 20, 49ers 18
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 9 at Georgia Dome (Atlanta, GA)

With San Francisco's NFL-leading run game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20-18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome.

San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground.

Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two-yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7-0 lead.

Atlanta increased its lead to 14-0 when Anderson finished off a 34-yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven-play, 82-yard drive.

San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine-play, 80-yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve Young to WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 20th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36-yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14-10 game at the half with a 36-yard field goal as time expired.

The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards to set up a K Morten Andersen 29-yard field goal. Leading 17-10, Andersen added another 32-yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10-point edge with 10:33 remaining.

San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13-play, 87-yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight-yard touchdown run. A two-point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20-18 with 2:57 left.

After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four-yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's hail mary attempt was intercepted as time expired.

After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game-high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doleman made six stops and one sack.

'01 Green Bay Packers 25, 49ers 15
NFC Wild Card
January 13 at Lambeau Field (Green Bay, WI)

In their first postseason appearance since 1998, the 49ers dropped a hard-fought 25-15 decision to the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Wild Card Game at Lambeau Field.

With a game-time temperature of 28 degrees, the 49ers won the opening coin toss and elected to receive. The two teams traded punts until Green Bay marched 40 yards in seven plays to score the first points of the game when QB Brett Favre hooked up with WR Antonio Freeman on a five-yard touchdown pass. DT Dana Stubblefield blocked the extra point to keep the score 6-0. After another 49ers punt, the Packers began their third possession of the game from their own 19-yard line. On the second play from scrimmage, Favre was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Green Bay 22. San Francisco picked up two first downs as they moved the ball down to the Green Bay 16-yard line, where the drive stalled. San Francisco K Jose Cortez had his 34-yard field goal attempt blocked and the score remained 6-0 early in the second quarter. After the Packers were forced to punt, San Francisco took possession at its own 14 with 7:06 remaining in the half. QB Jeff Garcia went 6-of-9 for 61 yards and RB Garrison Hearst carried the ball three times for 13 yards, including a two-yard touchdown plunge with 15 seconds remaining in the half, to cap off a 15-play, 86-yard drive. After a Cortez extra point, the 49ers went in with a 7-6 halftime lead.

On their first possession of the second half, the Packers took over on their own 20-yard line. They moved the ball down to the San Francisco eight-yard line where K Ryan Longwell nailed a 26-yard field goal for the 9-7 lead. After the 49ers couldn't get anything going on offense, they punted back to Green Bay. It took only four plays for the Packers to take advantage with a 19-yard touchdown pass from Favre to TE Bubba Franks. The two-point conversion failed and the score remained 15-7. The 49ers picked up one first down on their next drive before punting for the fifth time of the game. The Packers were forced into a three-and-out and San Francisco took over at its own 39-yard line. The 49ers marched 61 yards in six plays, culminating with Garcia hitting WR Tai Streets on a 14-yard touchdown strike and again on the two-point conversion to tie the score at 15. The Packers answered on their next possession with a 10-play, 45-yard drive as Longwell connected on a 45-yard field goal to push the score to 18-15. With 5:03 remaining in the game, the 49ers had moved the ball down to the Green Bay 41, when Garcia's pass intended for WR Terrell Owens was tipped by CB Mike McKenzie into the hands of CB Tyrone Williams at the Green Bay seven-yard line. Favre led the Packers on an eight-play, 93-yard drive ending with an RB Ahman Green nine-yard touchdown run and the 25-15 lead. RB Paul Smith took the ensuing kickoff on the 13-yard line and ran it back 16 yards before being hit by WR Cory Bradford and fumbling. The Packers recovered the fumble and ran out the clock for the 25-15 victory.

'02 49ers 39, New York Giants 38
NFC Wild Card
January 5 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

Buried in a 24-point playoff hole, the San Francisco 49ers exploded to record the second largest comeback in postseason history with a dramatic 39-38 victory over the New York Giants in the NFC Wild Card Game.

The 49ers trailed 38-14 with four minutes left in the third quarter, but scored 25 straight points on two touchdown passes and a scoring run by QB Jeff Garcia, as well as two, two-point conversion catches by WR Terrell Owens.

The game ended just as exciting. After Garcia drove his team 68 yards in just over two minutes for the winning score, QB Kerry Collins got New York to the San Francisco 28 with six seconds left. LS Trey Junkin, signed earlier in the week, made a low snap that P Matt Allen couldn't handle.

Allen then threw a desperate pass that fell incomplete. After New York was penalized for illegal men downfield, San Francisco leaped, sprinted and collapsed onto the field in a raucous celebration before an exhausted home crowd.

The 49ers rally was the biggest in NFC playoff history. Only Buffalo's 32-point comeback in a 41-38 victory over Houston in January 1993 was by a larger margin in the postseason.

Garcia finished the day 27-of-44 for 331 yards and three touchdowns. He rushed for 60 yards, including a 14-yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter. Two of Garcia's touchdown throws went to Owens, who had nine catches for 177 yards.

The Giants won four straight to make the postseason and dominated the first 40 minutes. Collins was 29-of-43 for 342 yards and four touchdowns, and expertly guided New York to a lead that seemed insurmountable. WR Amani Toomer caught eight passes for 136 yards and three touchdowns and RB Tiki Barber added 115 yards rushing and 62 yards receiving.

San Francisco rallied with purpose and poise. Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter to start the rally and made big catches on every drive—right up to the final minutes, when Garcia found WR Tai Streets for the winning score.

After Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass and a two-point conversion with 2:03 left in the third, Garcia rushed for a 14-yard score and threw another conversion pass to Owens five seconds into the fourth quarter. K Jeff Chandler added a 25-yard field goal with 7:49 left.

Collins responded and drove New York 38 yards, but Bryant – kicking out of a poor hold thanks to a poor snap by Junkin—missed a 42-yard field goal with 3:01 left.

Garcia took over, converting two straight third downs for the NFL leaders in that category. TE Eric Johnson caught a 25-yard pass to the New York 25 and Garcia scrambled 12 yards to set up his winning pass to Streets.

'02 Tampa Bay Buccaneers 31, 49ers 6
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 12 at Raymond James Stadium (Tampa, FL)

San Francisco's Super Bowl hopes ended with a 31-6 loss against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game on the road at Raymond James Stadium.

The 49ers trailed 28-6 heading into halftime and although the defense held Tampa Bay to only three points in the second half, San Francisco was held scoreless en route to the Buccaneers victory.

Tampa Bay started the scoring with a two-yard touchdown run by FB Mike Alstott on a 12-play, 74-yard drive.

San Francisco answered with a 12-play, 63-yard drive capped by a 24-yard field goal by K Jeff Chandler. The highlight of the drive was a 30-yard pitch and catch by WR Tai Streets from QB Jeff Garcia.

Tampa Bay exploded for 21 points in the second quarter, highlighted by two touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson. Johnson connected on a 20-yard pass to WR Joe Jurevicius and a 12-yard pass to TE Rickey Dudley. In between the two scores, Chandler kicked his second field goal of the game for San Francisco, this time from 40 yards out.

Alstott added another two-yard touchdown run to end the first half and K Martin Gramatica added a 19-yard field goal to close the scoring for both teams.

LB Derek Smith led San Francisco with a game-high 14 tackles. LB Julian Peterson and LB Jeff Ulbrich added 11 tackles apiece. CB Rashad Holman led a banged up secondary with one interception. The unit was minus starting CB Jason Webster, who was inactive with an ankle injury. CB Ahmed Plummer left the game when he separated his right shoulder and did not return. FS Zack Bronson left the game in the third quarter when he aggravated his broken foot and SS Tony Parrish played the contest with a dislocated elbow.

LB Shelton Quarles led Tampa Bay with nine tackles and Defensive Player-of-the-Year Derrick Brooks added seven tackles and one interception.

OVERTIME GAMES

October 31, 1976 - St. Louis 23, San Francisco 20

In the fourth quarter, St. Louis held a 14-13 lead after San Francisco missed an extra point on its previous scoring drive. San Francisco then took the lead 20-14 in the fourth when Delvin Williams scored his third touchdown of the day. With eight minutes left in the game, Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart connected with Mel Gray on a 77-yard touchdown pass for the 20-20 tie. The extra point was blocked and the two teams went into overtime. St. Louis won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt. Tony Leonard fumbled the kick at the 43-yard line, which was recovered by the Cardinals. St. Louis then marched down field to set up Jim Bakken for the 21-yard field goal to lift the Cardinals to a 23-20 victory.

December 5, 1976 - San Diego 13, San Francisco 7

In a battle of Northern and Southern California, the San Francisco 49ers and San Diego Chargers played to a scoreless tie in the first half. The defensive struggle continued into the second half and the score remained 0-0 at the end of the third quarter. On San Diego's first possession of the fourth quarter, Dan Fouts guided them on a 16-play, 80-yard scoring drive, capped by a Bo Matthews two-yard touchdown run. San Francisco answered on its next possession with a 64-yard scoring drive. Paul Hofer caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Scott Bull to make the score 7-6. The extra point was blocked, but the Chargers Tom Graham was flagged for offsides. After the penalty was marked off, Steve Mike-Mayer connected to tie the game at seven with just over a minute left in regulation. San Diego won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Chargers began their first possession on their own seven-yard line where Fouts promptly guided them on a nine-play, 93-yard drive, which was capped by a Mercury Morris 13-yard touchdown run for the 13-7 win.

November 13, 1977 - San Francisco 10, New Orleans 7

The 49ers got their first ever overtime victory at New Orleans. The Saints got on the board early in the first quarter on an eight-yard run by Tony Galbreath. The Saints appeared to grab a commanding lead at the end of the first half when Richard Mauti returned a Tom Wittum punt 65 yards for a touchdown 10 seconds before halftime. But a New Orleans clipping penalty nullified the score. The 49ers tied it up in the third quarter with a five-yard romp by Delvin Williams. Neither team would score again in regulation and the game went to overtime knotted at seven. The Saints won the overtime coin toss, but were unable to move the ball, giving it back to the 49ers. San Francisco started from its own 41-yard line and moved the ball down to the Saints 16, where Ray Wersching connected on a 33-yard game-winning field goal.

September 14, 1980 - San Francisco 24, St. Louis 21

San Francisco struck first on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Steve DeBerg to Paul Hofer in the second quarter. Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart quickly answered back with a 13-yard touchdown strike to Theotis Brown. The Cardinals pushed the lead to 14-7 with a Doug Marsh five-yard touchdown reception. After the 49ers tied the game at 14, St. Louis drove 75 yards in eight plays to take a 21-14 lead. With 1:51 left in regulation, the 49ers drove 80 yards and scored on a 26-yard touchdown run by Hofer, his second of the day. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and took the ball 52 yards to the 16-yard line, where Ray Wersching kicked a 33-yard field goal for the 24-21 win.

December 7, 1980 - San Francisco 38, New Orleans 35

New Orleans jumped out to a 35-7 halftime lead behind touchdown passes of 33, 21 and 41 yards from Archie Manning. Less than five minutes into the third quarter, the 49ers went on an 88-yard, nine-play drive that culminated with a one-yard touchdown run by Joe Montana. Minutes later, Montana hooked up with Dwight Clark for a 71-yard touchdown pass to bring the 49ers within 14 points. After the San Francisco defense shut out New Orleans for the second straight quarter, they tied the game with 1:50 left in the fourth quarter with Lenvil Elliott's seven-yard touchdown jaunt, forcing overtime. New Orleans won the coin toss, but failed to pick up a first down on its first possession. San Francisco took the ball on its own 27 and marched 55 yards in 13 plays for the game-winning 36-yard field goal by Ray Wersching.

October 12, 1986 - Minnesota 27, San Francisco 24

With Joe Montana out, Jeff Kemp stepped in to lead San Francisco against a powerful Minnesota Vikings team. Minnesota struck first with a six-yard touchdown pass from Tommy Kramer to Anthony Carter. The 49ers answered back when Kemp hit Dwight Clark with a 45-yard strike to tie the game. With 1:14 left in the first quarter, the Vikings Issiac Holt recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for a 14-7 lead. San Francisco took a 17-14 lead into halftime after a 39-yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 34-yard touchdown pass from Kemp to Jerry Rice. After the Vikings stalled on their first drive of the third quarter, Kemp led the 49ers on a six-play, 53-yard drive that ended with a 17-yard touchdown reception by Rice. Minnesota answered back with a 26-yard field goal by Chuck Nelson in the third quarter to cut the 49ers lead to 24-17. With 6:37 remaining in the fourth quarter, Kramer hit Anthony Carter with a 35-yard touchdown pass to tie the game. In overtime, Minnesota won the toss and elected to receive. They promptly went on a 58-yard drive and Nelson hit a 28-yard field goal for the 27-24 win.

October 19, 1986 - Atlanta 10, San Francisco 10

San Francisco visited Atlanta for a battle with the division rival Falcons and took an early 7-0 lead on a Roger Craig one-yard romp. The Falcons responded with a punishing 17-play, 44-yard drive that resulted in a 47-yard field goal by Mick Luckhurst. San Francisco maintained its lead in the second quarter with a 53-yard, 13-play drive, which led to a 24-yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 10-3 lead. The defenses dominated the second half, holding the offenses scoreless for all of the third quarter and most of the fourth. With just over a minute remaining in regulation, the Falcons took advantage of great field position and scored on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Dave Archer to Sylvester Stamps to tie the game at 10. The Falcons won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. After generating only one first down, the Falcons were forced to give up possession. The 49ers mirrored the Falcons on their first possession of overtime and punted with 6:42 remaining. Both teams had possession two more times in overtime, but could not produce a score as the game ended in a 10-10 tie.

October 9, 1988 - Denver 16, San Francisco 13

Two of the best teams in the NFL faced off in an inter conference battle as the Denver Broncos visited Candlestick Park. The 49ers started the scoring with a 37-yard Mike Cofer field goal with 4:52 remaining in the first quarter. The Broncos answered early in the second with a 27-yard field goal by Rich Karlis to knot the game at three. With San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Joe Montana opened up the offense and led the 49ers 95 yards and capped it off with a six-yard quarterback sneak for a 10-3 lead at halftime. The only scoring in the third quarter came on Karlis' 27-yard field goal with five minutes remaining, cutting the 49ers lead to 10-6. Cofer quickly answered with a 27-yard field goal with one minute on the clock in the third quarter for the 13-6 lead. After an injury, John Elway returned to hit Vance Johnson with an eight-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 13 with 6:23 remaining. Neither team could score in the final minutes of regulation and headed into overtime. On San Francisco's first possession, Andre Townsend sacked Montana, injuring his ribs. Steve Young took over, and on his first play threw an interception to Mark Haynes ending the threat. After a five-and-out drive by the Broncos, the 49ers took over on their own five-yard line. A second Young interception, deep in Broncos territory, helped set the stage for Karlis to connect on a 22-yard game-winning field goal.

December 9, 1990 - San Francisco 20, Cincinnati 17

A capacity crowd filled Riverfront Stadium as the San Francisco 49ers invaded Cincinnati for a late-season battle. On the Bengals first possession, Boomer Esiason drove his team 70 yards for the game's opening score, a two-yard touchdown pass to Craig Taylor. San Francisco answered back on its next possession when Tom Rathman capped off a 73-yard drive with a one-yard plunge into the end zone for the 7-7 tie. Cincinnati came out strong in the second half. The Bengals scored on a Jim Breech field goal to open the third and break the tie. San Francisco enjoyed its first lead of the game after Harry Sydney scored on a three-yard run. With just over two minutes elapsed in the fourth quarter, Ickey Woods dove in from one yard out to regain the lead for Cincinnati, 17-14. The 49ers next drive stalled and they would not regain possession until only 4:11 remained in regulation. On the first play, Joe Montana hit Jerry Rice for a 29-yard strike and guided the team down to the Cincinnati six-yard line. Mike Cofer hit a 23-yard field goal with just over a minute remaining to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won its first coin toss in five overtime games and wasted no time driving 75 yards in 11 plays to set up Cofer's 23-yard game-winning field goal and the 20-17 victory.

January 3, 1994 - Philadelphia 37, San Francisco 34

Turnovers and an ill-timed penalty marred the 49ers first overtime game in four years. The Philadelphia Eagles struck early and often, first on a 34-yard Roger Ruzek field goal five minutes into the game. On San Francisco's first possession, Steve Young was hit and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Byron Evans who returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 10-0 lead. On their second possession, Young led the 49ers on a seven-play, 46-yard drive capped by a Mike Cofer 30-yard field goal to cut the deficit to seven. With Bubby Brister at the helm, the Eagles drove 76 yards in the opening minutes of the second quarter and connected with Calvin Williams for a 13-yard touchdown to push the lead to 17-3. The Eagles quickly got the ball back on a punt after a three-and-out series by the 49ers. Brister guided Philadelphia to an eight-play, 64-yard touchdown scoring drive to take a commanding 21-point lead. The 49ers end zone drought ended with just less than two minutes remaining in the half when Young hit Jerry Rice for a three-yard touchdown that brought the score to 24-10 at halftime. San Francisco started the second half strong, beginning with a 60-yard kickoff return by Dexter Carter to give the 49ers the ball on Philadelphia's 38-yard line. Capping off a punishing 38-yard, nine-play drive, Ricky Watters ran 11 yards for the score. After a Philadelphia punt, John Taylor caught a 38-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 24. Philadelphia took advantage of a Young injury by intercepting a Steve Bono pass. The Eagles worked quickly, moving 69 yards in just two plays to take a 31-24 lead. San Francisco gave Philadelphia good field position again with a fumble on its own 40, allowing the Eagles to increase their lead to 10 with a Ruzek 32-yard field goal with 1:16 remaining in the third quarter. Set up by a Don Griffin interception, Bono drove the 49ers 42 yards in just over four minutes and scored on a one-yard keeper that closed the gap to 34-31. After a Philadelphia punt, the Niners drove down and tied the game on a Cofer 29-yard field goal with 15 seconds left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive, but failed to score on two overtime possessions. On Philadelphia's second possession of overtime, they drove to San Francisco's 20-yard line. With four seconds showing on the clock, the Eagles set up for a 38-yard field goal. Ruzek missed the field goal wide right, but Merton Hanks was flagged for roughing the kicker. After a 10-yard penalty, Ruzek hit a 28-yarder with no time left on the clock for the 37-34 win.

October 14, 1996 - Green Bay 23, San Francisco 20

With Steve Young out with a groin injury, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco against Brett Favre and the Green Bay Packers. After an unsuccessful first possession, the Packers scored on a 30-yard field goal by Chris Jacke with just over five minutes remaining in the first quarter for the 3-0 lead. They took a 6-0 lead on another Jacke 25-yard field goal. On San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Grbac led a six-play, 36-yard drive that resulted in a Jeff Wilkins 48-yard field goal. After a three-and-out series by the Packers, Jerry Rice caught a seven-yard touchdown from Grbac for a 10-6 lead. Aided by a Dana Stubblefield interception, Rice and Grbac put the 49ers up 17-6 at the half with a 13-yard touchdown pass. Green Bay trimmed the lead to 17-14 when Favre hit Don Beebe for a 59-yard touchdown and followed it with a two-point conversion toss to Edger Bennett. Chris Jacke hit a 35-yard field goal to tie the game at 17 with 3:24 left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt after going three-and-out. November 10, 1996 - Dallas 20, San Francisco 17

The two most dominating teams in the NFL met in a mid-season battle for NFC supremacy as the Dallas Cowboys traveled to 3Com Park. The 49ers jumped out to a quick lead after a Jeff Wilkins 28-yard field goal. They extended their lead to 10-0 on a 29-yard touchdown strike from Steve Young to Iheanyi Uwaezuoke. Quiet for most of the first half, the Cowboys finally got on the board with a 72-yard scoring drive that ended on a Troy Aikman three-yard touchdown run, which cut the deficit to 10-7 at halftime. Defenses dominated in the third quarter with neither team allowing a score. Dallas ended the scoring drought with a Chris Boniol 26-yard field goal four seconds into the fourth quarter to tie the game at 10. With Young out in the second half after sustaining a concussion, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco on a nine-play, 68-yard scoring drive on its next possession. Terry Kirby capped it off with a 27-yard touchdown run. After Fred Strickland intercepted a Grbac pass at the 49ers 15-yard line, Troy Aikman hit Eric Bjornson for a six-yard touchdown pass, knotting the game at 17 and forcing overtime. The Cowboys won the overtime coin toss and wasted no time marching down the field. After 12 plays, Chris Boniol hit the game-winning 29-yard field goal for the 20-17 victory.

November 24, 1996 - San Francisco 19, Washington 16

In the 49ers second overtime game in November, and third of the season, the Washington Redskins hosted San Francisco for the first time in two years. In what would prove to be a game dominated by special teams, San Francisco struck first with a 20-yard field goal from Jeff Wilkins. Washington's Scott Blanton hit field goals from 19 and 48 yards out and Wilkins added another to knot the score at six going into halftime. The only score in the third quarter came on a Blanton field goal from 41 yards out to give Washington a 9-6 lead. San Francisco got on the board first in the fourth quarter with a Wilkins 44-yard field goal three minutes into the period. On the ensuing possession, Gus Ferotte drove the Redskins 78 yards, which culminated with a Jamie Asher 20-yard touchdown reception. The 49ers tied the game with 1:57 remaining in regulation on a one-yard run by William Floyd, forcing overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and promptly went on a 48-yard scoring drive that was capped by a 38-yard field goal by Wilkins for the 19-16 win.

September 6, 1998 - San Francisco 36, New York Jets 30

In the opening weekend of the 1998 season, fans were treated to one of the most exciting games and one of the most exciting plays in NFL history. After a fast-paced first half, the 49ers found themselves trailing 17-14 at halftime after Glen Foley hit Wayne Chrebet from six-yards out for the score with 32 seconds remaining in the second quarter. On its first possession in the second half, San Francisco evened the score at 17 with a 22-yard field goal by Wade Richey. On the following possession, Foley found Keyshawn Johnson for a 21-yard touchdown and a 24-17 lead. With just over three minutes remaining in the third quarter, Jerry Rice caught a 14-yard touchdown from Steve Young to bring the 49ers within one. The extra point was blocked and the score remained 24-23 heading into the fourth quarter. New York extended its lead to 27-23 after a John Hall 32-yard field goal. San Francisco took possession with 3:38 left in regulation and went on a 76-yard, five-play drive that was capped by a 38-yard touchdown pass from Young to J.J. Stokes, giving the 49ers the lead 30-27 with just over one minute remaining in regulation. New York then drove the ball to the 49ers 13-yard line, where John Hall tied the game at 30 with just three seconds on the clock. Both New York and San Francisco went three-and-out on their first possessions of overtime. The Jets moved to midfield on their second possession before being forced to punt, pinning the 49ers on their own four-yard line. With 11:09 remaining in overtime, on San Francisco's first play of its second possession, Young gave the ball to Garrison Hearst, who ran right and broke six tackles on his way to a 96-yard, game-winning touchdown run and the 36-30 victory.

December 6, 1998 - San Francisco 31, Carolina 28

San Francisco extended its winning streak to four games with an exciting, high-scoring match-up with the Carolina Panthers. After an explosive first half, the 49ers took a 21-7 lead going into halftime. San Francisco started the second half with a five-play drive, which covered 90 yards, including a Garrison Hearst 71-yard touchdown run. The drive gave the 49ers a commanding 28-7 lead. With just 52 seconds left in the third quarter, Steve Beuerlein connected with Anthony Johnson on a 38-yard touchdown pass to cut the deficit to 28-14. On their first possession of the fourth quarter, the Panthers drove 76 yards in five plays and scored on a Beuerlein-to-Raghib Ismail 40-yard touchdown pass. Minutes later, Carolina tied the game at 28 with a 10-yard run by Tshimanga Biakabutuka. Carolina won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Panthers ran two unsuccessful plays, and Beuerlein fumbled on the third, giving San Francisco possession on Carolina's 30-yard line. December 26, 1999 - Washington 26, San Francisco 20

The Washington Redskins visited 3Com Park and battled the San Francisco 49ers to their second overtime game in the last three meetings. San Francisco struck first with an 80-yard drive in 13 plays, capped off with a Charlie Garner four-yard touchdown run and a 7-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, Washington answered back with an 80-yard drive of its own, ending with a Brad Johnson-to-Michael Westbrook 65-yard touchdown strike. With a pair of Wade Richey field goals, San Francisco went into halftime with a 13-7 lead. Washington cut the deficit to three after Brett Conway nailed a 47-yard field goal in the third quarter. The 49ers extended their lead to 20-10 with a 78-yard scoring drive that ended on a five-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Garcia to J.J. Stokes. At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Conway connected on a 34-yard field goal to bring the Redskins within seven. Washington then struck again with 3:30 left in the game when Brad Johnson plunged in from one-yard out to tie the game at 20. San Francisco threatened with just over one minute remaining, driving to the Redskins 22-yard line before fumbling, which Washington recovered to force overtime. Washington won the overtime coin toss and promptly moved the ball to the San Francisco 33-yard line in three plays. On first down, Brad Johnson hit Larry Centers for a 33-yard touchdown pass and the 26-20 win.

In a game for the ages, the 49ers fell in overtime to the visitors from across the Bay, the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders jumped out to the early 6-0 lead on two Sebastian Janikowski field goals. The 49ers answered back, scoring 14 unanswered points to close out the first half. The Raiders dominated the third quarter, holding onto the ball for more than 11 minutes and scoring two touchdowns. After another score by the Raiders to start the fourth, the 49ers started their comeback. After a Jeff Garcia-to-Terrell Owens scoring toss and another score on a nine-yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner, San Francisco tied the game at 28. On their next possession, the Raiders drove down to San Francisco's 23-yard line, but on fourth-and-10, Janikowski missed a 41-yard field goal wide left. The 49ers, with a chance to win the game, took possession and moved the ball down to the Oakland 29-yard line. On fourth-and-one, the Raiders defense stiffened and stopped a leaping Charlie Garner for no gain. The Raiders took over on downs, but couldn't get their offense going and were forced to punt back to the 49ers, who ran out the clock and forced the game into overtime. The Raiders won the toss and marched down to the 49ers 25-yard line. Janikowski came on to attempt the game-winning field goal, but missed wide right, his second missed field goal of the day. The 49ers took over and put a drive of their own together, all the way to the Raiders 11-yard line. On first down, Wade Richey attempted the game-winning field goal, but was blocked and possession went back to the Raiders. Following two pass completions and a pass interference call on the 49ers, the Raiders finally put the game away with a 31-yard scoring toss from Rich Gannon to Tim Brown for the win.

September 9, 2001 - San Francisco 16, Atlanta 13

The 49ers began the 2001 regular season in an exciting fashion, defeating the visiting Atlanta Falcons 16-13 in overtime. The 49ers trailed by seven points at halftime and began the fourth quarter with a 10-point deficit. A J.J. Stokes touchdown reception narrowed the gap before Jose Cortez's field goal attempt tied the game at 13 with 11 seconds remaining in regulation. The 49ers won the coin toss in overtime and elected to receive. On the drive the 49ers faced a third-and-five when Jeff Garcia rifled a pass to Tai Streets, who raced 53 yards to the Falcons 23-yard line. Three plays later, Cortez nailed a 24-yard field goal to lift the 49ers to victory.

October 14, 2001 - San Francisco 37, Atlanta 31

The 49ers had their second overtime game of the 2001 season against the Falcons, sweeping Atlanta in the season series by winning 37-31. The 49ers rallied back from deficits of 20-7 at the half and 31-17 in the fourth quarter. The Falcons went up 14-0 early in the game. The 49ers put their first points of the game on the board in the second quarter when Jeff Garcia capped an 11-play, 80-yard drive with a seven-yard touchdown run. The Falcons answered back with two field goals and went up 20-7 at halftime. San Francisco came back in the second half due to the hands of Terrell Owens. Owens, who did not catch a pass in the first half, roared back to catch nine passes for 183 yards and a career-high three touchdowns. The 49ers scored 10 unanswered points in the third quarter, but Atlanta answered back in the fourth quarter. After a 49ers touchdown, at the hands of Kevan Barlow, and a touchdown by the Falcons, the 49ers were down 31-24 with just 2:22 remaining in the game. Garcia calmly led the team on a 10-play, 72-yard drive when he hooked up with Owens from 17 yards out for his second touchdown of the day. The extra point was good and the game was tied at 31 with just 21 seconds remaining. The 49ers won the toss in overtime and drove to the Falcons 14-yard line. On the sixth play of the drive, a mishandled snap between Garcia and Dave Fiore, who was filling in at center for an injured Jeremy Newberry, was recovered by the Falcons and their offense took over. The 49ers defense rose to the challenge, forcing Atlanta into a three-and-out possession. After the punt, San Francisco began its second overtime drive from its own 33-yard line. After picking up one first down, Garcia faced third-and-five when he connected with Owens, who raced 52 yards up the sideline for his third touchdown and the 37-31 overtime victory.

October 28, 2001 - Chicago 37, San Francisco 31

The 49ers had their second consecutive overtime game and their third of the 2001 season as they dropped a 37-31 decision to the Chicago Bears. San Francisco went up early in the first quarter after Bryant Young forced a fumble, which Julian Peterson scooped up and returned 26 yards for the touchdown. The 49ers struck again when Jeff Garcia hooked up with Justin Swift for a one-yard touchdown and the 14-0 lead. The Bears answered back with a safety and a touchdown, making the score 14-9 at the half. In the third quarter, the 49ers struck first when Garrison Hearst scored his first touchdown since 12-14-98 on a 60-yard bomb from Garcia. The Bears offense then took over and drove down to the 49ers 10-yard line where Zack Bronson intercepted a Shane Mathews pass and returned it a team-record 97 yards for the touchdown. After a Chicago touchdown and a 49ers field goal, the score was 31-16 early in the fourth quarter. The Bears then racked up 15 unanswered points on two touchdown drives to tie the game at 31 and send it into overtime. The 49ers won the coin toss and the offense took over. On the first play from scrimmage, Garcia was intercepted by Mike Brown, who raced 33 yards for the touchdown and the 37-31 victory for Chicago.

November 18, 2001 - San Francisco 25, Carolina 22

In their fourth ovetime game of the season, setting a new team record, the 49ers pulled out an exciting 25-22 victory over the Carolina Panthers. The game was a see-saw battle with each team going back and forth until the fourth quarter. The Panthers went ahead late in the fourth quarter after a Jeff Garcia interception. Wesley Walls scored on a 24-yard pass, but the two-point conversion failed, leaving the Panthers with a slim 19-14 lead. On the next 49ers drive, Garcia was intercepted again, this time deep in 49ers territory. The San Francisco defense held Carolina to only a field goal and the 49ers were down 22-14 with just 1:52 remaining in the game. Garcia started the offense on its own 34-yard line and began the two-minute drill. The 49ers moved down the field to the Panthers seven-yard line, where Garcia threw a fade route to Terrell Owens, who snatched it out of the air with one second remaining on the clock to cut the score to 22-20. Garcia then found Eric Johnson in the end zone for the two-point conversion to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and started its drive at its own 26-yard line. Garcia completed three-of-four passes for 27 yards, including a crucial fourth down conversion, while Garrison Hearst rushed twice for 34 yards to bring the 49ers down to Carolina's nine-yard line. Jose Cortez came on for the game-winning field goal from 26 yards out, splitting the uprights to give the 49ers the 25-22 overtime victory.

November 3, 2002 - San Francisco 23, Oakland 20

The 49ers visited the Oakland Raiders and turned in an exciting performance. Tied at 13 entering the fourth quarter, the game see-sawed back and forth before heading into overtime. San Francisco scored first in the fourth quarter when Jeff Garcia connected with Tai Streets for a three-yard touchdown to take the lead at 20-13. Oakland answered after the ensuing kickoff went out of bounds and the Raiders got the ball at their own 40-yard line. Oakland converted a crucial fourth-and-three play to maintain possession and ended the drive with a 10-yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner with just over six minutes remaining. The 49ers then ate up the clock with an impressive 13-play drive into scoring position, where Jose Cortez missed a 27-yard field goal at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime. The 49ers won the toss and launched another impressive drive, this one 17 plays in length. It was there that Cortez lined up for the game-winning 23-yard field goal that sailed through the uprights. All totaled, the 49ers held onto the ball for the final 30 plays of the game.

November 17, 2002 – San Diego 20, San Francisco 17

In their second overtime game in three weeks, the 49ers dropped a close one to the San Diego Chargers. San Francisco took the early lead, leading 17-7 at the start of the fourth quarter. However the Chargers reeled off 10 unanswered points in the final period to tie the game at 17 to send it into overtime. In overtime, the Chargers won the toss and returned the opening kickoff 39 yards. But the drive stalled there and San Diego was forced to punt. On the ensuing 49ers possession, the offense drove down the field to the San Diego 23-yard line where Jose Cortez's game-winning field goal sailed wide right. The Chargers took over and promptly drive down the field in nine plays where Steve Christie nailed the 40-yard game-winning field goal.

September 14, 2003 – St. Louis 27, San Francisco 24

In an early-season division battle, the St. Louis Rams prevailed over the 49ers in overtime in a back and forth battle. The Rams went ahead late in the fourth quarter, 24-17, with 3:20 remaining. Undaunted, Jeff Garcia calmly led his team down the field for the game-tying 13-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens with 19 seconds remaining in regulation. The 49ers recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and had the ball at midfield. After an incomplete pass, Garcia connected with Cedrick Wilson on a 29-yard pass on second down with nine seconds remaining. Instead of falling to the ground and taking a timeout, Wilson kept running and was tackled as time ran out and the game headed into overtime. The Rams won the toss and received the kickoff, which they returned to their 48-yard line. After a one-yard run by Marshall Faulk, the 49ers were penalized 15 yards for a face mask penalty. Marc Bulger then completed two straight passes which brought St. Louis to the 49ers 10-yard line. Jeff Wilkins then came on and hit the winning 28-yard field goal.

October 26, 2003 – Arizona 16, San Francisco 13

In another division battle, the 49ers had their second overtime game of the season, this time at Arizona. The field goal kicking was the story of this game as the 49ers missed both field goal attempts and made only 1-of-2 PATs and the Cardinals made only 3-of-6 field goal attempts. The Cardinals had the lead 13-6 in the fourth quarter when the 49ers tied the game on one of the most improbable touchdowns in team history. Jeff Garcia fumbled at the one-yard line and the ball was recovered by offensive lineman Kwame Harris, who scored his first career touchdown. The game was tied at 13 with 2:25 left to play. The Cardinals had another shot to get into scoring position, but were forced to punt and gave the 49ers one more shot for the victory with almost six minutes remaining in regulation. San Francisco then launched a drive that put the offense at the Arizona 16-yard line. But Owen Pochman missed the potential game-winning field goal, his second missed field goal of the day, this time from 35 yards out. This breathed new life into Arizona, who drove down to the San Francisco 32-yard line. With five seconds remaining in regulation, Tim Duncan attempted the game-winning 50-yard field goal, which was short, and the game headed to overtime. In overtime, the Cardinals won the toss and drove down to the 49ers 22-yard line in eight plays. Duncan set up for another chance at a game-winning field goal, this one from 39 yards out. The kick sailed through the uprights and the Cardinals notched the 16-13 victory.

December 21, 2003 – San Francisco 31, Philadelphia 28

The 49ers recorded their first overtime win of the season and also their first road win of 2003 with a 31-28 victory over Philadelphia. The two teams traded points back and forth heading into the final quarter. The 49ers kicked a 25-yard field goal on the first play of the fourth quarter to cut Philadelphia's lead to 21-20. On San Francisco's next possession, Kevan Barlow ran for 26 of his career-high 154 total yards and scored from one-yard out to give the 49ers a 26-21 lead. The two-point conversion attempt was successful and the 49ers had a seven-point lead with five minutes remaining in the game. The Eagles answered with a 10-play drive, adding seven points to tie the game on a Todd Pinkston touchdown grab with a little over a minute remaining in regulation. Philadelphia won the overtime coin toss and started its drive at its own 21-yard line. On the first play in the extra period, Tony Parrish, who notched an interception on the game's first drive, intercepted another pass and ran it back to the Eagles four-yard line. Todd Peterson then came out and nailed the 22-yard game-winning field goal.

October 10, 2004 – San Francisco 31, Arizona 28

QB Tim Rattay joined an elite group of quarterbacks who have led the 49ers to come from behind victories in a 31-28 overtime victory against the visiting Arizona Cardinals at Monster Park. Rattay coolly directed two late fourth-quarter scoring drives that sent the game into overtime after trailing by 16 points with 8:19 remaining. In overtime, Rattay again led the team downfield and buoyed by a roughing the passer penalty, put them into scoring position where K Todd Peterson banged home the game-winning 32-yard field goal. Rattay finished the game with a CAREER-HIGH 417 yards passing and a quarterback rating of 99.8. He was an impressive 14 of 20 for 115 yards and two touchdowns in the fourth quarter. He also broke QB Joe Montana's team record by completing 38 passes. Montana held the previous mark of 37. Rattay's favorite target on the day was TE Eric Johnson who hauled in a career-high 13 receptions for 162 yards and one touchdown. Johnson caught a six-yard touchdown from Rattay with 4:35 remaining in the game that pulled the 49ers within 10 points. Rattay ran in the two-point conversion and suddenly the 49ers were within eight points. Now they needed a stop and the defense was up to the task, forcing a Cardinals punt. Taking over at the 49ers 28-yard line, Rattay started off with a nine-yard pass to WR Curtis Conway, then scampered 15 more yards before hitting Conway on a 14-yard pass to get the 49ers to the Cardinals 23. From there Rattay found WR Brandon Lloyd in the corner of the end zone and the 49ers were within two points. Lloyd then slipped in front of the defender and caught Rattay's two-point offering sending the game into overtime. The 49ers won the overtime coin toss and never relinquished the ball. A roughing the passer penalty on Arizona's DT Darnell Dockett helped the 49ers cause and Rattay took advantage as he quickly moved the team into scoring position where Peterson knocked home the game-winner.

December 12, 2004 – San Francisco 31, Arizona 28

First-year RB Maurice Hicks earned the game ball after an inspiring 139-yard performance on 34 attempts. He and QB Ken Dorsey carried the 49ers to their second victory of the season, a 31-28 overtime victory in Arizona. San Francisco did have to work for the win, despite taking a 28-3 lead in the third quarter. The Cardinals staged a furious rally and almost answered the 49ers overtime win earlier in the season at Monster Park. But some key plays from the defense and the legs of Hicks proved the difference of the day. Hicks, making his first career NFL start, had four carries for 42 yards in overtime including a significant 17-yard gain that set-up K Todd Peterson's game-winning field goal. Facing 2nd and 3 from the Cardinals 30-yard line, Hicks took the handoff from Dorsey, cut off the tackle to his right and raced downfield before he was knocked out of bounds at the 13. Dorsey finished the game completing 18 of 34 passes for 191 yards and three scores for a passer rating of 99.0. Starting for the injured QB Tim Rattay, Dorsey threw his first career touchdown to WR Brandon Lloyd for the first score of the day. He then connected twice with WR Cedrick Wilson for scores as Wilson led the receiving efforts with five receptions for 83 yards and two scores, including a 19-yard catch to keep the 49ers game-winning drive alive. Dorsey was sacked just once in his 34 passing attempts behind an offensive line that played its best game of the year.

January 1, 2006 – San Francisco 20, Houston 17

The San Francisco 49ers rallied from a 10-0 first quarter deficit for a 20-17 overtime victory over the Houston Texans to close out the 2005 campaign with two consecutive wins for a 4-12 record. The 49ers dominated the line of scrimmage, gaining 182 yards on the ground and controlling the clock for 44:03. The 49ers used a combination of RB Frank Gore (108 yards) and RB Maurice Hicks (64 yards) to take control on the ground. S Mike Adams was the star of the game on defense after finishing with two interceptions, one that was returned for a touchdown and the other that led to the game-winning field goal in overtime. QB Alex Smith helped lead the 49ers to a touchdown at the end of the first half by converting a key third-and-13 situation with a 14-yard strike to WR Brandon Lloyd and then three plays later threw his first NFL touchdown pass when he rolled to his right and found Lloyd in the back of the end zone for a 14-yard score. The 49ers took the second half kick and went on a 14-play, 56-yard drive that ended with a 42-yard field goal by Nedney to tie the game at 10-10. Houston responded when Banks fired a 31-yard pass to WR Corey Bradford to get into San Francisco territory followed by a 25-yard touchdown pass to Bradford to retake the lead at 17-10. Adams, who made his first NFL start at cornerback, intercepted QB Tony Banks at the end of the third quarter and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 17-17. Then in overtime, Banks went deep but Adams intercepted the pass and alertly lateraled to S Ben Emanuel, who ran 35 yards to the Houston 21-yard line. After two short runs, PK Joe Nedney nailed a 33-yard field goal to give the 49ers the 20-17 victory.

December 31, 2006 – San Francisco 26, Denver 23

The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 13-0 deficit to pull out a 26-23 win over the Denver Broncos at Invesco Field at Mile High. The 49ers played the role of spoilers when the victory knocked the Broncos out of the playoffs. The 49ers come-from-behind win was led by three outstanding individual efforts: RB Frank Gore gained 153 rushing yards, PK Joe Nedney kicked four field goals along with the game winner in overtime, and CB Walt Harris snagged two interceptions, including a 28-yard touchdown return in the third quarter. WR Bryan Gilmore had two key plays in overtime to advance the 49ers into field goal range for the game winning kick. During the first half, strong 49ers goal-line defense helped limit Denver to a pair of field goals on drives that were stopped when the Broncos were in first-and-goal situations. The 49ers defense again held Denver to a field goal in the third quarter when the Broncos had a first-and-goal inside the five-yard line. Denver went ahead 13-0 in the second quarter when CB Champ Bailey took a deflected theft 70 yards into the end zone. Nedney booted a 46-yard field goal to put the score at 13-3 in Denver's favor at the end of the half. San Francisco rallied in the second half, converting its first series into a 12-play, 76-yard touchdown drive. FB Moran Norris caught a short pass from Smith and weaved in and out of traffic for a 32-yard touchdown. The 49ers took the lead on the ensuing drive when Harris picked off QB Jay Cutler and went 28 yards untouched for a touchdown that gave the 49ers a 17-13 lead. Denver responded with a field goal on the next series, but the 49ers added two field goals in the fourth quarter for a 23-16 advantage with 6:14 to play in regulation. Cutler completed a nine-yard touchdown pass to TE Tony Scheffler to tie the game at 23-23 and send it into overtime. Denver won the coin toss, but was forced to punt on two drives before a 12-yard return by PR Brandon Williams allowed the 49ers to start their game-winning drive at their own 39-yard line. Gilmore gained 20 yards on an end route and then caught a 14-yard pass from QB Alex Smith for a first down at the Denver 25-yard line. Two plays later, Nedney kicked a 36-yard field goal to give San Francisco the win.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS FOUNDER

Anthony J. (Tony) Morabito

Tony Morabito dedicated his life to bringing an idea to fruition that others thought preposterous – the membership of the West Coast, in general, and San Francisco, in particular, in a nation-wide professional football league.

Morabito was the sports pioneer of the West, bringing San Francisco its first major league professional team, the San Francisco 49ers, in a professional sports business that was dominated by the East Coast. Before World War II, Morabito was convinced the San Francisco Bay Area was ready for a franchise in the National Football League. The Bay Area was a mecca for college football. Fans came in droves to Kezar Stadium to see the Wonder Teams of California-Berkeley and the Wow Boys of Stanford, led by Frankie Albert. St. Mary's, Santa Clara and the University of San Francisco were also area powerhouses that regularly defeated the University of Washington and Southern California inside the walls of Kezar.

Morabito saw the rise of football in the area and presented a case to birth a professional football team in 1942 to National Football League officials, but was quickly ushered out of the meeting room with firm politeness. In the spring of 1944, he took another crack, filing an application for an expansion team in the NFL. Morabito and some of his business associates went to Chicago to present their plan in front of League Commissioner, Elmer Layden. The NFL had no teams west of Chicago, and had no plans of changing their geographical structure. Morabito was again shunned.

He was then put in touch with Arch Ward, sports editor of The Chicago Tribune who was trying to organize a rival league, the All-America Football Conference. Morabito told Ward to count him in.

The new league's first meeting was held on June 6, 1944 in St. Louis, D-Day in Europe. Morabito agreed to form a San Francisco franchise in a league which would not begin operations until the end of the war.

It was the right time, and Morabito knew it.

A native of San Francisco, Morabito learned the game of football on vacant lots in the North Beach sector and had some success later as a halfback at St. Ignatius High School. He went on to play for the University of Santa Clara as a freshman in 1927 but his playing career was ended shortly after by a shoulder injury. He received his diploma in 1931 in the height of the Great Depression. He got a job driving a truck for $80 a month while his father, an immigrant from Italy, had built up a flourishing ship's service business on the San Francisco waterfront, only to see it fold in the wake of the depression years.

But as the country's economic state began to improve, so did Morabito's. By 1940, when he was 30 years old, he became a success in the lumber carrier business. The army turned him down for duty in 1942 because of partial deafness, which later forced him to wear a hearing aid.

By 1946, the San Francisco 49ers first year of operation, the Bay Area was in the middle of a postwar economic surge. Morabito's lumber yard was in huge demand as houses were springing up to shelter the fast-growing population that was migrating to California.

Morabito owned the new All-America Football Conference franchise with his partners in the Lumber Terminals of San Francisco – Allen E. Sorrell and E.J. Turre – and his younger brother, Victor.

Sorell suggested the team be named "49ers" after the voyagers who had rushed the West for gold. It is the only name the team has ever been affiliated with and San Francisco is the only city in which it has resided. The original team logo depicted San Francisco's wild beginnings. It was a goldminer in boots and a lumberjack shirt, firing a pair of pistols. One shot just missed the miner's head, while the other missed his foot. The logo was taken from a design seen on the side of railway freight cars.

With a charter, name and logo, the group recruited Lawrence "Buck" Shaw, Santa Clara's famous "Silver Fox," as the 49ers first head coach. The organization spent $250,000 to get structured before the team even took their first snap. Morabito's approach was considered "first class," by most, and a financial risk by many.

But Morabito charged on, hand-picking an inaugural roster that was comprised of 32 players including Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee and Bruno Banducci, all from Stanford, and stars from Santa Clara, including Alyn Beals, an end who scored 46 pro touchdowns in four years. Other known players on the roster were Len Eshmont, Johnny "Johnny Strike" Strzykalski and Joe "The Toe" Ventrano.

Morabito watched as his 49ers played their first game on August 24, 1946, a 17-7 exhibition win over the Los Angeles Dons at Balboa Park in San Diego. The 49ers first home game was played at Kezar Stadium on September 1, 1946, a 34-14 exhibition win over the Chicago Rockets in front of 45,000 fans made up of longshoremen, draymen, mechanics and waterfront workers.

49ers Founder, Tony Morabito

The first regular season league game was on September 8, 1946 against the New York Yankees. The 49ers scored first, but lost 21-7 in a game that began in sunshine and ended in the famous Kezar fog.

The 49ers finished 9-5 in their first season under Shaw, and went on to have an 8-4-2 record in 1947, 12-2 finish in 1948 and 10-4 record, including a trip to the Championship Game, in their final season in the AAFC.

At the end of 1949, it was announced that the AAFC had run its course. San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore received NFL franchises and would begin play in the NFL in 1950. The merger was what Morabito had hoped for all along as he, his brother Victor and general manager Lou Spadia, continued to hold the reins.

The 49ers struggled during their first season among the NFL elite, finishing with a 3-9 record. The following year though, the 49ers went 7-4-1.

As the seasons went on, Morabito was the heart and soul of the organization, signing on greats like The Million Dollar Backfield: Joe "The Jet" Perry, Hugh "The King" McElhenny and John Henry Johnson. He also attracted some of the NFL's most renowned talents in R.C. Owens, Bob St. Clair, Leo Nomellini, John Brodie and Y.A. Tittle.

The players appreciated his honesty, and trusted his every move and word.

As the 1950's progressed, Morabito was warned by his doctors that a bad heart and the rigors of football were not a healthy combination. But Morabito wasn't going to let a health scare get in the way of continuing with his passion. "What the hell, if I'm going to die, I might as well die at a football game," he said.

On October 27, 1957, the 49ers hosted the Chicago Bears at Kezar. The 49ers entered the game with a 3-1 record behind the talents of Owens, Perry, Tittle, McElhenny, Billy Wilson, and others. The Bears had a 14-0 advantage in the first quarter before the 49ers scored to close the deficit at 14-7. Just as the 49ers lined up for the next kickoff, Morabito, who was sitting next to his wife, Josephine, and his brother, Victor, in the guest box, suddenly collapsed. The great heart that had been with the 49ers since the franchise's inception had failed.

Father Bill McGuire of St. James parish was summoned to the guest box and pronounced Morabito his final absolution. Morabito looked up at him and smiled.

"Thank you father," he said.

Those were his last words.

The 49ers were behind 17-7 in the third quarter when the team learned of Morabito's death. His players rallied and came back to defeat Chicago, 21-17, in an emotional last win for their owner. The 49ers finished the season with three straight victories and an 8-4 record, tying Detroit for the NFL Western Division title.

Victor, Tony's younger brother, kept the team in the family until 1964, when he too died of a heart attack. Both Victor and Tony's wives, Jane and Josephine, retained control of the 49ers with Lou Spadia as team president until 1977, when a new team owner, Edward DeBartolo Jr. of Youngstown, Ohio emerged to buy the franchise.

Morabito's conviction, passion and character birthed and kept an NFL franchise in San Francisco, and laid the sturdy foundation that has enabled the 49ers to become one of the NFL's premier football powers over the past 60 years.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and committment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five-time Super Bowl Champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the late Coach McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979. He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl Championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements," Walsh said.

A bronze plaque of McKittrick hangs in the 49ers locker room surrounded by the photographs of the McKittrick Award winners.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

The Ed Block Courage Award is named after Ed Block, the former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts of 23 years. Block was a pioneer in his profession and a respected humanitarian whose most passionate cause was helping children of abuse. The award is presented in his name each year to the player that exemplified a commitment to sportsmanship and courage. Ed Block Courage Award winners from each of the 32 NFL teams are honored at a banquet in Baltimore, MD. All proceeds from the event benefit the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation's Courage House National Support Network. Named after the NFL team in a respective NFL city, a Courage House is a facility that provides support and quality care for abused children and their families in that community. The 49ers dedicated their Courage House in October 2003 at the Edgewood House in San Francisco.

49ERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Leo Nomellini

1969-DT Leo Nomellini (1950-63). Was the first ever draft choice after the 49ers joined the NFL. Played every 49ers game for 14 seasons. Altogether he played in 174 consecutive regular season games, including 10 trips to the Pro Bowl, and played in 266 contests. "The Lion" became one of the few to be named to an All-NFL team on both offense and defense. Retired at age 39. Played college ball at the University of Minnesota. Born June 19, 1924 in Lucca, Italy.

Joe Perry

1969-FB Joe Perry (1948-60, 63). First player in NFL history to gain 1,000 yards two consecutive seasons. His 9,723 rushing yards placed him second only to Jim Brown when he retired. Finished career with 12,505 combined yards. Nicknamed "The Jet" because of his quick starts. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1961-62). Attended Compton Junior College. Born January 22, 1927 in Stevens, AR.

Hugh McElhenny

1970-HB Hugh McElhenny (1952-60). One of only three players to gain over 11,000 yards carrying the ball. Scored 60 career touchdowns, 38 rushing, including a 42-yard touchdown run on his first pro play in preseason. In 1952 McElhenny had the longest punt return (94) and longest play from scrimmage (89). Scored two touchdowns in first Pro Bowl after his rookie year. Also played for Minnesota Vikings (1961-62), New York Giants (1963) and Detroit Lions (1964). Played college football at University of Washington. Born December 31, 1928 in Los Angeles, CA.

Y. A. Tittle

1971-QB Y.A. Tittle (1951-60). Had 17 years of NFL experience, finishing his career with 33,070 passing yards and 281 touchdowns (39 rushing). Won NFL Most Valuable Player Award in 1961 and '63. Threw 33 touchdown passes and a career-high 3,224 yards in 1962. In '63 he threw 36 touchdowns, completing 60.2 percent of his passes. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1948-50) and the New York Giants (1961-64). Played college ball at Lousiana State University. Born October 24, 1926 in Marshall, TX.

John Henry Johnson

1987-FB John Henry Johnson (1954-56). Was a member of what's been noted as the finest backfield in NFL history. The foursome known as "The Million Dollar Backfield" and "The Fabulous Foursome" included three other Hall of Famers—QB Y.A. Tittle and RBs Joe Perry and Hugh McElhenny. Gained 6,803 yards rushing, including 48 touchdowns. Also played for the Detroit Lions (1957-59), Pittsburgh Steelers (1960-65) and Houston Oilers (1966). Attended St. Mary's College and Arizona State University. Born November 24, 1929 in Waterproof, LA.

Bob St. Clair

1990-T Bob St. Clair (1953-63). Exceptional offensive lineman. Also played goal line defense and blocked 10 field goals in 1956. Once lost five teeth when blocking a punt. Earned All-NFL honors three times and made five Pro Bowl appearances. Attended University of San Francisco and Tulsa. Born February 18, 1931 in San Francisco, CA.

Bill Walsh

1993-Head Coach Bill Walsh (1979-88). Led "The Team of the '80s" to three Super Bowl titles (XVI, XIX, XXIII) in 10 years. Compiled a .617 winning percentage with a 102-63-1 mark that included 10 wins in 14 postseason games. Notorious for his reputation of being an outstanding offensive coach, Walsh developed what is now known as the "West Coast Offense." Named NFL Coach of the Year in 1981 and '84. Attended San Jose State. Born November 30, 1931 in Los Angeles, CA.

Jimmy Johnson

1994-CB Jimmy Johnson (1961-76). Starter on both offense and defense at UCLA. Began 49ers career as a defensive back, moved to offense, then stayed at DB in his third season. Intercepted 47 passes for 615 yards, including five his rookie year. As a receiver in 1962 he caught 34 passes for 627 yards and four touchdowns. Recognized as one of the best man-to-man defenders in NFL history. Played in five Pro Bowls and twice won the prestigious Len Eshmont Award selected by his teammates for inspirational play. Born March 31, 1938 in Dallas, TX.

Joe Montana

2000-QB Joe Montana (1979-92). Solidified his place in professional sports annals with numerous NFL records and a legendary reputation as a leader. Finished his career with 40,551 yards passing and 273 touchdowns. Ranks second all-time with a 92.3 career passer rating and 62.3 completion percentage. Led the league in passing in 1987 and 1989. Won back-to-back NFL MVP awards in 1989 and 1990. Named the Sports Illustrated Sportsman-of-the-Year in 1990. Named Super Bowl MVP an unprecedented three times. Directed his team to the playoffs 12 times and boasts a 95.3 passer rating in 23 postseason games. Holds NFL postseason records in completions (460), attempts (734), yards gained (5,772), touchdowns (45) and 300-yard passing games (6). Born June 11, 1956 in New Eagle, PA.

Ronnie Lott

2000-DB Ronnie Lott (1981-90). Known as one of the most ferocious and feared players in NFL history. Played in 10 Pro Bowls and won four Super Bowl Championships. Earned All-Pro honors at three different positions: cornerback, free safety and strong safety. Registered 1,161 career tackles, including five seasons with at least 100 tackles. Ranks fifth in NFL history with 63 interceptions. Led the league in interceptions in 1986 and 1991 and returned five interceptions for touchdowns. Holds the NFL record for postseason interceptions with nine. Named to the 75th Anniversary All-Time team, 1980's All-Decade team and Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team as a cornerback. Born May 8, 1959 in Albuquerque, NM.

Dave Wilcox

2000-LB Dave Wilcox (1964-74). Nicknamed "The Intimidator" by coaches and teammates for his tough, hard-nosed playing style. Considered to be one of the finest outside linebackers to ever play the game. Earned seven Pro Bowl nominations and was a seven-time All-Pro selection. Was selected by his teammates as the Len Eshmont Award winner as the team's most inspirational and courageous player in 1967. Had his best season as a professional in 1973, recording 104 tackles, 13 for loss, two interceptions, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Recovered 12 career fumbles for 48 yards and one touchdown. Born September 29, 1942 in Eugene, OR.

Steve Young

2005-QB Steve Young (1987-99). One of the greatest quarterbacks in NFL history, standing as the most accurate passer in league history with a 96.8 quarterback rating. Ranks 17th all-time with 2,667 career completions, 19th all-time with 33,124 passing yards and 17th all-time with 232 touchdown passes. Dominating arm strength and mobility yielded 232 regular season touchdown tosses and 3,581 rushing yards during his years at Tampa Bay (1985-86) and San Francisco (1987-99). Recorded 28, 300-yard passing games during his prolific career, holding an NFL record for most consecutive 300-yard games with six in 1998. His 43 rushing touchdowns are the most by a quarterback in pro football history. Was a two-time NFL Most Valuable Player (1992 & 1994) and Super Bowl XXIX MVP. Earned seven consecutive Pro Bowl nominations (1992-98) and was All-Pro (1992-93). Six touchdown passes in Super Bowl XXIX victory over San Diego stands as Super Bowl record. Born October 11, 1961 in Salt Lake City, UT.

SAN FRANCISCO'S WINNING TRADITION

For two decades (1980-99), the San Francisco 49ers established themselves as the NFL's most dominant franchise. The 49ers won more Super Bowls, posted more winning seasons, claimed more divisional titles and made more playoff appearances than any team in the league over that 20-year stretch.

Since the DeBartolo Corporation purchased the team in 1977, the 49ers made one of the most dramatic turnarounds in sports history, rebounding from back-to-back 2-14 seasons in 1978-79 to Super Bowl Champions in 1981. The 49ers unparalleled success continued into the '90s, winning their fifth Super Bowl in 1994, becoming the first team in NFL history to win five Super Bowl titles.

MARIE P. DEBARTOLO SPORTS CENTRE

In loving memory of their mother, Marie P. DeBartolo, San Francisco 49ers Owner Denise DeBartolo York and her brother, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., dedicated the team's training facility and office complex to her in August of 1988.

Situated on an 11-acre site in Santa Clara, CA (approximately 40 miles south of Monster Park), the complex provides players, coaches and staff with all the necessary components for daily practices, weekly game preparations and general overall operations in one functional, state-of-the-art setting.

From its master blueprint to the smallest of details, the facility exemplifies the DeBartolos' strive for perfection and drive for superiority. It also reflects their dedication to the organization and first-class standard for operating procedures.

Two natural grass practice fields with underground drainage and watering systems allow for workouts in all Northern California weather conditions. A synthetic turf practice field from Sportexe was installed in 2006 to maximize the team's versatility and safety on different playing surfaces. The field turf also enables the 49ers to make a smooth transition for practice if the natural grass becomes soggy from rain.

A two-story, 52,000 square foot building (more than three times the space the 49ers had in Redwood City) houses all offices and facilities with the exception of the ticket and stadium operations. Located upstairs at the facility are offices for coaches, administration, sales and marketing, business operations, public and community relations, pro scouting and college scouting.

The ground floor contains a spacious locker room area with 60 permanent lockers and allocations for extra (portable) lockers to be used during mini-camps and training camp when squads are larger.

A well-equipped weight room and training area downstairs accommodates both preventative and rehabilitative conditioning. A 30-by-40-foot hydro-therapy indoor swimming pool is also available.

Also located downstairs are numerous meeting rooms, each featuring a digital projection unit, allowing players and coaches the opportunity to analyze previous games, practice sessions and upcoming opponents.

Media facilities and a 120-seat auditorium and conference room (wired for live television broadcasts from the site), make the set-up ideally suited for weekly press conference coverage and daily reporting duties. Located just outside the weight room is a canopied patio area used for team meals, press luncheons and other team-related activities.

MURLAN FOWELL

Vice President/Operations

With his extensive knowledge of business management, Mo Fowell is entering his 22nd year with the 49ers and his fourth as Vice President of Operations. Prior to his promotion, Fowell served as the Director of Stadium Operations for the 49ers for 15 years. He initially began with the 49ers in 1986 as the team's Luxury Suite Manager.

In his present role, Fowell splits his time between the 49ers two facilities – Monster Park in San Francisco and the practice facility in Santa Clara. He is responsible for the supervision of stadium operations and the practice facility, where he oversees security, field maintenance, building maintenance, front office management and all other aspects relating to the facility.

One of the major undertakings Fowell was responsible for in his stadium supervision was coordinating the $30 million renovation of Candlestick Park in 1986. Part of that task included the implementation of the luxury suite sales and marketing program.

And in early 2007, Fowell was part of the 49ers management team that negotiated $10.3 million in repairs to Monster Park that will restore escalators, elevators, restrooms and refurbish the existing parking lot.

In 2005, Fowell was instrumental in the logistical planning of the 49ers intricate three-day road trip to Mexico City to play the Arizona Cardinals. The historical match up marked the first regular season NFL game played outside of the United States, drawing over 103,000 fans at Estadio Azteca.

A charter member of the Stadium Managers Association (SMA), Fowell was also a member of the NFL Task Force on Security, which was established after the events of September 11, 2001.

Before joining the 49ers, Fowell spent 15 years in the restaurant industry, compiling an impressive resume and honing his managerial skills. For three years, he worked as Vice President of Operations for Ole International Foods (1983-86) and was responsible for operating three full service restaurants in Boise, ID and Lewiston, ID. From 1980-82, he worked as a District Supervisor for El Torito Restaurants, Inc. and oversaw the company's regional expansion into the Northwestern United States.

Fowell attended the University of Wyoming and Montana State and majored in business administration.

Born in Billings, MT, Fowell and his wife, Cheryl, reside in Half Moon Bay, CA.

ELISABETH LANG

Vice President/Communications

Elisabeth (Lisa) Lang enters her third season as the 49ers Vice President of Communications.

Lang oversees a number of functions at the 49ers, including public relations, community outreach, employee communications and the 49ers Foundation. She is responsible for overall communication planning to strengthen relationships with the community, fans, season ticket holders, corporate sponsors, government officials and employees. Lang also handles media relations for business and community issues, is a member of the team's new stadium planning group, serves as the club's primary spokesperson on business issues and is the liaison to the 49ers Community Advisory Panel.

Since joining the 49ers on November 1, 2005, Lang has spearheaded a number of community programs, including the team's "Respect" campaign to inspire youth to demonstrate respect for their families, schools and their communities. The 49ers players, coaches and staff participated in 134 community activities throughout the 2006 season, donating 2,580 hours of volunteer towards the "Respect" initiative.

She has also helped sharpen the focus of the 49ers Foundation by concentrating its efforts on keeping San Francisco Bay Area youth safe, on-track and in school. This past season the Foundation distributed more than $1.2 million to non-profit organizations throughout the San Francisco Bay Area and teamed with the 49ers Community Relations Department to provide auction and raffle items for fundraising events to another 1,200 non-profits last year.

Lang recently won the 2007 San Jose Business Journal's Woman of Distinction Award. She serves on the Board of the Mission City Community Fund in Santa Clara and is a member of the Bay Area Council.

Lang joined the 49ers with over 20 years of experience in organizational and marketing communications for major brands. She has held top communications jobs in the consumer software, telecommunications and publishing industries. Most recently, she was Vice President of Corporate and Marketing Communications at Intuit, the Mountain View, CA-based makers of Quicken and Turbo Tax software. During her five years with Intuit, she oversaw the successful launch of dozens of consumer and small business products, led the effort to establish the company's privacy policies, created a brand strategy and helped establish the Intuit Foundation and employee giving programs.

Lang also had a 13-year career at Pacific Bell (now known as AT&T) where she quickly rose through the ranks from staff manager in 1983 to Vice President in 1991. For over seven years she led Corporate Communications for Pacific Bell and then for the entire Pacific Telesis Corporation. She oversaw a department of 85 communications professionals and the launch of new lines of business, including voice mail, Internet services and cellular phones. She also unveiled Pacific Bell's partnership with the San Francisco Giants for the new ballpark, developed the company's business ethics program and managed the consumer advisory process.

Prior to joining Pacific Bell, Lang handled a variety of promotional responsibilities as Director of Public Relations for Ms. Magazine in New York City.

Lang is a graduate of The Ohio State University. She resides on the Peninsula with her husband and two children.

LARRY MACNEIL

Vice President/Chief Financial Officer

With more than 20 years of experience in finance and accounting, Larry MacNeil is in his fifth year as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for the 49ers.

He is responsible for the management of the team's business office, budgeting, forecasts, financial reporting, internal controls, partnership tax matters and cash management. MacNeil also works closely with the team's football operations staff on salary cap issues and contract matters.

MacNeil's record as a financial leader and problem solver is extensive. After beginning his career in public accounting, MacNeil spent 12 years as a partner with a management consulting firm delivering financial expertise to a broad range of companies across the country. Over the course of his career, MacNeil has worked with clients in commercial banking, real estate development and management, insurance, investment banking and transportation. MacNeil is a seasoned negotiator, having executed more than $2 billion in acquisitions, sales and financing transactions.

MacNeil served for 12 years as a Senior Partner with National Advisors, a San Diego based management consulting firm (1988-00). MacNeil began his career with Kenneth Leventhal & Company, CPAs in Southern California, supervising audit and consulting engagements (1984-88).

He earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Kansas and is a licensed CPA in California.

DAVID PEART

Vice President/Sales and Marketing

With more than two decades as a sports marketing professional, David Peart enters his fourth season with the 49ers as Vice President of Sales and Marketing. Peart is responsible for overseeing the team's revenue, marketing and brand generating activities. He leads all 49ers broadcasting, corporate sales, marketing, new media, ticket sales and ticket operations efforts.

Peart has attracted some of the industry's most talented sales and marketing professionals to help lead the 49ers efforts to build and expand the 49ers brand and turn the club into the most fan-friendly team in sports.

Under his direction, the 49ers have started an ongoing fan research program to provide fans a forum to communicate with the team. He has also directed the launch of an extensive marketing and branding campaign to increase the team's brand profile.

During Peart's tenure the 49ers marketing and broadcasting efforts have received numerous regional and national awards for their creative efforts. In the past two seasons the 49ers marketing and broadcast initiatives have received several accolades, including Telly Awards, local Emmy nominations and consecutive awards from the National Sports Forum highlighted by the 2006 ADchievement Award for Overall Excellence for the 49ers "Faithful" marketing platform.

Peart has also helped the 49ers create one of the most comprehensive local broadcasting initiatives in the National Football League. Through the team's partnership with Cumulus Radio San Francisco, the team is featured in more than 20 hours of programming each week. In the past two seasons the 49ers have expanded their radio network to nearly 40 stations including English and Spanish language game day broadcasts with coverage in five western states. In addition, the 49ers have extensive local and regional television coverage each season centered on the team's long-standing partnership with KPIX CBS5. More than 200 hours of television programming is dedicated to the 49ers on broadcast and cable outlets in Northern California.

Peart came to the 49ers from the Houston Texans, where he spent four years as the Vice President of Corporate Sales. In Houston, he was a member of the executive team that managed the most successful expansion franchise launch in U.S. sports history. Peart oversaw the Texans Alliance Partnership program and directed the team's corporate sales efforts. In addition, he coordinated the Texans efforts to secure naming rights for Reliant Stadium and managed the radio and television broadcasting business relationships. The Texans earned several distinctions, including the top rating in J.D. Power and Associates NFL Fan Experience Index and the 2003 PRISM Award, which is given annually to the top major league professional sports team based on business excellence criteria.

Prior to joining the Texans, Peart was Assistant Vice President of Advertising Sales for the Southwest Sports Group in Dallas. Prior to his stint in Dallas, Peart served as Regional Vice President of Sales for Network International/SMG. From 1987-1993, he was Director of Advertising Sales for the Pittsburgh Penguins. He has been involved in seven naming rights projects including Reliant Stadium and most recently Monster Park.

A Pittsburgh native, Peart earned a bachelor's degree from Point Park College in Pittsburgh and attended Carnegie Mellon University for his graduate studies. In 2003, Peart completed the prestigious Rice University Program for Managers. He is a founding member of the Advisory Board of Baylor University's Center for Sports at the Hankamer School of Business.

He and his wife, Julie, reside in Menlo Park with their two children, Tyler and Kelsey.

49ERS COMMUNITY ADVISORY PANEL

In 2006, the 49ers invited certain civic and community leaders throughout the San Francisco Bay Area to join a newly created Community Advisory Panel (CAP). This 15-member panel is comprised of leaders who have spent their careers working to make a difference in the lives of people in Bay Area communities.

CAP members advise the 49ers organization to ensure the team's community outreach events including volunteer efforts by players, coaches and staff; cultural half-time shows; holiday-giving events; 49ers Foundation donations and youth development programs that make the greatest impact in the community.

The CAP builds on the 49ers rich history of appreciating and giving back to the San Francisco Bay Area, and will work to ensure the team continues to be an integral part of the communities it serves.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS IN THE COMMUNITY

Throughout the 49ers 60-year history, the Club has shared a commitment to its faithful fans and the community.

As such, the 49ers took a stand in the community in 2006, advocating the value of respect through a new outreach campaign created to target youth in the Bay Area.

The Respect Campaign leverages the power of community involvement and its ability to generate public awareness to share the importance of respect and its central role in helping young people become good community citizens.

As part of the campaign, members of the 49ers organization take part in a variety of community events to reach out to youth and impart the value of respect in three important areas of their lives: families, schools and communities.

Making an Impact through Community Outreach

Each year, the 49ers players, coaches and staff participate in more than 130 community activities and events donating more than 2,500 hours of volunteer time in the San Francisco Bay Area. Each year, more than 80,000 people are directly impacted by the 49ers community outreach efforts, including more than 38,000 children.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS FOUNDATION

The San Francisco 49ers Foundation is the nonprofit community funding arm of the San Francisco 49ers. Now in its 15th year, the 49ers Foundation supports development programs for underserved youth that keep them safe, on track and in school. A significant portion of its funding goes toward family violence prevention programs and activities that teach youth leadership and respect.

Through the leadership of 49ers team Owners Denise and John York, the 49ers Foundation has donated more than $4 million over the last four years to non-profits throughout the San Francisco Bay Area.

SIGNATURE FUNDRAISING PROGRAMS

Hedge Funds Cares

Hedge Funds Cares is an industry alliance formed in 1998 with the sole mission of raising funds to support the prevention and treatment of child abuse and neglect. To date, Hedge Funds Cares has raised $15 million nationally.

The San Francisco 49ers Foundation partners annually with Hedge Funds Cares to host the West Coast Open Your Heart to the Children Benefit to raise funds to support community-based non-profits that have services focused on the prevention and treatment of child abuse and neglect. Each year, the event raises more than $800,000 to support non-profits.

Celebrity Winter & Wine Fest

Since it's inception in 2001, the 49ers Foundation Celebrity Winter & Wine Fest is one of the premier fundraising events for the 49ers Foundation. Squaw Valley comes alive during the three-day event that includes a ski race between Olympians, coaches, ownership and alumni, silent and live auctions, live music and great wine and food. Corporations and individuals are able to purchase sponsorship packages to participate in the festivities. Since 2001, this exclusive event has raised more than $3.5 million for the 49ers Foundation.

Cadence Stars & Strikes

The Stars & Strikes bowling tournament is one of the largest community events of its kind in Silicon Valley. The annual fundraising effort between the 49ers Foundation and Cadence Design Systems, Inc., the world's leading electronic design software provider, raises funds to support charitable causes in the Bay Area community. The 49ers lend their star power by involving current and former players. Since its inception in 1990, Stars & Strikes has raised more than $8.5 million to fund major programs and projects that provide significant benefits to local non-profit organizations and charities.

Celebrity Crab Cracking on Union Square

Once a year, San Francisco celebrates its beloved icon from the sea, the Dungeness crab, with the Celebrity Crab Cracking event in Union Square. As part of the event, the 49ers Foundation along with members of the 49ers team up with local chefs to demonstrate the art and intricacies of cracking a crab. Demonstrations are followed by a timed cracking and cleaning contest with local San Francisco celebrities. Food, wine and beer are available. All proceeds from the event benefit the 49ers Foundation.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

RESPECT FOR FAMILIES

Respect Rim

In 2006, the team began the sale of the Respect Rim baseball cap. One-hundred percent of the proceeds from the sale of the Respect Rim go to the 49ers Foundation in support of the San Francisco Domestic Violence Consortium and Partners Ending Domestic Abuse, which is dedicated to eliminating domestic violence and ensuring the basic rights of safety, self-determination and well-being to victims and survivors of domestic violence and their children. In its inaugural season, $40,000 was raised to support the cause.

Founding Fathers

The Club partners with the Family Violence Prevention Fund to distribute Founding Father pledge cards to adult fans attending one home game per season. By signing the Founding Fathers Declaration, men join in a public statement to call for an end to violence against women and children. Each time a man signs the declaration they make a financial contribution to support the violence prevention efforts as part of the Family Violence Prevention Fund's Campaign for the Next Generation.

Holiday Giving

During the holiday season, 49ers players and significant others, alumni and staff come together to deliver food and holiday trimmings to families in need throughout the Bay Area. Partnering with the San Francisco Food Bank, Turning Wheels for Kids, Second Harvest Food Bank and City Team Ministries, the 49ers are able to make the holidays a little brighter.

RESPECT FOR SCHOOLS

"Seeing Both Sides"

In partnership with the San Francisco Education Fund Peer Resources Program, the 49ers created an educational, in-school video to encourage students to show respect for themselves and others by resisting violence as a means to resolve conflict. Titled "Seeing Both Sides," the DVD features 49ers players and students from the Peer Resources Program discussing issues that surround conflict resolution. As part of the program students who view "Seeing Both Sides" are asked to create a poster and accompanying paragraph that relate to the theme of the video. More than 14,000 students participated in this initiative.

Safety in Schools

Part of providing a safe school environment for children is making sure that students both arrive and depart schools in a safe fashion; the Club promotes America's Safe Schools Week through its Safety Walk crossing guard effort and Safe Halloween activities.

49ers Academy

Since opening in 1996, the 49ers Academy in East Palo Alto has received ongoing support from the 49ers organization. The school serves 6th, 7th and 8th grade students who benefit from a small, nurturing and personalized environment. The 49ers Academy provides a caring community where the emphasis is on one-on-one relationships to promote academic success in children who have struggled in other school systems.

RESPECT FOR COMMUNITIES

Community Tuesdays

Every Tuesday during the football season 49ers players participate in community activities to demonstrate respect for our community, schools and families. Community Tuesdays are designed to raise awareness of the charitable activities of 49ers players while highlighting the services and support provided by non-profit organizations in the San Francisco Bay Area. These activities range from school and hospital visits to neighborhood beautification projects and holiday giving.

Hometown Huddle

Hometown Huddle is a partnership between all 32 NFL teams and the United Way. Each year, the 32 teams work with a local United Way agency on a select day to participate in a community service project. Past 49ers Hometown Huddle activities have included 49ers players painting over graffiti in San Francisco's historic Chinatown district, refurbishing the ropes course area at Camp Arroyo, installing playground equipment at local parks and beautifying Bay Area schools.

Wells Fargo Red and Gold Community Program

For the third year, Wells Fargo is sponsoring the Red and Gold community program. This opportunity is open to organizations that provide positive alternatives for at-risk youth in the San Francisco Bay Area. Non-profit organizations apply to receive up to 40 free tickets for their organization to attend a 49ers preseason or regular season home game.

Bayview/Hunters Point YMCA

The Bayview/Hunters Point YMCA is supported by the entire 49ers organization from the top down. Ownership, players, alumni, coaches and staff frequently visit the center, donate tickets to the youth and financially support the YMCA's programs. Most recently, the 49ers Foundation pledged $250,000 over a five-year period to assist with overall renovation of their newly acquired facility on Lane Street.

Hunters Point Boys & Girls Club

The establishment of the new Bayview/Hunter's Point Boys & Girls Club on Hunter's Point Hill is a true city-wide partnership that involves branches of government, including the Mayor's Office, the City Attorney and the San Francisco Police Department, and both San Francisco sports franchises, the 49ers and the Giants. The new facility has significantly expanded recreational opportunities for youth in one of the most underserved neighborhoods in the Bay Area.

49ers Half Time Shows (September through December)

Throughout the regular season the 49ers hold four community-related half time shows. Two of these, Latino Heritage Day and Asian-American Pacific Islander Day, celebrate the diverse culture of the Bay Area, while others promote youth football and raise awareness on social issues such as the issue of domestic violence.

49ers Stadium Drives (September through December)

Throughout the regular season, the Club requests fans and game attendees to make generous contributions of items such as clothing, food, toys, books and cell phones. These gameday collection drives benefit deserving charitable organizations in the Bay Area such as Second Harvest Food Bank of Santa Clara and San Mateo, San Francisco Food Bank, Operation Dream, Silicon Valley Boys & Girls Club, One Warm Coat and Children's Book Project.

For more information about the 49ers activities in the community, please contact the San Francisco 49ers Community Relations Department at 408.562.4949, send an email to sfcommunityrelations@niners.nfl.com or visit us online at 49ers.com.

Youth football programs teach kids the importance of respect, teamwork, goal-setting and how to live a healthy lifestyle in a fun, safe and educational environment.

49ers Gatorade Junior Training Camp

The 49ers Gatorade Jr. Training Camps offer children the opportunity to learn football skills such as passing, tackling and ball-carrying while also learning about proper hydration.

49ers Youth Football Camp

The Club conducts one three-day camp during the summer designed to teach youth the fundamentals of football. Boys and girls ages 7-14 are eligible to participate. The 49ers Camp is a non-contact camp designed to improve a child's beginning, intermediate, or advanced skill level. Fundamentals of all positions on offense and defense are taught in addition to life skills such as respect, responsibility, sportsmanship, teamwork and the importance of education. Participants are grouped based on age and skill level.

49ers Offensive/Defensive Line Camp

Open to high school students grades 9-12, the 49ers Offensive/Defensive Line Camp is unique in the fact that it focuses solely on O-Line and D-Line play. The camp is designed to stress fundamentals, while polishing skills and techniques. The camp consists of both classroom training (film study and chalk talk) and on-field training.

49ers 7-on-7 Tournament

49ers/NFL Flag Tournament

The 49ers host the annual NFL Flag Regional Tournament. Approximately 400 children take part in the day-long, round robin tournament. Winners receive an all-expense paid trip to Disney's Wide World of Sports® Complex in Orlando, FL and the chance to participate in the National Tournament of Champions.

Play Football Month

The 49ers celebrate the annual Play Football Month to encourage kids to play America's favorite sport. Throughout the entire Play Football Month, events are held in towns across America, including clinics, skill competitions, scrimmages, picnics and parades. The 49ers provide tickets to preseason games to kids who complete a youth football clinic or Gatorade Junior Training Camp. In addition, 4,000 tickets are distributed to various Pop Warner, high school football and Police Athletic League teams.

Coach of the Week

For more than ten years, the 49ers have taken part in the NFL's Coach of the Week program, designed to aid and promote youth football and give high school coaches the recognition they deserve. The 49ers award, the "Charlie Wedemeyer Coach of the Week Award," is named after former Los Gatos High School Head Coach Charlie Wedemeyer. The encouraging example that Charlie set is an inspiration not only to coaches, but to the Bay Area community as a whole. Each week during the high school football season, the 49ers select one football coach as the Coach of the Week winner.

49ers Head Coach Mike Nolan, Charlie Wedemeyer and the 2006 Coach of the Week winners.

High School Player of the Week

The 49ers promote excellence through the 49ers High School Player of the Week program that recognizes the athletic achievements of San Francisco Bay Area youth and promotes local high school athletics. The chosen player is recognized with an award and certificate.

NFL/USA Football Coaching School

In partnership with the NFL, National Football Foundation and USA Football, the 49ers host an annual Coaching School at the 49ers facility. Members of 49ers coaching staff take part in a portion of the day-long clinic providing top-notch football instruction to more than 100 local Bay Area high school and youth football coaches.

Football Field Renovation

The club partners with the Good Tidings Foundation to provide neighborhood-based organizations, middle schools and high schools with financing and technical assistance to improve the quality, safety and accessibility of local football fields.

Junior Player Development (JPD)

The NFL developed a youth tackle football program for children ages 12-14. The program is designed to teach participants every football position step-by-step. Attendees receive instruction from NFL-selected high school coaches in the Bay Area. JPD programs are made available at various locations across the Bay Area.

High School Player Development (HSPD)

HSPD provides incoming fall season sophomores, juniors and seniors a program focusing on academic counseling as well as specific football skill training by position. HSPD programs are made available at various locations across the Bay Area.

2007 TRAINING CAMP

The San Francisco 49ers will hold training camp at their Santa Clara training facility again this season. The 49ers will open ten, free fan practice sessions to the public during the team's 2007 summer slate. It marks the third time in the history of the Santa Clara facility that practices will be open. Each of the ten fan practice sessions will feature interactive games, ticket sales, photo opportunities with Gold Rush Cheerleaders, Sourdough Sam and player autographs. The 49ers will also have onsite broadcasting from KNBR/107.7 The Bone, Team Cinco and KPIX. To attend 49ers training camp, fans can register for free tickets at 49ers.com.

Location: Marie P. DeBartolo Sports Centre
4949 Centennial Blvd.
Santa Clara, CA 95054

Camp Dates: July 29-August 22

Reporting Dates: Entire team reports Saturday, July 28

Camp Facts: This is the fifth year the 49ers will hold training camp sessions in Santa Clara. The 49ers spent the previous five years (1998-02) at the University of Pacific in Stockton, CA. Prior to that, the team spent 17 years (1981-97) at Sierra College in Rocklin, CA before making the move to the University of the Pacific. The 17-year Rocklin stint tops the 13-year stay (1955-67) at St. Mary's College in Moraga, CA as the longest training camp visit in team history. San Francisco has also trained at Menlo College (1946-54), UC Santa Barbara (1968-75), San Jose State (1976-78) and Santa Clara (1979-80).

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS CHEERLEADERS

GoldRush

For more than 27 years, the San Francisco 49ers Cheerleaders, known as the "Gold Rush," have established a reputation as a bright, talented and diverse group of community leaders in the Bay Area. Their combination of dance ability and charity involvement has set a standard for other professional NFL cheerleading teams. The Gold Rush has been featured in many national television shows, was selected by the USO to tour their bases in Bosnia, South Korea and Europe; and has performed in Japan, Germany, Great Britain and Spain, as well as four Super Bowls.

Every year, the team's presence is requested at more than 300 special appearances and charity functions. Because of their national acclaim, the Gold Rush has also been featured on numerous local and national television shows, including ESPN, Entertainment Tonight, MTV, Extra!, The Leeza Show, The Total Football Network, and the FOX Network.

In addition, the Gold Rush is involved in many charity events that have a positive impact on the San Francisco Bay Area community, and society at large. The Cheerleaders have volunteered to work along with the American Diabetes Association, Special Olympics, Shriner's Hospital, March of Dimes, American Cancer Society, Susan Komen Foundation, Children's Miracle Network and the Ronald McDonald House, as well as local fundraisers and charity work.

Let the 49ers Gold Rush make your event one to remember! The 49ers Gold Rush Cheerleaders appear at community events, corporate meetings, parties, trade shows and civic engagements throughout the year.

To book the Gold Rush or Sourdough Sam for your next special event, please visit 49ers.com or call (650) 838-0820 for more information.

2007 49ERS RADIO NETWORK

The 49ers flagship stations include KNBR 680/1050 and KSAN 107.7 The Bone. KNBR 680/1050 are the undisputed sports leaders in Northern California. With its dominant 50,000-watt non-directional signal, KNBR 680 reaches all of Northern California during the day and 11 western states at night.

In addition to full game day coverage that includes a comprehensive live three-hour pre-game show each week and full post game coverage following each game broadcast, KNBR 680/1050 and KSAN 107.7 The Bone will air unprecedented week-long coverage of the 49ers from training camp through the NFL playoffs to provide the most extensive up-to-the-minute coverage in the area.

THE RADIO BROADCAST TEAM

Joe Starkey

Joe Starkey has been the voice of the San Francisco 49ers since 1989. In his role as the play-by-play announcer, Starkey has provided some of the most colorful calls in the team's history. He has also been the play-by-play announcer for University of California at Berkeley Golden Bears Football since 1975.

Starkey's first announcing job in sports was in 1972 for Charlie Finley's Oakland-based National Hockey League Seals. Since that time, Joe has been a broadcaster for the NFL's Minnesota Vikings and Denver Broncos, the USFL's Oakland Invaders, and the NHL's San Jose Sharks and Pittsburgh Penguins. He has also called Golden State Warriors and Cal Bears basketball, and is an eight-time winner of the Associated Press Award for Best California Play-by-Play Broadcaster. His international experience includes Winter and Summer Olympics, Wimbledon tennis and professional soccer.

Gary Plummer

Back for his 10th season, Gary Plummer will join Joe Starkey to provide analysis and color to the KNBR broadcasts. Plummer is a San Francisco 49ers alumnus who played for the franchise from 1994-1997 as a star linebacker. Plummer is a native of the San Francisco Bay Area and played college football at California-Berkeley. He began his broadcasting career in 1997 in Los Angeles where he was a commentator for Monday Night Live on the ABC affiliate. Plummer had a professional football career that spanned 15 years.

Rod Brooks

A familiar voice in Bay Area radio, Rod Brooks is in his second year with the 49ers radio broadcast team as the sideline reporter. Brooks has been with KNBR for 10 years and currently co-hosts KNBR 680's Midday Show: Rick Barry with Rod Brooks. Brooks mixes knowledge of sports with a hip, down-to-earth perspective of a true sports fan. His style is serious, aggressive, slightly sarcastic and is characterized by his conversationalist approach and constant interaction with listeners. Brooks graduated from LSU with a degree in broadcast journalism.

49ERS ON THE AIR

San Francisco's radio partnership gives fans one of the most comprehensive radio deals in the NFL providing nearly 20 hours of on-air programming each week on KNBR 680, KNBR 1050 and KSAN 107.7 FM.

THE GAME DAY PROGRAMMING WILL CONSIST OF:

Pre-Game Show:
Three (3) hours before each game to air on KNBR 680/1050 and 107.7 The Bone.

Game Broadcasts:
Play-By-Play portion of the game day broadcasts on KNBR 680/1050 and 107.7 The Bone.

Post-Game Show:
Two (2) hours each week - one hour after each game - to air on KNBR 680/1050 and 107.7 The Bone.

49ERS RADIO NETWORK

The 2007 San Francisco 49ers Radio Network is made up of 24 stations in four states reaching more than 30 million listeners with stations in five of the top 70 media markets in the United States.

2007 49ERS TELEVISION PARTNERS

CBS 5/CW Bay Area are the official television partners of the San Francisco 49ers preseason broadcasts and the flagship television stations of the San Francisco 49ers Television Network. Both are part of the CBS Television Stations Group. CBS 5 has roots that date back to 1948 as the first television station in Northern California. CW Bay Area began in 1968 as the first UHF station in the Bay area.

THE TELEVISION PLAY-BY-PLAY BROADCAST TEAM

Dennis O'Donnell

Keena Turner

Announcing the 2007 preseason games are veteran broadcaster Dennis O'Donnell and former 49ers linebacker Keena Turner.

O'Donnell serves as the Sports Director at CBS 5 and appears Sunday through Thursday on Eyewitness News. In 2005, O'Donnell earned an Emmy as San Francisco's top sportscaster. He joined the CBS 5 News Team in August, 2000 and has been a fixture in Bay Area sports broadcasting since 1982. O'Donnell enters his seventh season as the preseason voice of the 49ers, calling the play-by-play on CBS 5. He has called the play-by-play for over 80 sporting events since 1999, including Stanford and University of San Francisco basketball for Fox Sports and Bay TV. O'Donnell also hosts CBS 5's NFL post-game show "The 5th Quarter," "49ers Preview," "49ers Press Pass" and the number-one rated Sunday night sports show, "Gameday" every Sunday night at 11:30 p.m.

Turner, a four-time Super Bowl Champion with the 49ers, returns as CBS 5's color analyst. Turner enters his 13th season as part of the broadcast team for 49ers preseason coverage. Turner spearheads the 49ers alumni efforts and is very active in the San Francisco community. He is also a partner in a local Bay Area Toyota dealership along with 49ers' great Ronnie Lott.
